The 250th Field Artillery Men Remember World War II Ruby Gwin,2012 The war memories for each were not easy to tell or write for some had repressed them long ago We have been able to live the American Dream through dedicated soldiers as the 250th Field Artillerymen They spent many nights together away from home with ties that would bind them together that has never loosened over the years Their stories are inspiring ones of faith courage patriotism and some told with humor which helped to put their experience into perspective somewhat During this time our people here at home were doing their part in every way they could Everyone listened to the radio for further news The good news finally came from Day of Infamy to VE VJ Day As a light weight 105mm howitzer battalion they would become known for their firing power They made history and are leaving a legacy to be most proud They proved they still can answer to the call of duty I am proud to say never once did I not enjoy my work with each of these men Let s just say we have a deeper friendship than when we began this project together I became their ears and wrote the word for many of them I scribbled making notes as they talked and then when hunched over my keyboard to translate from them working into the early morning hours I pray I conveyed each story as each of them would have As I wrote I got the sense what the American flag meant to each it symbolized a Tradition of Caring I wrote with a lump in my throat and a tear in my eyes and yes a little snicker

Trains to Nowhere and Other Stories of World War II R. David Fulcher,2001-09-05 Trains to Nowhere is the story of a modern man who searches to uncover his connection to the Holocaust after experiencing waking dreams and nightmares of the fictional Senbruch concentration camp Also featured in this volume are two short stories set against the chaotic backdrop of World

War II Barbarossa Diary is the story of a young man going off to fight on the Eastern Front and Haarth the Hunter depicts the struggle between an American recon squadron and a Nazi biological super weapon Freedomland Richard Price,2005-11-29 The celebrated author of Clockers delivers his most compelling and accomplished novel to date A white woman her hands gashed and bloody stumbles into an inner city emergency room and announces that she has just been carjacked by a black man But then comes the horrifying twist Her young son was asleep in the back seat and he has now disappeared into the night So begins Richard Price s electrifying new novel a tale set on the same turf Dempsey New Jersey as Clockers Assigned to investigate the case of Brenda Martin s missing child is detective Lorenzo Council a local son of the very housing project targeted as the scene of the crime Under a white hot media glare Lorenzo launches an all out search for the abducted boy even as he quietly explores a different possibility Does Brenda Martin know a lot more about her son s disappearance than she s admitting Right behind Lorenzo is Jesse Haus an ambitious young reporter from the city s evening paper Almost immediately Jesse suspects Brenda of hiding something Relentlessly she works her way into the distraught mother s fragile world befriending her even as she looks for the chance to break the biggest story of her career As the search for the alleged carjacker intensifies so does the simmering racial tension between Dempsey and its mostly white neighbor Gannon And when the Gannon police arrest a black man from Dempsey and declare him a suspect the animosity between the two cities threatens to boil over into violence With the media swarming and the mood turning increasingly ugly Lorenzo must take desperate measures to get to the bottom of Brenda Martin s story At once a suspenseful mystery and a brilliant portrait of two cities locked in a death grip of explosive rage Freedomland reveals the heart of the urban American experience dislocated furious yearning as never before Richard Price has created a vibrant gut wrenching masterpiece whose images will remain long after the final devastating pages One Sailor's Story: A Narrative of World War II by a Destroyer Escort Sonar Man Malcolm Akey,2012-10-05 For Christmas of 1988 my wife Doris and our children Ronn Carolyn and Phyllis gave me a tape recorder in order that I might record my story of the war So during the winter of 1989 I taped the story of my experiences of the time leading up to World War II and the time I spent as a Destroyer Escort Sonar Man in the Navy My story ended up being 22 ninety minute tapes Over the course of 4 months during the winter of 2011 12 Erma Akey my sister in law transcribed my story using these tapes My daughter Phyllis Akey Gregg and her husband K T Tom Gregg edited this story Thanks go to Erma Phyllis and Tom for the time they spent on my memoirs of WWII Additional thanks goes to my granddaughter Cynthia Kiesel and her sister in law Janet Kiesel for designing and publishing this book Film and Propaganda in America: World War II Richard E.
