Die Fieberkurve May 04 2023 Wenn der Ermittler in einem erstmals 1937/38 erschienenen Schweizer Krimi kiffen darf und diese neue Erfahrung begeistert mit einem "cheibe suber isch es gsy" kommentiert -- dann kann nur Friedrich Glauser der Autor sein...In der "Fieberkurve" geht es nicht nur die Aufklärung zweier aktueller und eines lange vergangenen ungeklärten Todesfalles -- es geht auch um Studers Jugendtrüme, die er nun, gerade eben Grovater geworden, von einer anderen Seite sieht: Ein Teil der Handlung spielt im Maghreb, bei der Fremdenlegion. Und es geht um arme Teufel, die das Schicksal über Gebühr gebeutelt hat.Zunächst aber beginnt alles in Paris, wo Studer ein eigenartiger Geistlicher, ein "pore blanc" vorgestellt wird, dem in einem Fremdenlegion-Posten vom "Hellseherkorporal" zwei Morde prophezeit worden waren. Studer lernt bald auch Marie Cleman kennen, ein "suubers Meitschi", das seine väterlichen Gefühle weckt -- aber auch sie ist in den Fall verwickelt. Und er findet heraus, dass es um viel Geld geht -- und darum, dass längst nicht alle Beteiligten das sind, das sie scheinen -- oder doch? Vieles spielt außerdem noch mit hinein, z.B. innerschweizerische Animositäten und der französische Geheimdienst -- eine etwas wirre Geschichte, zugegeben, die aber doch völlig logisch endet. Man merkt allerdings, dass der Roman erstmals in Fortsetzungen erschienen ist.

Fighting Scholars Jun 05 2023 'Fighting Scholars' offers the first book-length overview of the ethnographic study of martial arts and combat sports. The book's main claim is that such activities represent privileged grounds to access different social dimensions, such as emotion, violence, pain, gender, ethnicity and religion. In order to explore these dimensions, the concept of 'habitus' is presented prominently as an epistemic remedy for the academic distant gaze of the effaced academic body. The book's most innovative features are its empirical focus and theoretical orientation. While ethnographic research is a widespread and popular approach within the social sciences, combat sports and martial arts have yet to be sufficiently interrogated from an ethnographic standpoint. The different contributions of this volume are aligned within the same project that began to crystallize in Loïc Wacquant's 'Body and Soul': the construction of a 'carnal sociology' that constitutes an exploration of the social world 'from' the body.
