Title

Mashed Potato Pizza

Introduction

My grandpa always tells me that people who laugh at their own mistakes will get everyone else to laugh along with them. Yesterday, I learned that he is right.

Beginning of the Story

"Stay in line," Mrs. Martin said. I knew right away that my friend Naomi wouldn't be able to cut. I looked at Naomi and frowned. Soon, the line began to move faster, and I followed along hoping that there would still be pizza.

When I reached the counter, I looked at the choices. I could only see chicken and mashed potatoes, macaroni and cheese, and fish. I could hear the rumbling of my very disappointed stomach.

Middle Events

Then, out of the corner of my eye, I saw one last piece of pepperoni pizza. I got so excited.

"Pepperoni pizza," I said politely. Mrs. Martin handed me the pizza. I took the paper plate so quickly that the pizza slid off the plate. I tried to save it, but the pizza landed in the pan of hot, buttery mashed potatoes.

I could feel my face turning redder and redder. All I could hear was laughter from the kids in line.

As I looked at the upside-down pizza, I heard Mrs. Martin's voice. "Maria, would you like a side of mashed potatoes with your pizza?"

End of the Story

I looked up and saw Naomi. She was laughing too. With a nervous smile, I said, "Of course."

Mrs. Martin smiled and scooped the mashed potato pizza on my plate. I looked around at my friends, and we all laughed again.

Conclusion

I never really believed my grandpa until I saw my friends laughing with me. The laughing made me feel good instead of just clumsy.

Narrative Essays George Orwell, 2009 A wonderful selection of Orwell's finest narrative essays George Orwell was first and foremost an essayist From his earliest published article in 1928 to his untimely death in 1950 he produced an extraordinary array of short non fiction that reflected and illuminated the fraught times in which he lived and wrote As soon as he began to write something comments George Packer in his foreword to this new two volume collection it was as natural for Orwell to propose generalize qualify argue judge in short to think as it was for Yeats to versify or Dickens to invent This collection charts Orwell's development as a master of the narrative essay form and unites classics such as Shooting an Elephant with lesser known journalism and passages from his wartime diary Whether detailing the horrors of Orwell's boyhood in an English boarding school or bringing to life the sights sounds and smells of the Spanish Civil War these narrative essays weave together the personal and the political in an unmistakable style that is at once plain spoken and brilliantly complex
