The journey began in August of 2006. Sixteen short months later, our journey was over. Although the time span seems minimal, the events that took place were profound as our family was taken on a tremendous journey. Despair can creep in, and we are left without hope as we struggle against our personal storm under our own power. Only when we ask God to take control of the trial, and allow Him to do so, can we truly find peace in the midst of the crashing waves. Sometimes, we have to look for God and His provision in the unlikeliest of places, people, or circumstances. Then, only by looking backward can we see that He was with us the entire time. In God in the Forest, David shares his deepest challenges and how his faith in God was restored and strengthened. Often, when we are in the fire of our trial, we only feel the intense pain and are unable to perceive the incredible blessings we are receiving. God's amazing provision is all around us. Your connection with Jesus can become more intimate than you ever imagined. You'll find these 365 selections unique and memorable, perfect for personal devotions. Keep them at your bedside table to read first thing in the morning and last thing at night. You'll read un-thought of ideas about God that will intrigue you. Enjoy the turn-of-phrase that delivers spiritual depth with an air of simplicity to make it understandable and memorable. Enjoy spiritual perceptions with nuggets of truth to savor. Find deep contentment in responding to the awesome living Jesus and the stunningly creative Holy Spirit. The author has experienced difficult challenges, but also fantastic blessings. She began writing these devotionals during days of a confining illness. She began a prayer practice of while lying prostrate on the floor with the Bible at her side and a notebook within reach. Many of these devotionals are a result. Dr. Judith Rolfs also studied prayer extensively when her oldest son had advanced cancer and was hit by a drunk driver while jogging, three months into his treatment. She pored over the Gospels to see the methods Jesus used in healing and prayed to draw closer to Him. Throughout the next year, she saw Jesus work mini and major miracles as He graciously healed her son. The author says, "I know Jesus' presence and power are real. Trusting Him with all the whatevers of life ever since has brought me the deepest joy I've ever known." Without continual connection to Jesus, the source of all creation, nothing could exist. Only staying tuned to Him through reading His Word and maintaining a daily quiet time in His presence can we be productive and fruitful. May you fall ever more deeply in love with God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit through the redemptive unconditional love of Jesus. www.judithrolfs.com "I love Jesus above all and am forever grateful to Him for blessing me with a passion for seeking spiriitual truth." The perfect notebook for Christians. 126 pages with full line width for taking notes. Christians are free to disagree with other believers about certain matters of faith and practice that ought not to break up their unity or fellowship. But they will stand together on certain key doctrines and beliefs that are nonnegotiable. This book highlights those core Christian teachings that demand assent in order for someone to be called a true follower of Christ. A considerable amount of space is also devoted to the aspects of these central tenets that might include some flexibility of understanding without compromising the integrity of scriptural truth and the Christian tradition. 114 My life has always been in the spotlight. Born to two famous parents and then quickly rising to "super" status in the modeling world ensured that I, Astoria "Tori" Bell, would always have my image plastered across newsstands. Unfortunately, adoring fans weren't always magnanimous and now I have a stalker on my hands. Oddly enough, the tall, dark, and all-too handsome bodyguard hired to protect me seems more harmful than the threatening notes from the stalker. As well as his plan to flush out the danger by proposing a fake engagement. The lines between pretend and reality blur and I have to shore up my resolves. Baggage from my past means I can't let myself be vulnerable. But the way Marcel Fox treats me has me thinking otherwise. With a new rock on my finger and the man who put it there by my side, happily ever after seems like a possibility or is that as fake as my public persona? The Truth About Fame is the second book in the Christian Chick Lit series: Faith & Fortune. Living the Life of FAITH is going to take you to a level of faith where trusting in the ability of GOD will be your first response to any situation or circumstance in life without depending on this world's system or your own ability. Faith outside of the word of GOD is no way to live. We need to grab hold to GOD's word like never before and cleave to the promises that he has made for us through the Bible. We need to know it is GOD's will and desire for his children to live a blessed, prosperous, healthy, and happy life. We need to know that we can live this life through faith in GOD and overcome difficult times and challenges in life. In order to do this, we need to know GOD and how he has sent his word to us. We must know how the power of GOD worked in the lives of people in the Bible and that power is still available for us today to change situations and circumstances on our behalf today no matter what we are facing. It is up to us to take our faith out of this world's system and put it in GOD's system. This book will be an inspiration for you to redirect your faith to GOD and lean on GOD for direction in your life. GOD is good and he wants to see good things happen in the lives of his children. We can experience the life that GOD intended for us to have through understanding and accepting the love and the grace of GOD that has been given to us through faith in Jesus Christ. passive; that is, they would prefer to let church leaders give them answers about their faith rather than engaging in an active pursuit on their own. As a result, traditional doctrines and beliefs are generally accepted without question. This was the path the author followed for over fifteen years. Surprisingly, it wasn't until she left Christianity that she began an in-depth study of the Christian faith. "Things I Never Learned in Sunday School" is the result of her efforts. With nearly 200 reference notes and numerous scripture quotations, she examines the infallibility of the bible, the resurrection, the existence of Satan, the fate of the unsaved, the Antichrist, the end times, even the identity of God. She also provides extensive insight into why Paul played such an important role in establishing Christianity. The final conclusion? Many doctrines taught in Sunday School and church often have little basis in fact - and several are not addressed at all. Some readers may find the contents of this book unsettling. On the other hand, when read with an open and inquiring mind, it could very well result in a spiritual awakening. I had tried everything: therapy, medication, meditation. Everything except God. Lily Burana was in crisis. Desperate for rescue from her depression and anxiety, the punk-rock-girl-turned-writer feared she would die. She was down to her remedy of last resort: faith. A lapsed believer who had drifted away from the church and into a life on the margins during her young adult years, Lily had long believed that Christianity had nothing to offer her. Then an unmistakable sign from above led to her unexpected decision to let God in—just a little bit. But how could she come to terms with a religion she had dismissed as hostile and intolerant? In this collection of linked essays that chronicle her spiritual recovery, Lily explores what it means to embrace “a faith of surprisingly Jesus-y shape.”

Lily navigates her own unique path toward a trusting relationship with God as she addresses topics as diverse as coming out as Christian to your non-Christian friends, the intersection of faith and motherhood, and what it means to confront your history of mental illness and trauma. Whether recounting her history as a “baby Goth,” extolling the healing power of glitter, or wrestling with God for control over her life, Lily proves that you don’t need to have a flawless faith in order to experience God’s grace in action. “Grace for Amateurs is that rare Christian book packed with humor, depth, kindness, intelligence, and inclusion. If you yearn to return to the heart of faith—boundless, agenda-less love—sit down with Burana. She'll make you laugh and restore your hope."

Hebrews 11:1 Faith Is Confidence In What We Hope For And Assurance About What We Do Not See. This Journal can be used for journaling, writing stories, important notes, you are the author. Just Have Faith: What to Do When You Cannot See What You Hope For finds the connections between the shared understandings of faith common to all Christians and the particulars of one woman's journey as she strives to live by faith in her business and professional life, her home and family life, and her ministry and community life. Fanny Minnett, a veteran and retired educator, asks and offers an answer to the basic question, What is faith? In a conversational and highly approachable manner, she draws upon the insights of the Scriptures, Christian writers, and her own experiences to explain the basics of faith and to apply those understandings to the various venues in which most people seek to live out their faith in God. Just Have Faith does not avoid facing the fact that sometimes most if not all people confront challenges that test whether they have a faith in God that can withstand trials. By looking honestly at these moments, Fanny suggests to readers how they can surmount the hurdles that will come. Just Have Faith traces the roots of faith in God and describes the ways that the branches of faith offer Christians support at work, with family, and in service to others. At the heart of Jesus' call to us is the call to love others. But this can be so difficult. For one thing, others are not always very lovable; for another, loving others sometimes gets in the way of our own self-interests. But if we want to follow Jesus, love needs to be our lifestyle, and the way we treat others really does matter. It's not all sacrifice and pain, though. To be in loving relationship with others is to be truly alive--and it's the source of our greatest joy. This study will help you love others the way Jesus desires. You'll learn how to study the Bible as you examine and discuss topics such as Loving Others, Loving Our Families, Fellowship with Others, Getting Along with Others, Opposition from Others, Sharing Our Faith with Others, Serving Others. Each chapter has three main sections: Group Study (materials for a sixty- to ninety-minute small-group Bible study); Study Resources (notes and comments for use in both group and personal study); Personal Study (a series of reflection questions for use by group members on their own during the week). Extra help is available at the end of the book in the sections The Art of Leadership (tips on how to lead a small group) and Small Group Leader's Guide (notes on each session). The goal of PILGRIMAGE GUIDES is to understand what it means for us to meet and know Jesus. Through an examination of the spiritual disciplines of Bible study, prayer, and worship, we experience what it means to be a spiritual pilgrim--walking in a new way with God. And we look at how this new way changes the way we view others and live our lives in Christ. PILGRIMAGE GUIDES: Learning to Love God Learning to Love Ourselves Learning to Love Others This title explores the idea that our creator may be as much fun as we can be. By turning conventional Christian concepts upside down, the author aims to guide the reader to find new ways of looking at faith. The sacred cows of Christianity may well make a great hamburger. Faith is one of the most basic acts of being a follower of Jesus Christ. It Fear is something that everyone deals with in life. Whether you are young or old, single or married, live at home with your parents or just moved out, there are bound to be some moments of fear. Having moments of fear isn't the problem; however, the problem comes in when you allow those moments of fear to control your life and then you have a "spirit" of fear. The Bible says in 2 Timothy 1:7 "For God has not given us the spirit of timidity, but of power and love and discipline." The word "timidity" here is the Greek word "deilia" which is translated as fearfulness or cowardice. This means that while we might face moments of fear throughout our lives we can't allow this to make us cowards. We have to trust God and have more faith in God than we have fear in the world. This 31 day devotional is designed to help you live by God's equation for our life. God has created us to have more faith in Him than fear in the world. Each day you will have the "Scripture," which is simply the scripture for the day, the "Say what" which is the scripture explained in a few lines, and the "Breakdown" which is the actual devotion for the day. Then we have the "Live it out" which will be a few lines to help you act on this scripture today. The "Prayer" is next which is simply the daily prayer and then we have the "Reflection" which is the section in each day for you to write your notes and thoughts for the day. The reflection is key for you to treat this devotional like a journal to track your thoughts and come back to it later. Ok let's get started with day 1 on this journey that we will take together on the road to having more faith than we have fear, using God's equation. Have you ever found it difficult to hold on to your joy through the trials you face from day to day? Is it even possible? Psalm 16:11 tells us that yes, it is. Joy is found in the Lord's presence. There, we can bring our requests and our burdens to Him. But it's also a place where praise is welcome. This fully King James Version devotional has a place for you to record things that you are thankful for, daily prayer requests, and notes. This book reminds us of the truths in God's word that promise us we can have joy despite pain - In His Presence. Anthony—Arkansas This book “The Processes of Faith”, which deals with a very important aspect of the Christian life, is written by Professor Zacharias Tanee Fomum. In this book, the author defines faith as the proclamation of that which has already taken place in the invisible. It is the place where a truth will stick. As Active sites are to a Chemist, so is faith to a believer. Faith is created by obedience to God, prayer and fasting. For faith to be born and grow there is need for hearts that are totally consecrated to God. The author mentions the fact that he who has received an Active Word from God holds on to God no matter what he sees around - that is faith. The need to spend long hours before God, especially in reading and re reading God’s Word for faith to grow cannot be overemphasized. In fact, people ought to spend a lot of time with the Word of God so that it creates faith in them. Nevertheless, the author warns against the dangers of sin which destroys faith. He invites you to cooperate with God so that your faith in Him will be born and grow We recommend this book to you dear reader, praying that the Lord will use it to enable you to grow in your faith in Him. Have you ever felt like a basket case? If so, you have something in common with Moses and the Apostle Paul. Did you know the words of a well-known hymn came from a son's letter to his mother? Want to read about one family's faith over fear in the face of COVID-19? Each of the eighty thought-provoking, informative messages in this book provides a unique perspective on Everyday Faith for Daily Life. Jan White has written a weekly religion column for over 25 years in the Andalusia Star-News and the Enterprise Southeast Sun. Everyday Faith for Daily Life is a compilation of some of her most memorable columns. In this book, Jan shares personal experiences, inspirational stories, and practical lessons from her life that have increased her faith. At times, you will likely laugh, maybe cry; but you will certainly relate to the words you will read in this book. You will meet a 4th century Asian monk named Telemachus, 5th century missionary St. Patrick, winning football Coach Amos Alonzo Stagg, Holocaust survivor Corrie ten Boom, Astronaut Jim Irwin, talented artist and quadriplegic Joni Erickson Tada, and learn of their impact on the lives of others. Enjoy a humorous lesson on pride taught by a frog; take an eye-opening look at the amazing human body; understand the language of tears; and find answers to "why" questions regarding suffering and forgiveness. You will read parallels between seatbelts and the Ten Commandments, Watergate and Christ's Resurrection, and President Kennedy and British author C.S. Lewis. Jan White is an award-winning writer. Among her numerous writing awards, Jan received the prestigious Amy Writing Award for one of her columns selected from submissions of writers nationwide. Her articles and devotionals have been published in Focus on the Family and Charisma Magazine, as well as other publications. Most of my life, I looked for facts to justify my faith and quantify God until one day, I asked God if He was real, and He removed all doubt from the inside out! This book is the story of my walk toward God and ties together some of the major themes and mysteries of the Bible that relate to the Christian life. It may help you to understand who God is, who we are, and what God's plans are for planet earth and to each of you. It affords a different perspective of biblical truth and is intended to expand our understanding of reality by looking at what God says is true. Jesus said He came so that we could have life and have it more abundantly. Eternal life will definitely do that, but there may be more that can be experienced now. It is written that as a man thinks, so is he and for lack of knowledge a person perishes. Believing the truth will set us free here and now and leads to eternal life when we pass over. This book is comprised of over thirty years of notes and studies I have collected while attending and teaching Bible studies at several different denominations in several different states and in Spain. The book ends with a look at prophecy that has come to pass and prophecy of future events. A practical book filled with challenges and suggestions of things Christians can do to deepen their faith and draw closer to God. This book can save your soul—or even the soul of someone you love. Joseph Lewis melds philosophical topics of the conflicted mind, the origins of the mind, perceived truths of God, and how seeking these truths define what it means to be human. He also highlights topics such as sin, spiritual growth, and our notion of God. For the modern Christian, he emphasizes the importance of imitating Jesus in daily life. Additionally, he tackles the constant battle between good and evil, providing a religious chronological mapping of what has led us to today's iniquity. More importantly, he provides tools to discourage evil and live according to God's will. Other topics include what love is and how we've become detracted from the essence of pure love as well as how to prepare ourselves for the final judgment. May this collection of writings grant you internal peace and provide a roadmap to walk alongside the Lord. What is faith ? Is it possible to acquire more faith? Why is it important to have faith? In this book "The life of faith" the author presents the reader with a wealth of information about biblical faith based on the lives of 16 specific biblical characters who became so popular in biblical discussions and writings that they became known as " the rollcall of faith" and even "the heroes of our faith." The interesting thing about these 16 characters is every one of them had similar problems that we have today. They all had family problems and issues. They each also struggled with sin and disobedience. In this writing we see a common thread. Each individual in the rollcall of faith had an encounter with God or a representative of God and each one had to make a decision based on the instruction from God or God's representative. We see a pattern developing that biblical faith is a progressive faith. By studying these individuals' lives and their struggles; their failures; and their sins we see how very much they are like us. They have different names; different stories and they each had a destiny given them by God that they are so desperately trying to find. All 16 of these individuals discovered their destiny and fulfilled their assignment from God. By studying these people's lives we can learn common obstacles to our life of faith and we can see faith grow. We can see faith develop as a process as these individuals begin to trust God in their lives and demonstrate that they trust God. We also see a process that as they trust God it becomes part of their life process. A life of active belief and trust in God. Is that really possible? Yes ! As you read this story you will see doubt and despair turned into an active belief and solid trust as the people of God began to discover the purpose of God in their lives and walk it out deliberately. In this book you will discover and learn the same principles that these men and women walked out in their daily lives. Donald Davis was inspired to write this book after his wife, who spent her life leading others to the Lord, died of cancer. He explains how faith has gotten him through tough times and outlines a process for new believers to walk with the Lord. He notes that when you give your life to Christ, it is not just for a moment-it is for eternity. As you read, you'll consider questions such as: - Where are you going after you leave this world? - Why should you give back if you've been blessed with good fortune? - Who should you look to for guidance as you begin your walk with Christ? - How do you go about studying the Bible? When you turn away from sin and accept Jesus, it is for eternity. Life without Jesus is no life at all, so you must constantly study the Bible, worship Him, give Him praise, and bring lost souls to the Lord. Enjoy God's guidance in every area of your life and help friends and family find eternal salvation with the wisdom in Finding Your Faith. God is alive and personal, but he is also spirit. So having a relationship with God is different than having a relationship with any other person. This study will help you discover how you can grow and nurture your relationship with the living God. You'll learn how to study the Bible as you examine and discuss topics such as Encountering God, Knowing God, Being Sure We Know God, Learning about God, Conversing with God, Worshiping God, Following God. Each chapter has three main sections: Group Study (materials for a sixty- to ninety-minute small-group Bible study); Study Resources (notes and comments for use in both group and personal study); Personal Study (a series of reflection questions for use by group members on their own during the week). Extra help is available at the end of the book in the sections The Art of Leadership (tips on how to lead a small group) and Small Group Leader's Guide (notes on each session). The goal of PILGRIMAGE GUIDES is to understand what it means for us to meet and know Jesus. Through an examination of the spiritual disciplines of Bible study, prayer, and worship, we experience what it means to be a spiritual pilgrim--walking in a new way with God. And we look at how this new way changes the way we view others and live our lives in Christ.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS "Have you ever felt you had to hide the true you, the anxious, hurting and fearful you, even from God? Jennifer L. Lane's Faith Adventures shows us in her vulnerability before both God and her readers that: 'Our

God isn't shallow. Our God doesn't call us shallow, and He knows that sometimes with a phone call, a run stoplight, a routine blood test, or a sonogram, we can be thrown into the deep end.' Through both her experiences and Scriptures, Jennifer reassures us that: 'He is there in the deep end with us.' She shows us that it is precisely in the moments we choose to face our humanity - our anxiety, hurt and fear - leaning into the arms of our mighty God to hold, soothe and protect us, that our greatest faith adventures are birthed. Let Jennifer inspire, challenge and encourage you to step into the exciting Faith Adventures awaiting you. Pick up a copy of her book or gift it to someone you would love to bless this Christmas. You won't be disappointed." - Anna Smit, Christian blogger sharing her journey into God's love at www.joyofthespiritwithin.wordpress.com Following up her highly acclaimed Girl Meets God, author Lauren F. Winner has written an engrossing reflection of literary grace and spiritual wisdom with Still: Notes on a Mid-Faith Crisis. As she lives through a failed marriage and the loss of her mother, Winner finds her Christian faith slipping away. Through reading religious works and tomes and being counseled by leaders of the church, she learns she must find the courage to trust in God in order to find His presence. Elegantly written and profound, Still offers reflections on how murky and gray the spiritual life can be while, at the same time, shows us how to see the light we do encounter more clearly. The Bible is full of heroes people doing God's work and heeding His call. At one time, however, these prophets, disciples, and pivotal personalities were ordinary people just like us. In Ordinary People, Extraordinary God, author and minister Scott G. Van Note shows us how, as the pinnacle of the Lord's creation, we too can be heroes of faith and accomplish great and mighty things for Him. Van

Note focuses on the people of the Bible, presenting stories of their lives to show how their ordinary lives were transformed by their willingness to listen to God's Word. Two interactive chapters contain worksheets to help readers understand how their lives and experiences relate to the lives of the biblical people that are discussed. The questions posed offer food for individual reflection as well as for youth and adult group study and discussion. Through His Word, God has poured out love and compassion for each of us, and He is still in the business of helping, blessing and gifting His creation. Ordinary People, Extraordinary God helps us relate to Scripture and the people within it like never before. God does desire to use us in His kingdom, and if we are willing, He will use us mightily. "Ordinary People, Extraordinary God shows how God uses people just like you and me in powerful ways, when we act on faith in Him and His word, and abandon the bad habit of trusting in our own strength, plans, and ideas. As I read the book and was reminded of those in the Biblical story whom we think of as heroes of the faith, I was challenged to renew my absolute trust in and obedience to the Lord. I know Scott, and he is a man who models this life of faith and obedience. I recommend this book as a source of encouragement and challenge in our faith walk." Herschel Rosser Senior Associate Pastor The Vineyard Church of Stafford / Sugar Land, Texas What is faith? Faith is defined as "complete trust or confidence in someone or something." We may all want to have the kind of trust in God that gives us a strong faith, but it is not always easy to trust in a God we cannot see. So how do we grow that faith? It takes three things to have faith; 1. Trust that the person you have faith in can do what you need 2. Confidence that the person you have faith in loves you enough to do what you need 3. The actions and words needed to reinforce and build that faith This book guides you into a 31 day adventure to find that faith you have heard about and longed for. Journey by Faith tells the story of what happens in a life filled with faith. Every believer is given a measure of faith, but there is a gift of faith dispensed from the Holy Spirit that is poured into chosen believers' lives that goes beyond simple understanding and hopes. Their faith becomes miracles and blessings. In this book, Esmeralda shares that stepping out on the water very often means leaving your comfort zone. Our faith journey kept us marching toward Jesus at every turn, not knowing what was around the corner for us. Through all the trials and disappointments, we have learned that as we hold on to the hand of Jesus, He will perform miracle after miracle as we walk in faith and fully trust Him for the outcome. In Matthew 14:28-33 when Jesus beckoned Peter to come to him, he immediately got out of the boat (in faith) and walked on water. When he took his eyes off Jesus and began to look at the natural (instead of the supernatural), it was then that Peter began to sink. As he cried out to Jesus, he received the hand that came to his rescue. I have come to realize that the Lord will sometimes call us to do those things that are against our human nature so we can learn to trust him. As we develop a love relationship with him, we will become bond-slaves of our Savior. I trust our experiences and encounters with God will bless all who read the words of this book. Are you looking for a fun gift for someone close to you?
