Madame President Helene Cooper,2017-03-07 BEST BOOKS of 2017 SELECTION by THE WASHINGTON POST NEW

YORK POST The harrowing but triumphant story of Ellen Johnson Sirleaf leader of the Liberian women's movement winner of the Nobel Peace Prize and the first democratically elected female president in African history When Ellen Johnson Sirleaf won the 2005 Liberian presidential election she demolished a barrier few thought possible obliterating centuries of patriarchal rule to become the first female elected head of state in Africa's history Madame President is the inspiring often heartbreaking story of Sirleaf's evolution from an ordinary Liberian mother of four boys to international banking executive from a victim of domestic violence to a political icon from a post war president to a Nobel Peace Prize winner Pulitzer Prize winning journalist and bestselling author Helene Cooper deftly weaves Sirleaf's personal story into the larger narrative of the coming of age of Liberian women The highs and lows of Sirleaf's life are filled with indelible images from imprisonment in a jail cell for standing up to Liberia's military government to addressing the United States Congress from reeling under the onslaught of the Ebola pandemic to signing a deal with Hillary Clinton when she was still Secretary of State that enshrined American support for Liberia's future Sirleaf's personality shines throughout this riveting biography Ultimately Madame President is the story of Liberia's greatest daughter and the universal lessons we can all learn from this Oracle of African women
