Introduction to Black Studies Karenga (Maulana.),1993 Handbook of Black Studies Molefi Kete Asante,Maulana Karenga,2006 Publisher Description Introduction to Black Studies Karenga,2010 The Book of Coming Forth by Day Karenga (Maulana.),1990 The Book of Coming Forth by Day The Ethics of the Declarations of Innocence Kwanzaa Karenga (Maulana.),1998 Kwanzaa a celebration of family community and culture Orban's Oral Histology and Embryology Balint Joseph Orban,1986 Introduction to Cultural Ecology Mark Q. Sutton,E. N. Anderson,2004 This volume is geared toward students and instructors involved in cultural ecology ecological anthropology and or human ecology While covering basic concepts for beginners this book also provides a thorough and sophisticated discussion of cultural ecology s history and theory using examples from throughout the world both historical and contemporary Dispatches from the Ebony Tower Manning Marable,2000 What constitutes black studies and where does this discipline stand at the end of the twentieth century In this wide ranging and original volume Manning Marable one of the leading scholars of African American history gathers key materials from contemporary thinkers who interrogate the richly diverse content and multiple meanings of the collective experiences of black folk Here are numerous voices expressing very different political cultural and historical views from black conservatives to black separatists to blacks who advocate radical democratic transformation Here are topics ranging from race and revolution in Cuba to the crack epidemic in Harlem to Afrocentrism and its critics All of these voices however are engaged in some aspect of what Marable sees as the essential triad of the black intellectual tradition describing the reality of black life and experiences critiquing racism and stereotypes or proposing positive steps for the empowerment of black people Highlights from Dispatches from the Ebony Tower Henry Louis Gates Jr and Manning Marable debate the role of activism in black studies John Hope Franklin reflects on his role as chair of the President s race initiative Cornel West discusses topics that range from the future of the NAACP through the controversies surrounding Louis Farrakhan and black nationalism to the very question of what race means Amiri Baraka lays out strategies for a radical new curriculum in our schools and universities Marable s introduction provides a thorough overview of the history and current state of black studies in America Experience & Theory Lawrence Foster,Joe William Swanson,1970 Prejudice, Discrimination and Racism against Africans and Siddhis in India Ibrahima Diallo,2020-04-03 Africa and India have a long history of people to people contact as well as cultural educational and economic exchanges based on mutual interests They also share imperial and post imperial experiences The longstanding relations between the two continents experienced a new twist and a giant leap forward following the Africa India summit in 2008 However recently a series of violent incidents against the growing sub Saharan African communities in India has taken centre stage and made global news headlines the Indian and international media have portrayed violent and deadly assaults on sub Saharan Africans

in India as prejudice discrimination and racism This book provides a collection of studies that examine prejudice discrimination and racism towards Blackness in India with a special focus on the lived experiences of sub Saharan Africans and Siddhis Afro Indians In addition the topics in this volume cover ideological cultural and linguistic affinities between Africa and India The volume is divided into four parts of two chapters each the first two chapters introduce the focus of the book on sub Saharan Africans living in India These are followed by two contributions that examine prejudice discrimination and racism towards Africans and Siddhis Two further essays theorise prejudice and racism in India and the ways they are experienced by sub Saharan Africans and Siddhis The final two chapters of the book explore ideological linguistic and cultural affinities between India and Africa The volume also features contributions by two prominent Africanists The Foreword is written by Professor Souleymane Bachir Diagne the Director of the Institute of African Studies at Columbia University Professor Diagne was awarded the Edouard Glissant Prize for his work in 2011 and the Frantz Fanon Lifetime Achievement Award in 2018 The Afterword is authored by Professor Aparajita Biswas the former Director of the Centre for African Studies at the University of Mumbai and the current President of the African Studies Association of India Professor Biswas is one of India s most respected Africanists with an extensive publication record on African topics and numerous teaching research and fellowship positions in universities across the world

Race After Technology Ruha Benjamin, 2019-07-09 From everyday apps to complex algorithms Ruha Benjamin cuts through tech industry hype to understand how emerging technologies can reinforce White supremacy and deepen social inequity Benjamin argues that automation far from being a sinister story of racist programmers scheming on the dark web has the potential to hide speed up and deepen discrimination while appearing neutral and even benevolent when compared to the racism of a previous era Presenting the concept of the New Jim Code she shows how a range of discriminatory designs encode inequity by explicitly amplifying racial hierarchies by ignoring but thereby replicating social divisions or by aiming to fix racial bias but ultimately doing quite the opposite Moreover she makes a compelling case for race itself as a kind of technology designed to stratify and sanctify social injustice in the architecture of everyday life This illuminating guide provides conceptual tools for decoding tech promises with sociologically informed skepticism In doing so it challenges us to question not only the technologies we are sold but also the ones we ourselves manufacture Visit the book s free Discussion Guide www.dropbox.com

A Taste of Power Elaine Brown, 2015-05-20 Profound funny wild and moving heartbreaking accounts of a lonely black childhood Brown sees racial oppression in national and global context every political word she writes pounds home a lesson about commerce money racism communism you name it A glowing achievement Los Angeles Times Elaine Brown assumed her role as the first and only female leader of the Black Panther Party with these words

I have all the guns and all the money I can withstand challenge from without and from within Am I right Comrade It was August 1974 From a small Oakland based cell the Panthers had grown to become a revolutionary national organization mobilizing black communities and white supporters across the country but relentlessly targeted by the police and the FBI and increasingly riven by violence and strife within How Brown came to a position of power over this paramilitary male dominated organization and what she did with that power is a riveting unsparing account of self discovery Brown s story begins with growing up in an impoverished neighborhood in Philadelphia and attending a predominantly white school where she first sensed what it meant to be black female and poor in America She describes her political awakening during the bohemian years of her adolescence and her time as a foot soldier for the Panthers who seemed to hold the promise of redemption And she tells of her ascent into the upper echelons of Panther leadership her tumultuous relationship with the charismatic Huey Newton who would become her lover and her nemesis her experience with the male power rituals that would sow the seeds of the party s demise and the scars that she both suffered and inflicted in that era s paradigm shifting clashes of sex and power Stunning lyrical and acute this is the indelible testimony of a black woman s battle to define herself
