The Encyclopedia of Philosophy. V.2, 1967 Concise Encyclopedia of Philosophy of Language P. Lamarque, R. E. Asher, 1997-12-17 Philosophers have had an interest in language from the earliest times but the twentieth century with its so called linguistic turn in philosophy has seen a huge expansion of work focused specifically on language and its foundations No branch of philosophy has been unaffected by this shift of emphasis It is timely at the end of the century to review and assess the vast range of issues that have been developed and debated in this central area The distinguished international contributors present a clear accessible guide to the fundamental questions raised by the philosophers about language Contributions include Graeme Forbes on necessity Susan Haack on deviant logics Paul Horwich on truth Charles Travis on Wittgenstein L J Cohen on linguistic philosophy Ruth Kempson on semantics and syntax and Christopher Hookway on ontology to name but a few A wide range of topics are covered from the metaphysics and ontology of language language and mind truth and meaning to theories of reference speech act theory philosophy of logic and formal semantics There are also articles on key figures from the twentieth century and earlier Based on the foundation provided by the award winning Encyclopedia of Language and Linguistics this single volume provides a collection of articles that will be an invaluable reference tool for all those interested in the area of philosophy of language and also to those in cognitive science and psychology All the articles have been thoroughly revised and updated This volume gives a unique survey of topics that are at the very core of contemporary philosophy The Philosopher's Toolkit Julian Baggini, Peter S. Fosl, 2010-04-26 The second edition of this popular compendium provides the necessary intellectual equipment to engage with and participate in effective philosophical argument reading and reflection Features significantly revised updated and expanded entries and an entirely new section drawn from methods in the history of philosophy This edition has a broad pluralistic approach appealing to readers in both continental philosophy and the history of philosophy as well as analytic philosophy Explains difficult concepts in an easily accessible manner and addresses the use and application of these concepts Proven useful to philosophy students at both beginning and advanced levels Philosophy for Everyone Matthew Chrisman, Duncan Pritchard, Guy Fletcher, Elinor Mason, Jane Suilin Lavelle, Michela Massimi, Alasdair Richmond, Dave Ward, 2016-07-15 Philosophy for Everyone begins by explaining what philosophy is before exploring the questions and issues at the foundation of this important subject Key topics in this new edition and their areas of focus include Moral philosophy the nature of our moral judgments and reactions whether they aim at some objective moral truth or are mere personal or cultural preferences and the possibility of moral responsibility given the sorts of things that cause behavior Political philosophy fundamental questions about the nature of states and their relationship to the citizens within those states Epistemology what our knowledge of the world and ourselves consists in and how we come to have it and whether we should form beliefs by trusting what other people tell us Philosophy of mind what it means for something to have a mind and how minds should be understood and explained Philosophy of science foundational conceptual issues in scientific research and practice such as whether scientific theories are true and Metaphysics fundamental questions about the nature of reality such as whether we have free will or whether time travel is possible This book is designed to be used in conjunction with the free Introduction to Philosophy MOOC massive open online course created by the University of Edinburgh s Eidyn research centre and hosted by the Coursera platform www.coursera.org course introphil This book is also highly recommended for anyone looking for a short overview of this fascinating discipline
