everyday grind The What's Best Next Study Guide a companion to What's Best Next and the What's Best Next Video Study offers a practical approach for improving productivity in all areas of life It will help you better understand How to create a mission statement for your life that's actually practicable How to delegate to people in a way that really empowers them How to overcome time killers like procrastination interruptions and multitasking by turning them around and making them work for you How to process workflow efficiently and get your email inbox to zero every day How to have peace of mind without needing to have everything under control How generosity is actually the key to unlocking productivity This twenty four session study guide includes Reflection questions for group and personal study Video teaching notes Frequent Bible references and quotes from Christian thinkers Ample space for notetaking Closing prayers at the end of each session Productivity isn't just about getting more things done It's about getting the right things done the things that count make a difference and move the world forward You can learn how to do work that matters and how to do it well It's Not About Me Max Lucado,2005-02-27 Pop culture and psychobabble tell us to make ourselves the center of the universe in order to be happy Churches have communicated the false idea that God exists to give us all that we selfishly want In this book Max Lucado reminds us that it's not about us it's all about God It is through this shift in thinking that we can truly live an unburdened happy life Reach out Africa Dorothy H. Ettling, Kevin B. Vichales,2014-06-30 This guidebook is a collection of stories of African development projects that have transformed the lives of individuals and communities through collaborative partnerships Through the study of these successful collaborations readers will learn to Engage in capacity building for collective problem solving at the community level Work collaboratively for womens empowerment Mobilize culturally diverse communities to plan implement and evaluate sustainable community development Build meaningful collaborations among university and grassroots partners Maximize volunteer skills and match them to community needs The Womens Global Connection WGC www.womensglobalconnection.org embarked on this journey of cross cultural engagement and capacity building with one intention grounded on three pillars Local ownership demanded individual and community involvement and buy in Social empowerment required that each of our endeavors resulted in the local communitys capacity to share the knowledge and replicate the training that was offered The promise of sustainability curbed our efforts to engage only in projects that held the hope of long term sustainability by the community itself Years of collaboration among the womens cooperatives WGC a private Catholic university and countless volunteers has demonstrated the unbounded potential of reaching across boundaries and barriers to build a more responsible sense of global citizenship in todays inequitable world society I Pledge Allegiance David Crump,2018-02-01 What does it really mean for Christians to live as faithful kingdom citizens in today's world Bitter partisan conflict State sanctioned torture Economic injustice Ethical corruption Even a cursory glance over daily news headlines shows a stark contrast between the American political state and the kingdom of heaven Where then does the Christian's ultimate allegiance lie In I Pledge Allegiance David Crump issues a clarion call to

Jesus's twenty first century disciples stirring them up to heed God's word and live out their kingdom citizenship here on earth. Closely examining the ethical teachings of Jesus and his apostles in the New Testament and using real world examples to illustrate the vital issues at stake. Crump challenges Christians to embrace the radical counterintuitive upside down way of Jesus, a way of living and thinking that turns the world's values on their head, smashes through stale political and cultural conventions, and welcomes God's kingdom into the very heart of our shared society. Awaiting the City Chad Brand, Tom Pratt, 2012-11-13. People of faith have always been on search for the homeland first promised to Abraham in light of the Babylonian civilization he left. That future hope was reinterpreted by Jesus and taken up by St Augustine in The City of God, reinterpreted again by John Calvin in Geneva and given a final form by the Puritan pilgrims who came to America to establish the City upon a Hill. Fundamental to this quest for a just holy civilization has been the progress of humankind on the earth in light of the mandate to fill and rule over it. Authors Chad Brand and Tom Pratt discuss that progress as they answer the vital questions for praxis: How should biblically oriented Christians think of and work toward God's justice along the way? How can we steer between a utopian vision and a limited vision to a new rational compassion. The Global Orphan Crisis Diane Lynn Elliot, 2012-10-01. God's call to care for the orphaned and vulnerable children of the world is not easy or comfortable. And it will require willingness, commitment, and sacrifice. The more you know about the global orphan crisis, the more your heart will break, and it will cause you to want to do something, anything, to make the life of an orphaned child a little easier. The need is overwhelming, but if you are willing, you can be part of the global orphan solution. It is a decision that will change your life forever. The journey will be worth the effort in countless blessings along the way. Together with God's strength, you can be the hands and feet of Christ and make a difference in the life of an orphaned child now and for all eternity. Are you ready for the adventure of a lifetime. Life to the Max - A Max Lucado Digital Sampler Max Lucado, 2011-04-05. Dear Friend, May I share a story that is very dear to my heart. It's a story of hillbillies and simple folk net casters and tax collectors A story of a movement that exploded like a just opened fire hydrant out of Jerusalem and spilled into the ends of the earth into the streets of Paris the districts of Rome and the ports of Athens Istanbul Shanghai and Buenos Aires A story so mighty controversial head spinning and life changing that two millennia later we wonder Might it happen again Heaven knows we hope so These are devastating times 1 75 billions people are desperately poor one billion are hungry Lonely hearts indwell our neighborhoods and attend our schools In the midst of it all here we stand you me and our one of a kind lives We are given a choice an opportunity to make a big difference during a difficult time What if we did What if we rocked the world with hope Worth a try don t you think Max Lucado One hundred percent of the author s royalties from Outlive Your Life products will benefit children and families through World Vision and other ministries of faith based compassion

Understanding Christian Mission Scott W. Sunquist,2013-09-15 This comprehensive introduction helps students pastors and mission committees understand contemporary Christian mission historically biblically and theologically Scott Sunquist a respected scholar and teacher of world Christianity recovers missiological thinking from the early church for the twenty first century He traces the mission of the church throughout history in order to address the global church and offers a constructive theology and practice for missionary work today Sunquist views spirituality as the foundation for all mission involvement for mission practice springs from spiritual formation He highlights the Holy Spirit in the work of mission and emphasizes its trinitarian nature Sunquist explores mission from a primarily theological rather than sociological perspective showing that the whole of Christian theology depends on and feeds into mission Throughout the book he presents Christian mission as our participation in the suffering and glory of Jesus Christ for the redemption of the nations

Mission Drift? Oddvar Sten Ronsen,2016-02-14 The Lausanne congress of 1974 marked the widespread adoption of integral mission as essential to the evangelical witness of Christ in our world Ever since there has been ongoing debate as to the roles of evangelism and social action In this book Oddvar Sten Ronsen argues that instead of the priority of evangelism over social action there should be the anticipation of evangelism as a result of social action Although evangelism and social action may not occur at the same time the author warns of the possibility of mission drift where projects begin with the intention of meeting the social and spiritual needs of the people but fail to proceed to evangelism In succumbing to this mission drift projects cease to be true to the principles of integral mission Combining theological reflection with case studies of microfinance enterprises in the Philippines and Thailand Ronsen evaluates the sustainability of and social good delivered by these Christian projects to the communities they serve The research sheds light on the causes of a drift from integral mission how these can be managed and whether microfinance can be a bridge for the gospel

Suffer the Children Gary Scott Smith,Jane Marie Smith,2017-01-31 We all say that we care about children We all know that millions of children around the world including in the United States are suffering physically materially and emotionally and are unable to reach their full potential Moreover their material deprivation and physical ills often prevent them from responding to the gospel Most of us conclude that we cannot do anything significant to help the impoverished children living in our own backyards let alone those living in the slums of Nairobi or the hinterlands of Haiti We can however do much to improve their lives materially and spiritually Through praying giving generously sponsoring children volunteering with aid organizations living more simply investing and shopping more prudently and advocating more zealously in the political arena we can make a difference We can prod politicians business executives and church leaders to prioritize aiding destitute children We can support one of the hundreds of organizations that are working effectively to help indigent children have better lives Suffer the Children describes the plight of poor children and provides many practical ways we can participate in one of the most important crusades to improve our world Get Your Hands Dirty Jordan J.

Ballor,2013-07-31 This volume brings together a decade of reflection at the intersection of culture economics and theology Addressing topics ranging from the family to work politics and the church Jordan J Ballor shows how the Christian faith calls us to get involved deeply and meaningfully in the messiness of the world Drawing upon theologians and thinkers from across the great scope of the Christian tradition including Augustine Thomas Aquinas Martin Luther Abraham Kuyper and Dietrich Bonhoeffer and engaging a variety of current figures and cultural phenomena these essays connect the timeless insights of the Christian faith to the pressing challenges of contemporary life Complexities of Money and Missions in Asia Paul

H. De Neui,2012-06-01 What happens when an expatriate missionary is thrust into a context where the standard of living is so divergent that perceived or actual wealth suddenly becomes the strongest draw of attraction What actual message is communicated through the wordless witness of the Western Christian missionary lifestyle Is attention to so called good news now so financially focused that other foundational issues become overshadowed This issue becomes even more complicated when the missionary arrives clueless about personal privilege ignorant of the envy of others and carries the mistaken attitude that others think similarly SEANET proudly presents Complexities of Money and Missions in Asia for all who are asking such questions From seven different indigenous and expatriate perspectives this volume deals with the perceptions of money specifically from those seeking to serve obediently in the Buddhist contexts of Asia SEANET serves as a networking forum wherein groups and individuals can meet to reflect and strategize together on topics particular to their collective mission SEANET does not promote one particular strategy or one particular theology but seeks to learn from models of hope that show what God is doing around the world Each year the annual SEANET conference brings together over one hundred and fifty practitioners who are privileged to live and serve throughout the Buddhist world The chapters of this volume represent seven of those voices from the network The Oxford Handbook of Christianity and Economics Paul Oslington,2014-01-31 Many important contemporary debates cross economics and religion in turn raising questions about the relationship between the two fields This book edited by a leader in the new interdisciplinary field of economics and religion and with contributions by experts on different aspects of the relationship between economics and Christianity maps the current state of scholarship and points to new directions for the field It covers the history of the relationship between economics and Christianity economic thinking in the main Christian traditions and the role of religion in economic development as well as new work on the economics of religious behavior and religious markets and topics of debate between economists and theologians It is essential reading for economists concerned with the foundations of their discipline historians moral philosophers theologians seeking to engage with economics and public policy researchers and practitioners Great Commission Companies Steven Rundle, Tom A. Steffen, 2011-02-09 In this landmark book economist Steve Rundle and missiologist Tom Steffen offer their paradigm for the convergence of business and missions the Great Commission Company This revised and expanded edition provides new and updated case studies of Great Commission Companies in diverse contexts around the world
