The success of every great company or popular brand is often the vision of a great leader. Here in this book, we profile 100 Great Business Leaders, giving an account of their business career, demonstrating the innovations, opportunities and business principles that have been introduced in their companies. Also included is a practical section to demonstrate how a reader might apply these ideas in their own lives. The 100 chosen business leaders are from companies located all over the world and include a mixture of business founders (for example Henry Ford, Bill Gates, Kiichiro Toyoda, Liu Chuanzhi of Lenovo) and famous business executives (Jack Welch of GE, Lee Iacocca of Chrysler, Indra Nooyi of PepsiCo, Chua Sock Koong of Singapore Telecommunications). The words come from different countries where English is spoken, such as the United States, the United Kingdom, Hong Kong, South Africa, and others. The author's website has received more than 1.2 million hits since its launch in 2004, and he is frequently interviewed about language in publications such as the New York Times. A head-spinning thriller from crime writer Deon Meyer: the story of an ex-cop who has seven days to solve a seemingly unsolvable crime -- the answer to which lies in his own dark past. When Johannes Jacobus Smit, an antiques dealer, is found burned with a blowtorch and killed execution-style with a single shot to the back of the head, former cop Zatopek "Zed" van Heerden is called in to investigate the unusual circumstances of the murder. Zed is still obsessed with the betrayals of his own past but must fill in the blanks of this victim's life. Who tortured and killed Smit, and who was Smit in the first place? Not the man whose papers he carries, that much is certain. Zed can never be sure of the loyalties of the people with whom he is dealing -- his own past reputation ensures that -- and he soon finds himself uncovering secrets that the security services of many countries would like left alone. "Exciting....A terrific ride on almost every level."-Chicago Tribune By presenting an autobiographical narration of his life, author Josh wa Maoto seeks to reveal how God has demonstrated His love and mercy for him. His childhood life might have seemed to be smooth sailing on the surface, but the reality was tougher than it appeared. His road was full of bumps, and he owes it all to God. In fact, Maoto believes God designed his life that way intentionally in order to show His true nature of providence to the world. Although the names of people, places, and businesses have been changed, Speaking from the Heart shares the true story of Maoto's life experiences. His aim is to inspire hope in the many hopeless young men and women who have been neglected by their parents. His goal is to help these young people continue to dream big and work beyond minimum expectations. As long as we trust in the general goodness of humanity as an extension of Jehovah's true nature of providence, victory is certain for the faithful. This personal narrative and testimony uses the lens of faith to recall one man's life history growing up and coming of age in South Africa in the midst of apartheid. An ancient Koine Greek manuscript is discovered that sheds fresh light on a host of long-held beliefs. History professor, Etienne Naude, discovers that the past, present and future are inextricably linked and intertwined. Things are not always as they appear to be at a first glance. This rollercoaster ride accelerates at an alarming pace. Our unlikely team of unlikely heroes uncovers ancient mysteries that are directing present realities. As they peel back the layers that hide the malevolent beast that has systematically burrowed into the fabric of all society from ancient times, they uncover convoluted "wheels within wheels." At last the hidden enemy is revealed in its true reality. They discover that God's revenge is indeed an awesome thing. We read the eye-witness testimony of a survivor -- one who has witnessed this reality from the inside. He describes a sickening holocaust of epic proportions that history has conveniently swallowed up and glossed over. Man does not learn from the lessons of the past, and is viciously inhumane towards his fellow man. Our team members also see that God's love and grace to those who obey Him, are infinite. The helter-skelter ride builds up inexorable velocity until it comes to a crashing climax, which has included the international security forces, as well as the CIA and the KGB. Life can never be the same again! African Dawn by Tony Park, the author of Red Earth, is a full-throttle international thriller that will engross fans of Clive Cussler. It's darkest before the dawn. Three families - the Bryants, the Quilter-Phippses and the Ngwenyas - share a history as complex and bloody as Zimbabwe itself. Dedicated conservationists Paul and Philippa Bryant are struggling to save their farm and small herd of endangered black rhinos from seizure by corrupt government minister Emmerson Ngwenya. Twin brothers, ex-soldier Braedan and environmentalist Tate Quilter-Phipps join the fight. But when the brothers fall in love with the same woman, Natalie Bryant, their rivalry threatens to put the lives of all involved at risk. And with Emmerson vowing to stop at nothing until he gets what he wants, a bloody showdown seems inevitable. In the broken country that is Zimbabwe, only the strongest can survive. There is a desire, an ambition, a plan and a path that seems right to man but at the end it leads to destruction. Desirable but destructive. The reason Judas Iscariot betrayed Jesus Christ was because of his desire and ambition to have money. He never thought that his desire and ambition would lead to his destruction and the death of Jesus Christ. His story is my story and can be your story too. I never thought that my desire to become rich would lead to the death of the Roman Catholic priest, and to the destruction of my future and dreams. A desire mother of all temptations took over my life and future. Why do people commit crime? Why do people lie and betray each other? Why do people cheat their partner's? Why do man and woman of God live secret lives? and why do man and woman of integrity only have it to lose it overnight? The answers to all these questions are found in the pages of these books, "desirable but destructive. Emma Le Roux hires a personal security expert when her believed-dead brother is named as a suspect in the murders of five people, a situation that exposes her to political tensions, corruption, and life-threatening violence. In Shift, Carlos Ghosn, the brilliant, audacious, and widely admired CEO of Nissan, recounts how he took the reins of the nearly bankrupt Japanese automotive company and achieved one of the most remarkable turnarounds in automotive—and corporate—history. When Carlos Ghosn (pronounced like "phone") was named COO of Nissan in 1999, the company was running out of gas and careening toward bankruptcy. Eighteen short months later, Nissan was back in the black, and within several more years it had become the most profitable large automobile company in the world. In SHIFT, Ghosn describes how he went about accomplishing the seemingly impossible, transforming Nissan once again into a powerful global automotive manufacturer. The Brazilian-born, French-educated son of Lebanese parents, Ghosn first learned the management principles and practices that would shape his decisions at Nissan while rising through the ranks at Michelin and Renault. Upon his arrival at Nissan, Ghosn began his new position by embarking on a three-month intensive examination of every aspect of the business. By October 1999 he was ready to announce his strategy to turn the company around with the Nissan Revival Plan. In the plan, he consistently challenged the tradition-bound thinking and practices of Japanese business when they inhibited Nissan's effectiveness. Ghosn closed plants, laid off workers, broke up long-standing supply networks, and sold off marginal assets to focus on the company's core business. But slashing costs was just the first step in Nissan's recovery. In fact, Ghosn introduced changes in every corner of the company, from manufacturing and engineering to marketing and sales. He updated Nissan's car and truck lineup, took risks on dynamic new designs, and demanded improvements in quality—strategies that quickly burnished Nissan’s image in the marketplace, and re-established the company in the minds of consumers as a leader in innovation and engineering. Like the best-selling memoirs of Jack Welch, Lou Gerstner, and Larry Bossidy, SHIFT is a fascinating behind-the-scenes look at what it takes to transform and re-create a world-class company. Written by one of the world’s most successful and acclaimed CEOs, SHIFT is an invaluable guide for business readers everywhere. With three bestselling books published, Khaya Dlanga is one of South Africa’s favourite authors. His ability to write candidly and authentically about himself and his world has resonated with readers from all walks of life. In March 2020 Khaya found himself bereaved, alone and facing an indefinite lockdown as a result of COVID-19. Like most of us, he turned to social media to maintain some human connection and his followers came through and kept him going. It’s The Answers For Me is the result of Khaya’s ongoing Q&A interactions with his followers on Instagram. It’s evidence of the genuine communities that are formed on social media: intensely human, at times strange and shocking, sometimes touching and often really funny. And it’s a record of a nation going through what have been the most bizarre (and longest) years in recent history. Khaya’s enviable gift for storytelling makes people want to hear his stories and also to trust him with theirs. From the secrets our parents think they keep from us, to the real reasons we stay in relationships, and venturing into many other everyday issues and situations, It’s The Answers For Me captures our collective mgowo. Provides information on the truck and specialty vehicles business, including: automotive industry trends and market research; mergers, acquisitions, globalization; automobile manufacturers; truck makers; makers of specialty vehicles such as RVs; automobile loans, insurance and other financial services; dealerships; and, components manufacturers. Die skrywer is ‘n normale Suid- Afrikaanse vader en eggenoot met ‘n beroep wat hy nie met sy gesin gedeel het nie. Van kind, na soldaat, na boer, na sakeman, na Polisie beampte. Hy begin die verhaal by sy kindsbeen dae waartydens ons nie altyd weet hoekom en waarom dinge so gebeur nie. Die gebeure hierin vervat beskryf dit. “Draaipunt” neem jou op ‘n bospaatjie waarlangs jy die sal begryp. Dit leer en berei jou voor vir besluite wat jy sal moet maak tydens jou seevaart wat soms lei tot stormagtige waters. Gedurende die 40ste jaar van sy lewe het God hom stilgemaak om vir hom te sê wat in Deut. 8: 2-3. staan.”v2 “En jy moet dink aan die hele pad waarlangs die Here jou God jou nou veertig jaar lank in die woestyn gelei het tot jou verootmoediging en beproewing, om te weet wat in jou hart is, of jy sy gebooi sal hou of nie. v3 En Hy het jou verootmoedig en jou laat honger ly en jou die manna laat eet wat jy en jou vaders nie geken het nie, om aan jou bekend te maak dat die mens nie van brood alleen lewe nie, maar dat die mens lewe van alles wat uit die mond van die Here uitgaan.” Ook vandag mag u voel u gaan deur waters, God is by u, of deur riviere - hulle sal u nie oorstroom nie; as u deur vuur gaan, sal u nie skroei nie, en die vlam sal u nie brand nie. Wees nie bevrees nie, God maak iets nuut, u sal dit dalk nie merk nie. Ja, God maak 'n pad in die woestyn, riviere in die wildernis om sy volk (u en ek), Sy uitverkorene, te laat drink. Die natuur en ek en u sal God eer, ons sal Sy lof verkondig. Elke boodskap hierby aangeheg, is van God, aan my oorgedra, en ek deel dit graag met u. Die skrywer wil getuig en met u deel dat gedurende die tyd het hy met God ontmoet en ook homself leer ken. Hy beskryf dit as swaar tye maar sy beste tye met God. God is so Goed: God vra soms van ons die aardse dinge, die eindige dinge en gee ons die Hemelse-ewige in die plek daarvan. God eis sekere dinge van ons op, maar dan oorlaai Hy ons weer met Sy allerrykste seëninge. Nooit maar nooit het God eenkant gestaan en kyk hoe donkerte om hom toesak nie. Hy is sy Lig, dit het hy aan die Here se genade te danke. Wanneer ons oor God of met God wil praat, Hy sal ons leer wat om te sê, ook vandag sal Hy ons sterkte skenk. Rom.10:13. - Want: Elkeen wat die Naam van die Here aanroep, sal gered word. Om dissipel van Jesus te wees moet ons sterf, ons kruis opneem en agter Jesus aangaan. Volgens Heb.12 word ons gereken egte kinders van God te wees. God toets ons harte, nederigheid, vriendelikheid en al die vrugte van die Gees, sal ons deel word as ons in die Lig bly. Lees Rom 12: 9-21. Oorwin die kwaad. Die is 'n saak tussen jou en die Here. Dit gaan nie daarom om mense te plesier nie, maar om God te behaag. By skuldbelydenis ervaar jy die liefdevolle troos van die Vader. Dit is so maklik om kwaad met kwaad te vergeld, maar die Heilige Gees sê aan ons wat die Vader van ons verwag: God se tyd is die regte tyd. Die manuskrip is: *‘n belofte gestand gedoen, *die waarheid kom tot die lig, *die ware verhaal kan mense help in nood ongeag wat hul omstandighede is, *die ontdekkings is ongelooflik en U sal dit wil deel met ander. Die hart van die verhaal is waar die skrywer gekonfronteer word, maar geweier het om ‘n korrupte Polisie man te wees, nie sonder ‘n prys nie – Sy lewe!

The New Testament is about the father's love and the inheritance which He has bequeathed upon His children. In this book, you will learn about the three most important personalities in the New Testament and how anyone can qualify to receive the inheritance as a beneficiary in the Kingdom of God. You will discover how to live the blessed lifestyle now and how to live stress-free. After reading this book, you will be positioned for wealth-transfer and to live debt-free. You will have a clear understanding of biblical covenant and inheritance and how you can enjoy the full benefits of salvation apart from works. This e-book details the most interesting and important characteristics of the automobiles, car maintenance, styling features, car body style, the standard classification of the cars, an history of the automobiles, introduction in the automotive industry, and the traffic code, rules and signs. An automobile, usually called a car (an old word for carriage) or a truck, is a wheeled vehicle that carries its own engine. Older terms include horseless carriage and motor car, with “motor” referring to what is now usually called the engine. It has seats for the driver and, almost without exception, for at least one passenger. The automobile was hailed as an environmental improvement over horses when it was first introduced. Before its introduction, in New York City, over 10,000 tons of manure had to be removed from the streets daily. However, in 2006 the automobile is one of the primary sources of worldwide air pollution and cause of substantial noise and health effects. Years after the end of Apartheid South Africa remains racially polarized and socially divided. In this context pilgrimage and travelling rituals serve to help those who often find themselves at the bottom end of the social ladder to make sense of their world. This book describes a South Africa that is made up of a number of different fragmented worlds. The focus is on the Zion Christian Church, one of the largest religious movements in southern Africa, and a good example of indigenized African Christianity. Pilgrimage plays an important role in reintegrating some of those fragmented worlds into something approaching wholeness. This book tells the story of how the enduring ritual of pilgrimage is transforming African religion, along with the lives of ordinary South Africans. New edition includes the sentencing and identifies Don Steenkamp as the murderer for the first time ... Just after dusk on Good Friday, 6 April 2012, the peace and quiet permeating the small Northern Cape town of Griekwastad was disrupted when a young teenage boy sped into town in his father’s Isuzu bakkie and screeched to a halt in front of the town’s nearly deserted police station to announce that his parents and sister had been brutally shot and killed on the family farm, Naauwhoek Based on interviews with all the role-players, including the investigating officers on the case, the forensic and ballistic experts, and family and friends of the deceased, this is the riveting account of what really happened on Naauwhoek farm on that fateful day, as told by the reporter who first broke the story ... The time, for different, is now. Tap into the insights of our leading business minds and thought leaders and equip your business for a successful new way of doing business. Management practices and processes frequently differ across national and regional boundaries. What may be acceptable managerial behaviour in one culture may be counterproductive or even unacceptable in another. As managers increasingly find themselves working across cultures, the need to understand these differences has become increasingly important. This book examines why these differences exist and how global managers can develop strategies and tactics to deal with them. The text draws on recent research in anthropology, psychology, and management, to explain the cultural and psychological underpinnings that shape managerial attitudes and behaviours, whilst introducing a learning model to guide in the intellectual and practical development of managers seeking enhanced global expertise. It offers user-friendly conceptual models to guide understanding and exploration of topics and summarizes and integrates the lessons learned in each chapter in applications-oriented 'Manager's Notebooks'. November 2001. The holy month of Ramadan. With the world reeling from the attack on the twin towers, a Delta team is furiously hunting a master terrorist amongst an isolated expatriate community in the mountains of Saudi Arabia. The carefully planted bait, a family matter of honour. Visiting his estranged wife and child on the military hospital compound, Riad al Ajmi, British educated homicide detective, realises a serial killer -- a shadowy spectre of a cat -- has been prowling for more than a decade, the authorities in denial for reasons of their own. His own family in imminent danger, Riad investigates the exotic expat community, uncovering deeply buried dark secrets. His journey takes him into the world of virtual slavery, prostitution and drug trafficking in The Kingdom where to be caught can mean a public beheading. A world where a thing is only a sin if found out. Riad finds himself hunted as powerful forces close in and things come to a terrifying head in the all revealing Night of Power. From the international bestseller: an Afrikaner boy and his father navigate post-Apocalyptic South Africa—"reminiscent of The Stand and The Passage" (Stephen King). Nico Storm and his father, Willem, drive a truck filled with essential supplies through a desolate land. They are among the few in the world, as far as they know, to have survived a devastating virus that has swept over the planet. In this new reality, Nico realizes that his superb marksmanship and cool head mean he is destined to be his father's protector, even though he is still only a boy. Willem Storm, though not a fighter, is a wise and compassionate man with a vision for a new community that survivors will rebuild from the ruins. And so Amanzi is founded, drawing Storm's "homeless and tempest-tost"—starting with Melinda Swanevelder, whom they rescue from brutal thugs; Hennie Fly, with his vital Cessna plane; Beryl Fortuin and her ragtag group of orphans; and Domingo, the man with the tattooed hand. Then Sofia Bergman arrives, the most beautiful girl Nico has ever seen, who changes everything. As the community grows, so do the challenges they face—not just from the attacks of biker brigands, but also from within. Looking back later in life, Nico recounts the traumatic events that led to the greatest rupture of all—the murder of the person he loves most. "Compelling, action-packed and fraught with emotion . . . bears favourable comparison with landmarks of the genre such as Stephen King's The Stand and Cormac McCarthy's The Road. Simply stunning." —John Coates, Express (UK) "Great stuff." —Stephen King Newly emerging African democracies have let down the people of Africa, and have brought about untold misery and suffering. Most of Africa's social, economic, and security challenges have arisen due to the failure of political leaders to instill sanity and discipline in the government machinery. In fact, many join politics with the sole aim of accumulating riches in the shortest space of time. In the detective novel Crime and Corruption, a police inspector probes the deaths of a prominent businessman, his son, and some residents of Ndirande Township in the city Blantyre. What he finds leads to a cover-up by those he never would have suspected.
