Summary by Abigail Rasmussen Pearl-maiden Henry Rider Haggard, 1903 The Brethren Sir H Rider Haggard, 2019-07-07 Complete and unabridged paperback edition The Brethren is a 1904 novel by H Rider Haggard set during the Crusades Description from Wikipedia the free encyclopedia The Brethren By H. Rider Haggard H. Rider Haggard, 2021-01-01 The Brethren H Rider Haggard H Rider, 2019-12-14 Revered by fans as a master of the action adventure genre Henry Rider Haggard s books are rip roaring yarns in the classic sense of the term Although many of his novels are set in far flung locales The Brethren is set in early medieval era England The plot hinges on a romantic rivalry between two brothers with plenty of battlefield action thrown in for good measure

The Works of H. Rider Haggard Henry Rider Haggard, 1899 Moon of Israel H. Rider Haggard, 2011-01-01 Though he was best known as a writer of fantastic action adventure tales including the Allan Quatermain series from which the modern day Indiana Jones films drew inspiration H Rider Haggard also worked in the genre of historical fiction from time to time This novel is a fictionalized account of the Israelites enslavement and eventual escape from Egypt The Ghost Kings Henry Rider Haggard, 1926 The People of the Mist Henry Rider Haggard, 1894 Marie H. Rider Haggard, 2015-10-19 Although in my old age I Allan Quatermain have taken to writing after a fashion never yet have I set down a single word of the tale of my first love and of the adventures that are grouped around her beautiful and tragic history I suppose this is because it has always seemed to me too holy and far off a matter as holy and far off as is that heaven which holds the splendid spirit of Marie Marais But now in my age that which was far off draws near again and at night in the depths between the stars sometimes I seem to see the opening doors through which I must pass and leaning earthwards across their threshold with outstretched arms and dark and dewy eyes a shadow long forgotten by all save me the shadow of Marie Marais An old man s dream doubtless no more Still I will try to set down that history which ended in so great a sacrifice and one so worthy of record though I hope that no human eye will read it until I also am forgotten or at any rate have grown dim in the gathering mists of oblivion And I am glad that I have waited to make this attempt for it seems to me that only of late have I come to understand and appreciate at its true value the character of her of whom I tell and the passionate affection which was her bounteous offering to one so utterly unworthy as myself What have I done I wonder that to me should have been decreed the love of two such women as Marie and that of Stella also now long dead to whom alone in the world I told all her tale I remember I feared lest she should take it ill but this was not so Indeed during our brief married days she thought and talked much of Marie and some of her last words to me were that she was going to seek her and that they would wait for me together in the land of love pure and immortal
