Thomas Merton: A Life in Letters Thomas Merton, 2008-10-07 Thomas Merton 1915-1968 was one of the most influential spiritual writers of modern times. A Trappist monk, peace and civil rights activist, and widely praised literary figure, Merton was renowned for his pioneering work in contemplative spirituality, his quest to understand Eastern thought and integrate it with Western spirituality, and his firm belief in Christian activism. His autobiography The Seven Storey Mountain is the defining spiritual memoir of its time, selling over one million copies and translating into over fifteen languages. Merton was also one of the most prolific and provocative letter writers of the twentieth century. His letters, those written both by him and to him, are archived at the Thomas Merton Studies Center at Bellarmine University in Louisville, Kentucky, numbering more than ten thousand. For Merton, letters were not just a vehicle for exchanging information but his primary means for initiating, maintaining, and deepening relationships. Letter writing was a personal act of self-revelation and communication. His letters offer a unique lens through which we relive the spiritual and social upheavals of the twentieth century while offering wisdom that is still relevant for our world today.

When the Trees Say Nothing Thomas Merton, 2003-01-01 First published in 2003 and now available in paperback to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of Thomas Merton's birth. When the Trees Say Nothing has sold more than 60,000 copies and continually inspires readers with its unique collection of Merton's luminous writings on nature, arranged for reflection and meditation. Thomas Merton was a Trappist monk, author, poet, social commentator, and perhaps the most influential and widely published spiritual writer of the twentieth century. In When the Trees Say Nothing, editor Kathleen Deignan sheds new light on Merton by focusing on a neglected theme of his writing: the natural world as a manifestation of the divine. Drawing from Merton's voluminous writing on nature, Deignan has thematically assembled a collection of lucid poetic reflections. Chapters on the four elements, the seasons, the Earth and its creatures, and the sun, moon, and stars provide brief passages from his diverse works that reveal the presence of God in creation.

Shaped by the End You Live For Bonnie B. Thurston, 2020-05-15 To understand the life and thought of Thomas Merton, one must understand him as a monk. After introducing his vocation and entrance into the Trappist order, this book highlights some of his basic spiritual presuppositions. Relying primarily on Merton's writing, Bonnie B. Thurston surveys his thought on fundamental aspects of monastic formation and spirituality, particularly obedience, silence, solitude, and prayer. She also addresses some of the temptations and popular misunderstandings surrounding monastic life. Accessible and conversational in style, the book suggests how monastic spirituality is relevant not only for all Christians but also for serious spiritual seekers.
