Introduction to Black Studies Karenga (Maulana.),1993     The Cumulative Book Index ,1996     Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2000     Murder Town, USA Yasser Arafat Payne,Brooklyn K. Hitchens,Darryl L. Chambers,2023-07-14 Far too many poor Black communities struggle with gun violence and homicide The result has been the unnatural contortion of Black families and the inter generational perpetuation of social chaos and untimely death Young people are repeatedly ripped away from life by violence while many men are locked away in prisons In neighborhoods like those of Wilmington Delaware residents routinely face the pressures of violence death and incarceration Murder Town USA is thus a timely ethnography with an innovative structure the authors helped organize fifteen residents formerly involved with the streets and or the criminal justice system to document the relationship between structural opportunity and experiences with violence in Wilmington s Eastside and Southbridge neighborhoods Earlier scholars offered rich cultural analysis of violence in low income Black communities and yet this literature has mostly conceptualized violence through frameworks of personal responsibility or individual accountability And even if acknowledging the pressure of structural inequality most earlier researchers describe violence as the ultimate result of some moral failing a propensity for crime and the notion of helplessness Instead in Murder Town USA Payne Hitchens and Chamber along with their collaborative team of street ethnographers instead offer a radical re conceptualization of violence in low income Black communities by describing the penchant for violence and involvement in crime overall to be a logical resilient response to the perverse context of structural inequality     Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997     Foreign Bodies Amanda Craig,2022-02-24 At eighteen Emma Kenward runs away from her dull Sloane home to try her luck as a painter in Tuscany Waspish idealistic and far too clever for her own good she is at the awkward age when women choose their futures and their identities Once in Italy Emma blossoms and is taken up by a a mixture of characters including the local Contessa Sylvia her volatile American mentor Dr Evenlode an Oxford don she d hoped never to see again and Lucio a seductive and anarchic young Italian as interested in Emma s body as in her mind Santorno however is not merely a picturesque town set in the golden landscape of the Tuscan countryside Hidden among the malicious tongues of the provincial gossips and the walls of the mysterious Palazzo Felici lie secrets long buried but not forgotten Emma ever curious delves deep and discovers the truth about her new world her old self and a gruesome murder     Race After Technology Ruha Benjamin,2019-07-09 From everyday apps to complex algorithms Ruha Benjamin cuts through tech industry hype to understand how emerging technologies can reinforce White supremacy and deepen social inequity Benjamin argues that automation far from being a sinister story of racist programmers scheming on the dark web has the potential to hide speed up and deepen discrimination while appearing neutral and even benevolent when compared to the racism of a previous era Presenting the concept of the New Jim Code she shows how a range of discriminatory designs encode inequity by explicitly amplifying racial hierarchies by ignoring but thereby replicating social divisions or by aiming to fix racial bias but ultimately doing quite the opposite Moreover she makes a compelling case for race itself as a kind of technology designed to stratify and sanctify social injustice in the architecture of everyday life This illuminating guide provides conceptual tools for decoding tech promises with sociologically informed skepticism In doing so it challenges us to question not only the technologies we are sold but also the ones we ourselves manufacture Visit the book s free Discussion Guide www.dropbox.com Prejudice, Discrimination and Racism against Africans and Siddhis in India Ibrahima Diallo,2020-04-03 Africa and India have a long history of people to people contact as well as cultural educational and economic exchanges based on mutual interests They also share imperial and post imperial experiences The longstanding relations between the two continents experienced a new twist and a giant leap forward following the Africa India summit in 2008 However recently a series of violent incidents against the growing sub Saharan African communities in India has taken centre stage and made global news headlines the Indian and international media have portrayed violent and deadly assaults on sub Saharan Africans in India as prejudice discrimination and racism This book provides a collection of studies that examine prejudice discrimination and racism towards Blackness in India with a special focus on the lived experiences of sub Saharan Africans and Siddhis Afro Indians In addition the topics in this volume cover ideological cultural and linguistic affinities between Africa and India The volume is divided into four parts of two chapters each the first two chapters introduce the focus of the book on sub Saharan Africans living in India These are followed by two contributions that examine prejudice discrimination and racism towards Africans and Siddhis Two further essays theorise prejudice and racism in India and the ways they are experienced by sub Saharan Africans and Siddhis The final two chapters of the book explore ideological linguistic and cultural affinities between India and Africa The volume also features contributions by two prominent Africanists The Foreword is written by Professor Souleymane Bachir Diagne the Director of the Institute of African Studies at Columbia University Professor Diagne was awarded the Edouard Glissant Prize for his work in 2011 and the Frantz Fanon Lifetime Achievement Award in 2018 The Afterword is authored by Professor Aparajita Biswas the former Director of the Centre for African Studies at the University of Mumbai and the current President of the African Studies Association of India Professor Biswas is one of India s most respected Africanists with an extensive publication record on African topics and numerous teaching research and fellowship positions in universities across the world Kwanzaa Karenga (Maulana.),1998 Kwanzaa a celebration of family community and culture The Black Studies Reader Jacqueline Bobo,Cynthia Hudley,Claudine Michel,2004-05-15 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Introduction to Cultural Ecology Mark Q. Sutton,E. N. Anderson,2004 This volume is geared toward students and instructors involved in cultural ecology ecological anthropology and or human ecology While covering basic concepts for beginners this book also provides a thorough and sophisticated discussion of cultural ecology s history and theory using examples from throughout the world both historical and contemporary Eurocentrism, Racism and Knowledge Marta Araújo, Silvia R. Maeso, 2015-02-17 This collection addresses key issues in the critique of Eurocentrism and racism regarding debates on the production of knowledge historical narratives and memories in Europe and the Americas Contributors explore the history of liberation politics as well as academic and political reaction through formulas of accommodation that re centre the West

A Taste of Power Elaine Brown, 2015-05-20 Profound funny wild and moving heartbreaking accounts of a lonely black childhood Brown sees racial oppression in national and global context every political word she writes pounds home a lesson about commerce money racism communism you name it A glowing achievement Los Angeles Times Elaine Brown assumed her role as the first and only female leader of the Black Panther Party with these words I have all the guns and all the money I can withstand challenge from without and from within Am I right Comrade It was August 1974 From a small Oakland based cell the Panthers had grown to become a revolutionary national organization mobilizing black communities and white supporters across the country but relentlessly targeted by the police and the FBI and increasingly riven by violence and strife within How Brown came to a position of power over this paramilitary male dominated organization and what she did with that power is a riveting unsparing account of self discovery Brown s story begins with growing up in an impoverished neighborhood in Philadelphia and attending a predominantly white school where she first sensed what it meant to be black female and poor in America She describes her political awakening during the bohemian years of her adolescence and her time as a foot soldier for the Panthers who seemed to hold the promise of redemption And she tells of her ascent into the upper echelons of Panther leadership her tumultuous relationship with the charismatic Huey Newton who would become her lover and her nemesis her experience with the male power rituals that would sow the seeds of the party s demise and the scars that she both suffered and inflicted in that era s paradigm shifting clashes of sex and power Stunning lyrical and acute this is the indelible testimony of a black woman s battle to define herself

The Demise of the Inhuman Ana Monteiro-Ferreira, 2014-05-29 Employs a critical Afrocentric reading of Western constructions of knowledge so as to overcome the dehumanizing tendencies of modernity Afrocentricity is the most intellectually dominant idea in the African world one that is having a growing impact on social science discourse This paradigm philosophically rooted in African cultures and values fundamentally challenges major epistemological traditions in Western thought such as modernism and postmodernism Marxism existentialism feminism and postcolonialism In The Demise of the Inhuman Ana Monteiro Ferreira reviews what Molefi Kete Asante has called the infrastructures of dominance and privilege arguing that Western concepts such as individualism colonialism race and ethnicity universalism and progress are insufficient to overcome various forms of oppression Afrocentricity she argues can help lead us beyond Western structures of thought that have held sway since the early

The Revolution Will Not Be Theorized Errol A. Henderson, 2019-07-01 The study of the impact of Black Power Movement BPM activists and organizations in the 1960s through 70s has largely been confined to their role as proponents of social change but they were also theorists of the change they sought In The Revolution Will Not Be Theorized Errol A Henderson explains this theoretical contribution and places it within a broader social theory of black revolution in the United States dating back to nineteenth century black intellectuals These include black nationalists feminists and anti imperialists activists and artists of the Harlem Renaissance and early Cold War era black revolutionists The book first elaborates W E B Du Bois s thesis of the General Strike during the Civil War Alain Locke s thesis relating black culture to political and economic change Harold Cruse s work on black cultural revolution and Malcolm X s advocacy of black cultural and political revolution in the United States Henderson then critically examines BPM revolutionists theorizing regarding cultural and political revolution and the relationship between them in order to realize their revolutionary objectives Focused more on importing theory from third world contexts that were dramatically different from the United States BPM revolutionists largely ignored the theoretical template for black revolution most salient to their case which undermined their ability to theorize a successful black revolution in the United States This book is freely available in an open access edition thanks to TOME Toward an Open Monograph Ecosystem a collaboration of the Association of American Universities the Association of University Presses and the Association of Research Libraries and the generous support of The Pennsylvania State University Learn more at the TOME website available at openmonographs.org and access the book online at <http://muse.jhu.edu/book/67098> It is also available through the SUNY Open Access Repository at <http://hdl.handle.net/20.500.12648/1704>
