Owens,2007-01-01 Virtually all North Carolina cities and counties with zoning use special and conditional use permits to provide flexibility in zoning ordinances and to secure detailed reviews of individual applications This publication first examines the law related to the standards applying to such permits and the process required to make decisions about applications Based on a comprehensive survey of North Carolina cities and counties it then discusses how cities and counties have exercised that power The Foundation 1000 ,1998 Be Our Guest William Terry,2022-10-24 Adopting a geographic lens to examine the employment of guest workers in the United States Be Our Guest offers readers the most comprehensive analysis of guest work in tourism that has been produced to date In weaving together the constellation of political and economic factors that exist across multiple scales the case is made for how and why so many tourism dependent areas of the United States have developed a dependency on temporary foreign workforces Towards a holistic approach special emphasis is placed on the economic histories of these areas and shifting patterns of employment seasonality gentrification and related housing shortages Throughout are the voices of stakeholders involved in every aspect of guest work human resources managers battling labor shortages town planners mitigating workforce housing shortages and attorneys and advocates helping to directly assist migrant workers and affect policy changes These perspectives are coupled with detailed analysis of state policies regarding guest worker visa programs and labor market stress to illustrate a vivid picture of the precarious lives of the migrant laborers who arrive in the United States Be Our Guest serves to specifically address a lacuna on the critical tourism studies side and the growing concern on the practitioner side over workforce quality and supply Nevertheless it is a benefit for everyone with an interest in issues of labor migration precarity housing policy and immigration reform Dun & Bradstreet/Gale Group Industry Handbook: Entertainment and hospitality, 2000 These volumes are compilations of data from select commonly found titles published by Gale in partnership with Dun a compilation of business statistics from the federal government performance indicators financial norms and ratios a directory of companies rankings recent mergers and acquisitions associations consultants trade information sources and trade show data and a short bibliography of articles from trade magazines Each volume has the usual fine set of Gale indexes There are SIC Standard Industry Classification to NAICS North American Industry Classification and NAICS to SIC conversion guides a geographic index and a master index The convenient organization by industry is certain to be appreciated by undergraduates yet libraries should be aware that most of this material is repackaged from other sources which include Million Dollar Directory Dun Bradstreet s Industry Norms and Key Business Ratios and Gale s excellent Encyclopedia of Associations Consultants and Consulting Organizations Directory Encyclopedia of Business Information Sources and Trade Shows Worldwide The new volumes are well documented clearly citing the source for the original data and for the government statistics presented in Chapter 2 The merger and acquisition information is easy to read but not as complete as in Moody s manuals and the industry overview is not quite as detailed as the Standard Poor s Industry Surveys but the introductory matter is more clearly written than in most business references Libraries that own all or most of the titles listed here will find that this set duplicates and does not supersede the originals Yet an undergraduate library with a small business collection will find these titles a good buy and two year colleges high schools and small or medium sized public libraries can use them to build up their business collections relatively inexpensively Library Journal Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 United States.
