Contextual Teaching And Learning Elaine B Johnson

Contextual Teaching and Learning Elaine B. Johnson, 2002 Contextual teaching and learning CTL is a system for teaching that is grounded in brain research Brain research indicates that we learn best when we see meaning in new tasks and material and we discover meaning when we are able to connect new information with our existing knowledge and experiences Students learn best according to neuroscience when they can connect the content of academic lessons with the context of their own daily lives Johnson discusses the elements of the brain compatible contextual teaching and learning system making meaningful connections investing school work with significance self regulated learning collaboration critical and creating thinking nurturing the individual reaching high standards and using authentic assessment Drawing on the practices of teachers in kindergarten through university Johnson provides numerous examples of how to use each part of the CTL system

The Dismantling of Public Education and How to Stop It Elaine B. Johnson, 2003-11-19 Today many public schools especially rural and inner city areas are so fraught with violence so impersonal and so poorly funded that they drive students away rather than inspire them to learn Most people do not realize that the school system they knew when they were growing up is now in the process of being supplanted with alternative approaches to education Nor do they understand the grave consequences for their children who face the demise of America's one system of public education for all Author Elaine Johnson examines the state of education in the twenty first century using science rather than business as a more reliable and positive guide for education The application of scientific principles of interrelatedness self organization and differentiation to leadership and teaching transforms schools into places that improve school performance Chapters describe practical approaches to teaching math science and foreign languages The Dismantling of Public Education analyzes the influence on education of the business model calling for growth Competition Measurable targets Accountability This book also discusses the effects on young people of immense high schools charter schools and statewide standardized achievement tests
