Artful Practices Henri Lustiger-Thaler, Daniel Salée, 1994 This book is about the social practices of survival Case studies from Italy the United Kingdom Chile Trinidad and Tobago the United States Canada and Israel are included and offer an intriguing look at new emancipatory possibilities for citizens and their cities As the social economic and political institutions we have lived with since the post war settlement undergo massive transformations a larger drama is being played out as broad segments of the population are increasingly marginalized and left alone to face the tyranny of ever triumphant market forces The terms of the social contract are being renegotiated and the artful practices of citizens coping with these massive changes point to a new political economy of everyday life

Oil Lamps Catherine M. V. Thuro, 2019-02-04 Near the turn of the twentieth century the mass production of affordable lighting forever changed how we work play and live This tectonic shift is directly related to the availability of cheap petroleum based oil and the refinement of the kerosene lamp Author Catherine Thuro devoted years of research to compiling a record of these formerly ubiquitous lighting devices Oil Lamps is her first masterpiece a comprehensive invaluable resource With over 1 000 lamps shown in detailed studio photographs clearly reproduced illustrations from catalogues and trade journals this book is the definitive visual compilation of kerosene lamps and accessories The clear photography is also matched by detailed and engaging explanations about the origins of lamp styles Thuro places the kerosene lamp in cultural and historical context discussing the revolutionary large scale production of these luminaries the wide array of raw material used and the far reaching consequences of a society literally brought into the light on a massive scale For both historical and comparative information this is a must have reference for collectors
