just beginning to awaken to his own powers He is just getting an inkling of the unfathomed riches buried deep in his own mind Like the gold seekers of 49 he has panned the surface gravel for the gold swept down by the streams Now he is starting to dig deeper to the pure vein beneath We bemoan the loss of our forests We worry over our dwindling resources of coal and oil We decry the waste in our factories But the greatest waste of all we pay no attention to the waste of our own potential mind power Professor Wm James the world famous Harvard psychologist estimated that the average man uses only 10% of his mental power He has unlimited power yet he uses but a tithe of it Unlimited wealth all about him and he doesn't know how to take hold of it With God like powers slumbering within him he is content to continue in his daily grind eating sleeping working plodding through an existence little
