Tuchman, 1987-07-12 A marvelous history of medieval Europe from the bubonic plague and the Papal Schism to the Hundred Years War by the Pulitzer Prize winning author of The Guns of August Lawrence Wright author of The End of October in The Wall Street Journal The fourteenth century reflects two contradictory images on the one hand a glittering age of crusades cathedrals and chivalry on the other a world plunged into chaos and spiritual agony In this revelatory work Barbara W. Tuchman examines not only the great rhythms of history but the grain and texture of domestic life what childhood was like what marriage meant how money taxes and war dominated the lives of serf noble and clergy alike Granting her subjects their loyalties treacheries and guilty passions Tuchman re-creates the lives of proud cardinals university scholars grocers and clerks saints and mystics lawyers and mercenaries and dominating all the knight in all his valor and furious follies a terrible worm in an iron cocoon Praise for A Distant Mirror Beautifully written careful and thorough in its scholarship What Ms. Tuchman does superbly is to tell how it was No one has ever done this better The New York Review of Books A beautiful extraordinary book Tuchman at the top of her powers She has done nothing finer The Wall Street Journal Wise witty and wonderful a great book in a great historical tradition Commentary A People's History of the United States Howard Zinn, 2003-02-04 Since its original landmark publication in 1980 A People's History of the United States has been chronicling American history from the bottom up throwing out the official version of history taught in schools with its emphasis on great men in high places to focus on the street the home and the workplace Known for its lively clear prose as well as its scholarly research A People's History is the only volume to tell America's story from the point of view of and in the words of America's women factory workers African Americans Native Americans the working poor and immigrant laborers As historian Howard Zinn shows many of our country's greatest battles the fights for a fair wage an eight hour workday child labor laws health and safety standards universal suffrage women's rights racial equality were carried out at the grassroots level against bloody resistance Covering Christopher Columbus's arrival through President Clinton's first term A People's History of the United States which was nominated for the American Book Award in 1981 features insightful analysis of the most important events in our history Revised updated and featuring a new afterword by the author this special twentieth anniversary edition continues Zinn's important contribution to a complete and balanced understanding of American history How History Gets Things Wrong Alex Rosenberg, 2018-10-09 Why we learn the wrong things from narrative history and how our love for stories is hard wired To understand something you need to know its history Right Wrong says Alex Rosenberg in How History Gets Things Wrong Feeling especially well informed after reading a book of popular history on the best seller list Don't Narrative history is always always wrong It's not just incomplete or inaccurate but deeply wrong as wrong as Ptolemaic astronomy We no longer believe that the earth is the center of the universe Why do we still believe in historical narrative Our attachment to history as a vehicle for understanding has a long Darwinian pedigree and a genetic basis Our love of stories is hard wired Neuroscience reveals that human evolution shaped a tool useful for survival into a defective theory of human nature Stories historians tell Rosenberg continues are not only wrong but harmful Israel and Palestine for example have dueling narratives of dispossession that prevent one side from compromising with the other Henry Kissinger applied lessons drawn from the Congress of Vienna to American foreign policy with disastrous results Human evolution improved primate mind reading the ability to anticipate the behavior of others whether predators prey or cooperators to get us to the top of the African food chain Now however this hard wired capacity makes us think we can understand history what the Kaiser was thinking in 1914 why Hitler declared war on the United States by uncovering the narratives of what happened and why In fact Rosenberg argues we will only understand history if we don t make it into a story
