Teach Them Diligently Leslie Nunnery, 2018-03-06 It's easy to say we trust Christ for everything but are we living that truth? We've been given clear instruction in a powerful promise for parents: God tells us in Deuteronomy to teach our children diligently. This passage and many others give us great insight as to how to do that and enjoy the promised blessing that always accompanies the mandates we are given. Learn the practical view of discipleship parenting: what God expects from parents and how to put these truths into action. See how parenting with the vision of teaching them diligently will intentionally bear fruit and affect change in your own life as well. Move beyond giving lip service to what you believe and make the conscious choice to rely on the wisdom of God's holy instruction for your life and parenting. So why are we as Christian parents still uncertain? Why do we live in fear? Why are we losing our children in record numbers? What can we do about it?

Unformed and Unfilled Weston Fields, 2005-01 Everyone's heard of it. Many believe it. Is there a gap in time between the first two verses in Genesis? Does this alleged gap really represent a vast amount of time? Weston Fields' classic treatment of this subject is now being published by Master Books and promoted by such important organizations as Answers in Genesis. In this book, Fields makes a detailed study of the gap theory, paying particular attention to the Hebrew of Genesis. His conclusion is that this theory is not a reasonable compromise with modern evolutionary theory but a dangerous diversion from biblical truth. Helps readers who struggle with the question of the time taken during the creation week. Was it really six days? Can Christians find a workable solution to the debate about creation and time? An important book. Features a presentation of a variety of views espoused by Christians of all denominations. A professional scholarly look that can be easily understood by laymen. A fascinating study of the original Hebrew text.
