Law Relating to Receivers, Managers and Administrators is widely acclaimed as the UK standard text for legal practitioners working in insolvency. The preceding edition - published by Butterworths in 2000 - is now published by Tottel. Intensely thorough and practical, with the author widely acclaimed as leading expert in this field, this revised edition takes into account the sweeping changes introduced by the Enterprise Act 2002, including: a new code relating to administration and the abolition of receivership appointments. Viewed as the most exhaustive work available in this area of UK law, previous editions have been cited in court proceedings. The Model Rules of Professional Conduct provides an up-to-date resource for information on legal ethics. Federal, state and local courts in all jurisdictions look to the Rules for guidance in solving lawyer malpractice cases, disciplinary actions, disqualification issues, sanctions questions and much more. In this volume, black-letter Rules of Professional Conduct are followed by numbered Comments that explain each Rule's purpose and provide suggestions for its practical application. The Rules will help you identify proper conduct in a variety of given situations, review those instances where discretionary action is possible, and define the nature of the relationship between you and your clients, colleagues and the courts. Extensively updated to reflect recent research and new theoretical literature, this much-anticipated Second Edition applies a gender lens to the field of public administration, looking at issues of status, power, leadership, legitimacy and change. The author examines the extent of women's historical progress as public employees, their current status in federal, state, and local governments, the peculiar nature of the organizational reality they experience, and women's place in society at large as it is shaped by government. An essential guide to the nature, purpose and terms of the legal agreements in oil and gas exploration, this new edition brings the work right up to date, and includes expanded sections on Joint Operating Agreements, agreements for services, and turnkey drilling contracts. Together with Oil and Gas Production Contracts, these books form the complete suite of upstream oil and gas agreements. Lightman and Moss is widely accepted as an authoritative statement of the law relating to receivers and administrators, and as such is a must for any practitioner dealing with corporate insolvency matters. The third edition continues to explain clearly the principles, legislation and case law shaping receivership practice and highlights recent developments in this area. - Takes into account the wealth of recent case law - Includes a new chapter on international dimensions in corporate insolvency - Covers the UNCITRAL Model Law on insolvency - Includes commentary on the European Bankruptcy Regulation. "Leading insolvency expert, Dr James O'Donovan addresses the law and practice on privately appointed receivers and managers in this book, offering detailed commentary on the complex areas of Voluntary Administration and Deeds of Company Arrangements. The analysis is drawn from his updating subscription work, Company Receivers and Administrators, the standard insolvency reference in this complex area. The service and handbook are ideal companion works, with the book offering a convenient and accessible resource for every day use, whether in court or at meetings of directors or creditors. Its clear explanation of complex issues is suitable for insolvency practitioners, lawyers, accountants and students. Consistent paragraph numbering means that readers are able to use the book in conjunction with the subscription edition which will keep up-to-date with case law and legislation changes"--Back cover. This text explores in depth the fundamental principles of corporate insolvency law and the many conceptual and analytical problems posed by the legislation and offers both theoretical and practical solutions. 2nd Supplement to the 5th edition. Lightman and Moss is widely regarded as the authority on the law relating to administrators and receivers of companies. The work clearly explains the principles, legislation and case law shaping daily practice in corporate insolvency work. The new supplement covers: New system of registration of company floating charges under the Companies Act 2006 (amendment of part 25) regulations 2013 -- Supreme Court decisions in BNY Corporate Trustees Ltd v Eurosail, and the Nortel decision. This new edition of Shareholders' Rights provides guidance for readers on the statutory remedies for the protection of minority shareholders with coverage/guidance also of articles of association and shareholders' agreements; the fiduciary duties of directors; restrictions on the power of the majority under general principles of equity and the principles of partnership law (such as good faith) which have been adopted in company law. First published in 1869, Kerr on Receivers and Administrators is acknowledged as the classic text on the law of receivers and administrators as it applies to both corporate and personal insolvency, and is frequently cited in court. This new edition comes at a significant moment, with the abolition of administrative receivership in the Enterprise Act and its replacement with a more streamlined form of administration. The text fully incorporates this and a host of other legislative developments. New edition of the definitive work on receivers and administrators covering both corporate and personal insolvency. Fully revised to take account of important recent legislation, including the Insolvency Act 2000 and the Enterprise Act 2002. Deals with international developments such as the EC Regulation on Insolvency Proceedings and UNCITRAL Model Law on Bankruptcy. Includes a new chapter on Rescue. Includes a separate section on the law in Scotland written by David Bennett. Tax and Insolvency is a concise guide to the tax issues that arise and should be considered when a company becomes insolvent or is under administration. Recent changes in tax reform and the new business tax system amendments have brought about changes that affect corporate equity and debt, access to tax losses and other corporate taxes. Tax and Insolvency provides: An up-to-date overview of the rules in the Taxation Administration Act; The responsibilities of liquidators, receivers and administrators; Relevant references to leading cases; References to the developing attitudes of the courts and regulatory bodies. This manual provides direction for the preparation of noise and vibration sections of environmental documents for mass transportation projects. The manual has been developed in the interest of promoting quality and uniformity in assessments. It is expected to be used by people associated with or affected by the urban transit industry, including Federal Transit Administration (FTA) staff, grant applicants, consultants and the general public. Each of these groups has an interest in noise/vibration assessment, but not all have the need for all the details of the process. Consequently, this manual has been prepared to serve readers with varying levels of technical background and interests. It sets forth the basic concepts, methods and procedures for documenting the extent and severity of noise impacts from transit projects. Reprint of the original, first published in 1876. What is equity? This book explores modern equity's nature, especially its facilitative character and its role in common law systems. This edition was written by Sir Raymond Walton, editor of the past 30 years, shortly before his death and takes into account all the changes in law and practice since 1983, including a major section on the role of the administrator. This 17th Edition has been updated to 1997 with the publication of a supplement. Muir Hunter, Q.C., as consultant editor, has drawn on his specialist knowledge and expertise to ensure that the content and style make Kerr on Receivers and Administrators an invaluable work of reference for the practitioner. The book covers the law in Scotland in a section written by David Bennett, a solicitor in Edinburgh. The taxation sections have been written by Andrew Thornhill. Sealy & Milman: Annotated Guide to the Insolvency Legislation is widely regarded as the definitive work for those advising on Insolvency. This long-established legislation handbook provides annotated commentary and clarification on the legal and practical implications of the latest insolvency legislation Principles of Insolvency Law is widely regarded as 'the' text on Insolvency law. Professor Sir Roy Goode's reputation as the "doyen of commercial law" has established a unique position for the Work as a leading authority in the field. The book provides a clear and concise treatment of the general philosophical principles underpinning Insolvency law. It works as an introduction to this complex area and as such it has a broad market, ranging from students and newly qualified practitioners to barristers in Court. Vanessa Finch provides an interesting look at corporate insolvency laws and processes. She adopts an interdisciplinary approach to place two questions at the centre of her discussion. Are current UK laws and procedures efficient, expert, accountable and fair? Are fundamentally different conceptions of insolvency law needed for it to develop in a way that serves corporate and broader social ends? Topics considered in this wide-ranging book include different ways of financing companies, causes of corporate failure and prospects for designing rescue-friendly processes. Also examined are alternative asset distribution of failed companies, allocations of insolvency risks and effects of insolvency on a company's directors and employees. Finch argues that changes of approach are needed if insolvency law is to develop with coherence and purpose. This book will appeal to academics and students at advanced undergraduate and graduate level, and to legal practitioners throughout the common law world. The Law Relating to Receivers, Managers and Administrators is a must-have title for every insolvency lawyer and practitioner. The new edition has a strong international dimension, particularly with reference to judicial decisions in Australia and Asia, and offers valuable insights into the difficult issues in insolvency which can influence the outcome of UK decisions. The fifth edition is fully updated in line with the Insolvency Rules 2016 which aim to both consolidate and modernise the secondary legislation relating to insolvency in Great Britain. They: - reorder and restructure the rules contained in the Insolvency Rules 1986 (SI 1986/1925) - consolidate 23 pieces of amending legislation - provide a number of substantive amendments to existing insolvency law and practice The new edition also address the increasing globalisation of insolvency enforcement, includes coverage of potential legislation following the Review of the Corporate Insolvency Framework (ISD May 2016), and provides comment on the anticipated growth in insolvency work post Brexit. In addition to the above, case law and legislation has been completely updated to include coverage of: - Rubin v Eurofinance Sa and New Cap Re-insurance corporation v A E Grant [2013] AC 236 SC disavowing PC in Cambridge Gas Transportation Corporation v Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors of Navigator Holdings plc ;2007] 1 AC 505 - Jetivia SA v Bilta UK Ltd [[ 2015] UKSC 23 reversing Jetivia SA v Bilta (UK) Ltd[2013] EWCA Civ 968, [2014] 1 All ER 168 - Lutz v Bauerle [2015] BCC 43 Council Regulation (EC) 1346/2000, art 13 - Singularis Holdings Ltd v PriceWaterhouseCoopers [2014] UKPC 35, PC - Joint Administrators of LB Holdings Intermediate 2 Ltd v Lomas [2015] BCC 431 - Re Lehman Bros International (Europe) Lomas v Burlington Loan Management Ltd [2015] EWHC 2269 Ch - BNY Corporate Trustee Services Ltd v Eurosail[2013] UKSC 28, [2013] 3
