Small Unit Leadership Dandridge M. Malone,2009-05-27 What does it take to get the job done How do you get the men in your unit to do what you say To follow you into battle and shoot to kill How you build the confidence that spurs men on to do their job to stand by their leader and each other Praise for Small Unit Leadership Identifies in very specific terms what company grade officers and non commissioned officers NCOs must do to ensure winning in land battle Marine Corps Gazette Colonel Malone tackles the elusive topic of leadership with a real world pragmatic approach This is not a book of intellectual theorization but of specific techniques for leading soldiers on and off the battlefield U S N I Proceedings The author condenses volumes of psychological studies into a readable and exciting book on practical military leadership ARMOR Colonel Malone not only provides handy guides on what should be done and how it should be done he also aids the reader in how to know that desired results are being achieved Leatherneck FM 34-52 Intelligence Interrogation Department of Department of the Army,2017-12-13 The 1992 edition of the FM 34 52 Intelligence Interrogation Field Manual Army Leadership and the Profession (ADP 6-22) Headquarters Department of the Army,2019-10-09 ADP 6 22 describes enduring concepts of leadership through the core competencies and attributes required of leaders of all cohorts and all organizations regardless of mission or setting These principles reflect decades of experience and validated scientific knowledge An ideal Army leader serves as a role model through strong intellect physical presence professional competence and moral character An Army leader is able and willing to act decisively within superior leaders intent and purpose and in the organization s best interests Army leaders recognize that organizations built on mutual trust and confidence accomplish missions Every member of the Army military or civilian is part of a team and functions in the role of leader and subordinate Being a good subordinate is part of being an effective leader Leaders do not just lead subordinates they also lead other leaders Leaders are not limited to just those designated by position rank or authority Army Leadership Department of the Army,2012-09-15 Competent leaders of character are necessary for the Army to meet the challenges in the dangerous and complex security environment we face As the keystone leadership manual for the United States Army FM 6 22 establishes leadership doctrine the fundamental principles by which Army leaders act to accomplish their mission and care for their people FM 6 22 applies to officers warrant officers noncommissioned officers and enlisted Soldiers of all Army components and to Army civilians From Soldiers in basic training to newly commissioned officers new leaders learn how to lead with this manual as a basis FM 6 22 is prepared under the direction of the Army Chief of Staff It defines leadership leadership roles and requirements and how to develop leadership within the Army It outlines the levels of leadership as direct organizational and strategic and describes how to lead successfully at each level It establishes and describes the core leader competencies that facilitate focused feedback education training and development across all leadership levels It reiterates the Army Values FM 6 22 defines how the Warrior Ethos is an integral part of every Soldier s life It incorporates the leadership qualities of self awareness and adaptability and describes their critical impact on acquiring additional knowledge and improving in the core leader competencies while operating in constantly changing operational environments In line with evolving Army doctrine FM 6 22 directly supports the Army s capstone manuals FM 1 and FM 3 0 as well as keystone manuals such as FM 5

0 FM 6 0 and FM 7 0 FM 6 22 connects Army doctrine to joint doctrine as expressed in the relevant joint doctrinal publications JP 1 and JP 3 0 As outlined in FM 1 the Army uses the shorthand expression of BE KNOW DO to concentrate on key factors of leadership What leaders DO emerges from who they are BE and what they KNOW Leaders are prepared throughout their lifetimes with respect to BE KNOW DO so they will be able to act at a moment s notice and provide leadership for whatever challenge they may face FM 6 22 expands on the principles in FM 1 and describes the character attributes and core competencies required of contemporary leaders Character is based on the attributes central to a leader s make up and competence comes from how character combines with knowledge skills and behaviors to result in leadership Inextricably linked to the inherent qualities of the Army leader the concept of BE KNOW DO represents specified elements of character knowledge and behavior described here in FM 6 22

The Armed Forces Officer Richard Moody Swain, Albert C. Pierce, 2017 In 1950 when he commissioned the first edition of The Armed Forces Officer Secretary of Defense George C Marshall told its author S L A Marshall that American military officers of whatever service should share common ground ethically and morally In this new edition the authors methodically explore that common ground reflecting on the basics of the Profession of Arms and the officer s special place and distinctive obligations within that profession and especially to the Constitution

Army Field Manual Fm 22-100 United States Army, 2007 Soldiers represent what s best about the Army Day in and day out in the dark and in the mud and in faraway places they execute tough missions whenever and wherever the Nation calls They deserve our very best leaders of character and competence who act to achieve excellence That theme resounds throughout FM 22 100 Army Leadership and echoes our time honored principle of BE KNOW DO This leadership manual lays out the framework that applies to all Army leaders officer and NCO military and civilian active and reserve component At the core of our leadership doctrine are the same Army Values embedded in our force loyalty duty respect selfless service honor integrity and personal courage LDRSHIP The framework also outlines physical mental and emotional attributes that together with values form character what a leader must BE Being a person of character is fundamental to the Army What makes Army leaders of competence are skills with people ideas things and war fighting We refer to those four sets of skills as interpersonal conceptual technical and tactical Many are common to leaders in all situations some additional skills are required for those who gain increasing responsibility Leaders of character and competence are those with the appropriate skills leaders who KNOW their people their equipment and their profession All that is still not enough We call on our leaders to translate character and competence into leader actions Army Leaders influence people by providing purpose direction and motivation while operating to accomplish the mission and improving the organization Leaders inspire others toward common goals and never lose sight of the future even as they labor tirelessly for the demands of today That is what we expect our leaders to DO From the Preface

Department of the Army,1968 The Evolution of US Army Tactical Doctrine, 1946-76 Robert A. Doughty,1979 This paper focuses on the formulation of doctrine since World War II In no comparable period in history have the dimensions of the battlefield been so altered by rapid technological changes The need for the tactical doctrines of the Army to remain correspondingly abreast of these changes is thus more pressing than ever before Future conflicts are not likely to develop in the leisurely fashions of the past where tactical doctrines could be refined on the battlefield itself It is therefore imperative that we apprehend future problems with as much accuracy as possible One means of doing so is to pay particular attention to the business of how the Army s doctrine has developed historically with a view to improving methods of future development The Soviet Army United States.
