The Financial Crisis Inquiry Report Financial Crisis Inquiry Commission,2011-05-01

The Financial Crisis Inquiry Report published by the U S Government and the Financial Crisis Inquiry Commission in early 2011 is the official government report on the United States financial collapse and the review of major financial institutions that bankrupted and failed or would have without help from the government The commission and the report were implemented after Congress passed an act in 2009 to review and prevent fraudulent activity. The report details among other things the periods before, during, and after the crisis, what led up to it, and analyses of subprime mortgage lending, credit expansion, and banking policies. It also discusses the collapse of companies like Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac and the federal bailouts of Lehman and AIG. It also discusses the aftermath of the fallout and our current state. This report should be of interest to anyone concerned about the financial situation in the U.S. and around the world.

THE FINANCIAL CRISIS INQUIRY COMMISSION is an independent, bipartisan government-appointed panel of 10 people that was created to examine the causes, domestic and global, of the current financial and economic crisis in the United States. It was established as part of the Fraud Enforcement and Recovery Act of 2009. The commission consisted of private citizens with expertise in economics and finance, banking, housing, market regulation, and consumer protection. They examined and reported on the collapse of major financial institutions that failed or would have failed if not for exceptional assistance from the government.
