subject and footage generated without his knowledge At the time of this writing he is employed at a facility called Shred Authority Neighborhood Storage In terms of familial relationships he has two sisters no contact a mother no contact and a father yearly contact His sexual interests are best described as disappointingly vanilla with longtime urges for mild deviancy Hobbies include cycling occasional woodworking and researching arcane topics on the Internet and internalizing them He lacks a formal education yet is adept at finding information albeit in an unsystematic way I chose this subject not because of the events he experienced though they are thrilling and profound but because he stumbled across something that no one could turn away from Though a select few of you may be familiar with my film work I've recently retired to pursue other forms hence the at times novelistic appearance of the following narrative

“If Then the World a Theatre Present...” Björn Quiring,2014-08-19 To metaphorize the world as a theatre has been a common procedure since antiquity but the use of this trope became particularly prominent and pregnant in early modern times especially in England Old and new applications of the theatrum mundi topos pervaded discourses often allegorizing the deceitfulness and impermanence of this world as well as the futility of earthly strife It was frequently woven into arguments against worldly amusements such as the stage Commercial theatre was declared an undesirable competitor of God s well ordered world drama Early modern dramatists often reacted to this development by appropriating the metaphor and in an ingenious twist some playwrights even appropriated its anti theatrical impetus Early modern theatre seemed to discover a denial of its own theatricality at its very core Drama was found to succeed best when it staged itself as a great unmasking To investigate the reasons and effects of these developments the anthology examines the metaphorical uses of theatre in plays pamphlets epics treatises legal proclamations and other sources
