Song of Princes Janell Rhiannon, 2016-06-13 THE TROJAN WAR SONG OF PRINCES Book One of the Homeric Chronicles Sing Muse Sing of the shining citadel of Troy rising from the hot sands of Asia Sing of the Greek palaces ascending from their rocky hilltops Sing of one woman's dream heralding the madness of men and the murder of innocents From bull dancing rings and wild meadows the Forgotten Prince must choose between love and a golden crown From seclusion and safety the Golden Warrior must choose between his honor and his life From behind the Great Wall the Golden Prince must choose between his family and his city And from a rugged realm on the far side of Greece the Warrior King must choose between his son's life and certain exile Here shepherds and princes warriors and kings and seers and lovers seek to conquer their passions outwit destiny or surrender to it PARIS the FORGOTTEN PRINCE ACHILLES the GOLDEN WARRIOR HEKTOR the GOLDEN PRINCE ODYSSEUS the WARRIOR KING Where did their legends begin before their lives converged at Troy in one of the most famous battles of all time The HOMERIC CHRONICLES tell the stories of Paris Achilles Hektor and Odysseus in one chronological tale beginning before the ILIAD and ending long after the ODYSSEY Blending both history and myth the Homeric Chronicles will satisfy your love of Greek mythology while paying homage to the original storyteller Homer SONGS OF PRINCES begins with the birth of Paris and Achilles and introduces us to a young Hektor and Odysseus The journey of the princes begins Fall in love with Greek mythology for the first time or all over again READ THEM ALL songofprinces riseofprinces returnofkings homericchronicles THE BIRTH OF PARIS The labor began with the pull of the full moon Hecuba's eyes opened She recognized the familiar dull ache The squeeze tightened down her lower back and wrapped itself around her lower hips and belly like a merciless snake It begins she thought The child whose destiny she'd agonized over these many weeks pressed his entrance into a hostile world She rolled onto her side to ease the progressing pains She knew precious little time remained before she would be forced to call Tessa to fetch the midwife Hecuba planned to endure

as much pain as she could bear buying time with her unwelcomed son unwelcomed by all except for her She loved the child despite the prophecy Tears filled her eyes for the child pushing his way to the light Hecuba wept into her pillow His innocence would be her life s burden She would never know the burn of the first milk passing to her breasts as his little mouth suckled for the first time She would not know the smell of his baby skin She would not feel the weight of him in her arms as she cradled him to sleep or the weight of his little body as it grew to fill the circle of her arms making them ache with his increasing size She would not know him at all He would be stolen away from her and lost forever With each new tug on her body she clenched her teeth and tried to breathe as quietly as possible In between the pains she shifted to the opposite side to keep the mounting pressure from making her cry out As the moonlight shifted past the high window the birthing process accelerated A piercing pain below Hecuba s pelvis forced a shrill scream into the stillness shattering the silver calm The warm sticky wetness washed down her thighs Eleithyia wasted no time bringing the child along Why goddess Let him stay with me a while longer I beg you Her plea hung unheeded in that space between earth and sky
