Crime, Mental Health and the Criminal Justice System in Africa Heng Choon (Oliver) Chan, Samuel Adjorlolo, 2021-08-26 This book aims to serve as a comprehensive resource for a myriad of crime and mental health topics and issues in the African criminal justice system from a psycho criminological perspective Crime Mental Health and the Criminal Justice System in Africa A Psycho Criminological Perspective is an ideal primary text for courses in criminology criminal justice and forensic psychology as well as a source of reference for practitioners who deal with offenders or victims For a long time African historiography has been viewed and interpreted from Eurocentric perspectives This book is a timely contribution towards infusing Afrocentric perspectives in African scholarship by indigenous scholars The authors interdisciplinary topical approach covering a gamut of topics ranging from African criminology through mental health and psychology to criminal justice systems has lent a decolonizing voice toward African literary pursuit and thereby laid a solid foundation for further research by other scholars I highly recommend it to readers academic institutions and researchers on Africa Emmanuel Onyeozili Ph D Professor of Criminology and Criminal Justice

Department of Criminal Justice University of Maryland Eastern Shore USA This edited volume by an array of experts from West and Southern Africa has given a refreshing voice to psycho criminological narratives in the continent In a region of the world in which there is insufficient documentation of the patterns determinants and outcomes of criminal behaviour this book offers a culturally competent and contemporary flavour to an ancient discourse Its focus on new areas of concern such as online dating scams kidnapping and the mental health of officials in the criminal justice system compellingly captures the potential reader and gives good value for time It is warmly recommended for its breadth of coverage the authority of its claims and the multi disciplinary outlook of its authors Adegboyega Ogunwale MBBS FWACP Consultant Psychiatrist Forensic Unit Neuropsychiatric Hospital Aro Ogun State Nigeria This collection represents a significant step in the study of mental health crime and criminal justice in sub Saharan Africa The breadth of topics covered is impressive with each contribution based on methodologically sound empirical analyses It deserves to become a key reference for students researchers and policy makers interested in suicide drug use violence the work of prison officers criminal investigations and police community interactions Justice Tankebe Ph D Lecturer Institute of Criminology University of Cambridge UK Mental health and criminal justice issues are growing problems facing the world today Questions about whether mental health affects crime or whether involvement in the criminal justice system affects an individual s health have become part of national policy discussion This nicely written book brings together eminent scholars and experts with extensive experience in their various fields to address these and other questions related to crime mental health and criminal justice in Africa The editors did well to coordinate the efforts of the contributors into a valuable pierce I highly recommend it for all who are interested in the nexus between crime mental health and criminal justice systems Francis D Boateng Ph D Assistant Professor Department of Criminal Justice and Legal Studies University of Mississippi USA Fiber-reinforced Composites P. K. Mallick,1988 Technology Entrepreneurship André Presse,Orestis Terzidis,2018-03-22 This collection of expert articles explores the development drivers of new technology based firms and projects It provides perspectives for an in depth understanding of how technological inventions lead to the creation of new and sustainable companies or business units The authors address methods and concepts that help technology based start ups and entrepreneurial projects successfully develop innovative products and services Fire's Flame C.L. Scholey,2014-01-01 With the ferocity of fire literally exploding from his fingertips Ignis is an element to be reckoned with Bursting from Mother Nature s womb near the beginning of time he has used Earth as his toy Millennia later Ignis meets the Flame to his fire Flame is the only human who has ever seen him in his human form while dancing and rolling within his element The child he encounters grows into the most fascinating woman of his life the irony is almost too much his body burns for her Flame has always known there was no one else for her but Ignis her Fire Fire envelops her being he sears her essence and makes her body his Loving an element means being protected by him Flame is an arson investigator on a mission to find a man who would murder his innocent wife to gain custody of their three children When Flame s life is in danger there isn t much time Fire can t be controlled When an element claims you it claims you body mind and soul Flame needs to temper Ignis an uneasy task as there is no element more primal than Fire
