The Numinous Legacy Adair Butchins,2002 Where is God in the universe if anywhere Why did God make germs Why should we be so special Could the universe have been different This is a book that brings home in no uncertain fashion the discrepancy between the universe envisaged by the ancient sages and prophets and that of modern scientific cosmology where the possibility of divine intervention looks less and less likely Butchins demonstrates with clarity how the scientific method may be used despite certain drawbacks in an attempt to verify objective truth It describes how the effect of the Copernican Revolution in the seventeenth century has steadily undermined the basic structure of the three great monotheistic religions of our day Judaism Christianity and Islam especially with respect to their eschatological concepts The Eastern religions being less anthropomorphic are less affected The theistic argument from design is shown to be powerful enough to have caused disagreement among present day scientists in spite of the strictures of Professor Dawkins In general the book attempts to make some sense of the structure of the universe in terms of our own consciousness it behoves the reader to consider the
