This book is a complete guide to fishing in all of these waters. Over two hundred public, private, and Indian reservation fishing areas are covered. From the state's two best-known fishing areas, the San Juan River and Elephant Butte Reservoir, to all of the waters associated with the state's ten drainages, this book provides detailed information for each site on location, size, depth, shoreline, description, fish species, suggested angling techniques, seasonal fishing reports, road access, camping, and boating facilities, and handicapped accessibility. This book is sure to become indispensable to two types of anglers: beginners, young and old, who want to take up the sport, and veterans, including newcomers to the state, who seek up-to-date information on all species of coldwater and warmwater sport fish in New Mexico.

UFOs Over Galisteo and Other Stories of New Mexico's History Robert J. Tórréz, 2004 New Mexico's state archives offer a rich collection of documents from the Spanish, Mexican, and Territorial periods. Robert J. Tórréz has mined this collection to produce a series of thirty-six articles that give us an idea of the stark reality of everyday life: what ordinary people went through to feed and protect their families, keep warm, worship their God, deal with government bureaucracies, and enjoy a few of life's pleasures. Previously published in periodicals with small local circulation, these essays are now available to the broader audience they deserve. The essays are divided into five groups. Part 1, Glimpses of Daily Life, includes such topics as arranged marriages, conflicts over taxes and water, and weaving in New Mexico. Part 2, Indian Relations, shows us visits and battles with Navajo, Ute, and Pueblo people. Part 3, Crime and Punishment, comprises essays on hangings, poisonings, and outlaws. The Territorial Topics gathered in Part 4 is a mélange of entertainment, travel, and government matters, from the oddity of UFOs over Galisteo, in which a Chinese balloon seems to have made its way to New Mexico in 1880, to the arrival of stagecoaches, telegraphs, and a circus. Part 5 presents biographical sketches of seven famous and not-so-famous New Mexicans. In an extraordinary case from 1744, Juana Martín, the wife of Joseph de Armijo, accused him of carrying on an affair with Getrudes de Segura. When the investigation was concluded, the offending couple was found guilty, and Getrudes was sentenced to exile at El Paso del Norte for four years. Armijo was allowed to remain in Santa Fe but was assessed the expenses of Getrudes's trip to El Paso. The formal sentence pointed out Armijo's failure to live up to his responsibilities as a husband and ordered him to live amicably with his wife during Getrudes's period of exile from New Mexico.
