Making Schools Work Barbara Bruns,Deon Filmer,Harry Anthony Patrinos,2011 This book is about the threats to education quality in the developing world that cannot be explained by lack of resources It reviews the observed phenomenon of service delivery failures in public education cases where programs and policies increase the inputs to education but do not produce effective services where it counts in schools and classrooms It documents what we know about the extent and costs of such failures across low and middle income countries And it further develops the conceptual model posited in the World Development Report 2004 that a root cause of low quality and inequitable public services not only in education is the weak accountability of providers to both their supervisors and clients The central focus of the book however is a new story It is that developing countries are increasingly adopting innovative strategies to attack these problems Drawing on new evidence from 22 rigorous impact evaluations across 11 developing countries this book examines how three key strategies to strengthen accountability relationships in developing country school systems have affected school enrollment completion and student learning The book reviews the motivation and global context for education reforms aimed at strengthening provider accountability It provides the rationally and synthesizes the evidence on the impacts of three key lines of reform 1 policies that use the power of information to strengthen the ability of clients of education services students and their parents to hold providers accountable for results 2 policies that promote school based management that is increase schools autonomy to make key decisions and control resources often empowering parents to play a larger role 3 teacher incentives reforms that specifically aim at making teachers more accountable for results either by making contract tenure dependent on performance or offering performance linked pay The book summarizes the lessons learned draws cautious conclusions about possible complementarities across different types of accountability focused reforms if they are implemented in tandem considers issues related to scaling up reform efforts and the political economy of reform and suggests directions for future work

Preethlall, Bridget Farham, Annemarie Gebhardt, 2014-08-21 Transforming Agriculture in Southern Africa Richard A. Sikora, Eugene R. Terry, Paul L.G. Vlek, Joyce Chitja, 2019-11-27 This book provides a synthesis of the key issues and challenges facing agriculture and food production in Southern Africa. Southern Africa is facing numerous challenges from diverse issues such as agricultural transformations, growing populations, urbanization, and climate change. These challenges place great pressure on food security, agriculture, water availability, and other natural resources, as well as impacting biodiversity. Drawing on case studies from Lesotho, Malawi, Mozambique, Namibia, South Africa, Swaziland, Tanzania, Zambia, and Zimbabwe, the chapters in this book consider these challenges from an interdisciplinary perspective, covering key areas in constraints to production, the most important building blocks of good farming practices, and established and emerging technologies. This book will be a valuable support for informing new policies and processes aimed at improving food production and security and developing sustainable agriculture in Southern Africa. This informative volume will be key reading for those interested in agricultural science, African studies, rural studies, development studies, and sustainability. It will also be a valuable resource for policymakers, governmental and nongovernmental organizations, and agricultural practitioners. Long Walk to Freedom Nelson Mandela, 2008-03-11 Essential reading for anyone who wants to understand history and then go out and change it. President Barack Obama: Nelson Mandela was one of the great moral and political leaders of his time, an international hero whose lifelong dedication to the fight against racial oppression in South Africa won him the Nobel Peace Prize and the presidency of his country. After his triumphant release in 1990 from more than a quarter century of imprisonment, Mandela was at the center of the most compelling and inspiring political drama in the world. As president of the African National Congress and head of South Africa's anti-apartheid movement, he was instrumental in moving the nation toward multiracial government and majority rule. He is still revered everywhere as a vital force in the fight for human rights and racial equality. Long Walk to Freedom is his moving and exhilarating autobiography, destined to take its place among the finest memoirs of history's greatest figures. Here, for the first time, Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela told the extraordinary story of his life: an epic of struggle, setback, renewed hope, and ultimate triumph. The book that inspired the major motion picture Mandela. Long Walk to Freedom

Grassroots Innovation Anil K Gupta, 2016-07-20 A moral dilemma gripped Professor Gupta when he was invited by the Bangladeshi government to help restructure their agricultural sector in 1985. He noticed how the marginalized farmers were being paid poorly for their otherwise unmatched knowledge. The gross injustice of this constant imbalance led Professor Gupta to found what would turn into a resounding social and ethical movement: the Honey Bee Network, bringing together and elevating thousands of grassroots innovators. For over two decades, Professor Gupta has travelled through rural lands, unearthing innovations by the ranks, from the famed Mitti Cool refrigerator to the footbridge of

Meghalaya He insists that to fight the largest and most persistent problems of the world we must eschew expensive research labs and instead look towards ordinary folk Innovation that oft flung around word is stripped to its core in this book Poignant and personal Grassroots Innovation is an important treatise from a social crusader of our time Field Guide to Trees of Southern Africa Braam van Wyk,2013-08-06 This comprehensively updated and expanded edition of the region s best selling field guide to trees offers much much more than the highly successful first edition Fully updated text including additional species entries and distribution maps numerous new photographs and a new 87 page section of full tree photographs makes this well loved guide even more indispensable in the field Southern Africa has a rich variety of tree species with an estimated 2 100 indigenous species and more than 100 naturalised aliens Field Guide to Trees of Southern Africa describes and illustrates more than 1 000 of these focusing on trees that are the most common and most likely to be encountered Species are logically arranged in 43 groups based on easy to observe leaf and stem features and each account is illustrated by full colour photographs of the plant s diagnostic parts The text also touches on the practical uses of the plants Curriculum Implementation Michael Fullan,Paul B. Park,1981 TIMSS 2011 International Results in Mathematics Ina V. S. Mullis,2012-12 Physical Science Experiments Aviva Ebner,2011 Explores the physical sciences through experiments in infrared radiation heat and energy Culture and Mental Health Leslie Swartz,1998 This book introduces key issues in understanding social and cultural factors as they relate to mental health and illness and to a southern African understanding and construction of these categories It lays out central international and local debates in the field of mental health in an accessible way making use of extensive research and case studies Central theoretical debates such as those between relativism and universalism and between hermeneutical and critical approaches are presented early in the text and referred to throughout the more applied chapters The aim is to equip the reader to assess the strengths and weaknesses of different approaches to understanding specific aspects of mental health and illness Stressed throughout is the role of the mental health professional in the construction of ideas of mental health and illness Economic Transformation and Job Creation Kenneth O. Hall,Myrtle Chuck-A-Sang,2013-08 The question of economic transformation is an immediate and practical one for the English speaking Caribbean In the postindependence period Caribbean governments seemed blissfully unaware that the inability to transform their economies was leading to serious unemployment problems The statistics are quite stark Unemployment rates in the Caribbean range from 6% in the more prosperous states to 23% in the less prosperous ones This use of economic transformation and job creation continues to be a major challenge in the first decade of the twenty first Century This is the subject that is treated with impressive urgency in this volume entitled Economic Transformation and Job Creation The Caribbean Experience Literary Studies in English Tess Clarke,2016-06-03 This book aims to examine multiple literary texts and works by applying various cultural and literary theories criticism The application of these theories helps in deciphering novel meanings and understanding of the textual elements The book encompasses texts and articles from the literary canon as well as contemporary literature from around the world which offer a broader perspective on the interaction between various socio cultural elements that shape literary works It aims to understand the formation of new meanings and paradigms that emerge out these literary analyses and reviews This book is a great resource for all the students academicians and critics who are looking for recent perspectives on different literary texts and works
