Wooden: A Coach's Life Seth Davis, 2014-01-14 A provocative and revelatory new biography of the legendary UCLA coach John Wooden by one of America's top college basketball writers. No college basketball coach has ever dominated the sport like John Wooden. His UCLA teams reached unprecedented heights in the 1960s and 70s, capped by a run of ten NCAA championships in twelve seasons and an eighty-eight game winning streak records that stand to this day. Wooden also became a renowned motivational speaker and writer, revered for his Pyramid of Success. Seth Davis of Sports Illustrated and CBS Sports has written the definitive biography of Wooden, an unflinching portrait that draws on archival research and more than two hundred interviews with players, opponents, coaches, and even Wooden himself. Davis shows how hard Wooden strove for success from his All American playing days at Purdue through his early years as a high school and college coach to the glory days at UCLA, only to discover that reaching new heights brought new burdens and frustrations. Davis also reveals how at the pinnacle of his career, Wooden found himself on questionable ground with alumni, referees, assistants, and even some of his players. His was a life not only of lessons taught but also of lessons learned. Woven into the story as well are the players who powered Wooden's championship teams: Kareem Abdul Jabbar, Bill Walton, Walt Hazzard, and others, many of whom speak frankly about their coach. The portrait that emerges from Davis's remarkable biography is of a man in full whose life story still resonates today.

Wooden on Leadership John Wooden, 2005-04-26 A Wall Street Journal Bestseller. A compelling look inside the mind and powerful leadership methods of America's coaching legend John Wooden. Team spirit, loyalty, enthusiasm, determination. Acquire and keep these traits, and success should follow. Coach John Wooden's goal in 41 years of coaching never changed, namely to get maximum effort and peak performance from each of his players in the manner that best served the team. Wooden on Leadership explains step by step how he pursued and accomplished this goal. Focusing on Wooden's 12 Lessons in Leadership and his acclaimed Pyramid of Success, it outlines the mental, emotional, and physical qualities essential to building a winning organization and shows you how to develop the skill, confidence, and competitive fire to be at your best when your best is needed and teach your organization to do the same. Praise for Wooden on Leadership: What an all-encompassing Pyramid of Success for leadership. Coach Wooden's moral authority and brilliant definition of success encompass all of life. How I admire his life's work and concept of what it really means to win. Stephen R. Covey, author of The 7 Habits of Highly Successful People and The 8th Habit: From Effectiveness to Greatness. Wooden on Leadership offers valuable lessons no matter what your endeavor. Competitive Greatness is our goal, and that of any successful organization. Coach Wooden's Pyramid of Success is where it all starts. Jim Sinegal, president, CEO, Costco.

Be Quick - But Don't Hurry Andrew Hill, John Wooden, 2002-04-22 Be Quick But Don't Hurry presents the team building management secrets of the greatest coach of the twentieth century cloaked in the heartwarming tale of the reluctant protege who learned those secrets in spite of himself Perhaps the least controversial sports honor in living memory was the selection of John Wooden as Coach of the Century by ESPN honoring his ten NCAA basketball championships in a twelve year stretch His UCLA teams won with great centers and with small lineups with superstars and with team effort always with quickness always with class Wooden was a teacher first and foremost and his lessons taught on the basketball court but applicable throughout one's life are summarized in his famed Pyramid of Success Andrew Hill was one of the lucky young men who got to learn from Wooden in his favored classroom though that is hardly how Hill would have described it at the time An all city high school player in Los Angeles Hill played a little on three national champions from 1970 to 1972 Hill was left embittered by his experience at UCLA he was upset at how unequally Wooden treated his starting players and his substitutes Hill went on to a successful career in television rising to the presidency of CBS Productions where he was responsible for the success of such popular series as Touched by an Angel and Dr Quinn Medicine Woman Hill's job required him to manage many creative people with the egos and insecurities that usually go along with such talents And one day some twenty five years after he graduated he was hit with the realization that everything he knew about getting the best out of people he had learned directly from Coach John Wooden With no small trepidation Hill picked up the phone to call and thank his old coach and unexpected mentor To his surprise Wooden greeted him warmly and enthusiastically A strong friendship sealed in frequent visits and conversations ensued and endures Be Quick But Don't Hurry tells the story of that friendship But it also shares the lessons and secrets that Hill learned from Coach Wooden which hold the key to managing creatively in the idea driven economy of the twenty first century Among those lessons are The team with the best players almost always wins Be quick but don't hurry there is never enough time to be sure and if you are sure you're probably too late but you must always keep your balance Failing to prepare is preparing to fail The team that makes the most mistakes wins Full of sound advice and warm reminiscence Be Quick But Don't Hurry is the management book of a lifetime
