Rethinking Synagogues Rabbi Lawrence A. Hoffman, PhD, 2012-05-24 A critical and challenging look at reinventing the synagogue as the centerpiece of a refashioned Jewish community America is undergoing a spiritual revolution only the fourth religious awakening in its history I plead therefore for an equally spiritual synagogue knowing that any North American Jewish community that hopes to be around in a hundred years must have religion at its center with the synagogue the religious institution that best fits North American culture at its very core from Chapter 1 Synagogues are under attack and for good reasons But they remain the religious backbone of Jewish continuity especially in America the sole Western industrial or post industrial nation where religion and spirituality continue to grow in importance To fulfill their mandate for the American future synagogues need to replace old and tired conversation with a new way of talking about their goals their challenges and their vision for the future In this provocative clarion call for synagogue transformation Rabbi Lawrence A Hoffman summarizes a decade of research with Synagogue 2000 a pioneering experiment that reconceptualized synagogue life providing fresh ways for synagogues to think as they undertake the exciting task of global change     Robert D.
