Counsel from the Cross Elyse M. Fitzpatrick, Dennis E. Johnson, 2009-06-08 Demonstrates the why and the how of consistently biblical gospel centric counseling whether in the pastor's study or over coffee with a friend With the evermore apparent failure of modern psychotherapies and a discomfort with pharmacological strategies many churches are reaffirming the sufficiency and power of the Scriptures to change lives To aid churches in ministering to broken and hurting people the authors of Counsel from the Cross present a counseling model based on Scripture powered by the work of the Wonderful Counselor Jesus Christ Through careful exegesis and helpful case studies they demonstrate the why and the how of consistently biblical gospel centered counseling The authors combined backgrounds one a woman trained in biblical counseling and the other a male professor of practical theology bring balance to this work making it relevant for those who counsel as part of pastoral ministry and for those involved in friendship mentoring or discipleship

The Bookends of the Christian Life Jerry Bridges, Bob Bevington, 2009-03-09 The authors use an extended metaphor to serve up a little book with a big message about two essentials of the Christian life What do bookends have to do with the Christian life They are a metaphor that Jerry Bridges has developed over the years and which he and coauthor Bob Bevington flesh out in this small volume The two bookends explain not only how we as sinners can be made acceptable to a holy God but also we can find the power to change They are thus essential for the Christian life In a unique book that should garner the attention of a wide range of readers the authors use their extended metaphor to help readers answer questions like How can I overcome persistent guilt How can I deal with the pressure to measure up Where can I find the motivation it takes to grow How can I live the Christian life with both my head and my heart How can I be sure God loves me How can I change in an authentic and lasting way So what are the bookends of the Christian life Christ's righteousness as it is transferred to dependent believers and the Holy Spirit's power as it enables their transformation In continuing their goal to re-center the church at large onto the historic gospel of Jesus Christ Bridges and Bevington have served up this little book with a big message so that believers and seekers alike can understand these two keys to a genuine Christian life

The Church on Mission Craig Ott, 2019-05-21 In this scripturally rich exploration senior missiologist Craig Ott unpacks the mission statement of the church to glorify God by multiplying transformational churches among all people This concise yet robust biblical theological treatment focuses on God's glory a strong ecclesiology the importance of Scripture and practical implications for congregational and mission practice Ideal for launching discussion and reflection the book helps readers refocus their vision and reignite their commitment to fulfilling God's purposes for their church or mission
