What We Say Matters Ike K. Lasater, Judith Hanson Lasater, 2022-08-09 Drawing from Buddhist and yogic precepts this practical guide offers tools for becoming a better more compassionate communicator at home at work and in the world Have you ever tried to tell someone what you want only to feel misunderstood and frustrated Or hesitated to ask for what you needed because you didn't want to burden the other person Or been stuck in blame or anger that wouldn't go away Judith and Ike Lasater long term students of yoga and Buddhism experienced dilemmas like these too Even though they had studied the yoga principle of satya truth and the Buddhist precept of right speech it was not until they began practicing Marshall Rosenberg's techniques of Nonviolent Communication NVC that they understood how to live satya and right speech In What We Say Matters Judith and Ike describe their journey through NVC and how speech becomes a spiritual practice based on giving and receiving with compassion everywhere all the time whether at home at work or in the world Their writing is deeply personal punctuated by their recounts of trial and error success and failure laughter and challenge even in writing this book They guide you through an introduction to NVC with clear explanations poignant examples suggested exercises and helpful resources With practice you'll learn new ways to Extend empathy to yourself and others Distinguish between feelings and needs Make requests rather than demands Choose connection over conflict Create mutually satisfying outcomes
