Congress, 2006 This book contains selected papers delivered during the 22nd Congress of L Union Européenne des Arabisants et Islamisants held in Poland from 29th September to 4th October 2004 The proceedings have been arranged into four thematic sections 1 Theology and Philosophy 2 Literature 3 History of State and Society and 4 Philology and Linguistics though quite a number of the papers were of an interdisciplinary character The authors of the 37 publications presented in this volume represent the international academic community and present in their articles the results of the latest research and studies into the areas touching on history culture literature religion and art to mention a few They constitute various attempts to answer the following questions What is the meaning of Authority and What is the place of the individual in Society The book is essential source reading for specialists and students This book is also recommended to all those who wish to become better acquainted with the problems and issues of the Arab Muslim world The Oxford Handbook of Qur'anic Studies, 2020-04-28 Traditionally revered as the literal word of God the Qur'an serves as Islam's sacred book of revelation Accordingly its statements and pronouncements rest at the core of the beliefs and teachings that have inexorably defined expressions of the Islamic faith Indeed over the centuries engaging with and poring over the contents of the Qur'an inspired an impressive range of traditional scholarship Notwithstanding its religious pre-eminence the Qur'an is also considered to be the matchless masterpiece of the Arabic language and its impact as a text can be discerned in all aspects of the Arabic literary tradition Presenting contributions from leading experts in the field The Oxford Handbook of Qur'anic Studies offers an authoritative collection of chapters that guide readers through the gamut of themes subjects and debates that have dominated the academic study of the Qur'an and its literary heritage These range from chapters that explore the text's language vocabulary style and structure to detailed surveys of its contents concepts transmission literary influence historical significance commentary tradition and even the scholarship devoted to translations With the aim of serving as an indispensable reference resource the Handbook assesses the implications of research discourses and discussions shaping the study of the Qur'an today There exists no single volume devoted to such a broad review of the scholarship on the Qur'an and its rich commentary tradition Rethinking Ibn 'Arabi Gregory A. Lipton, 2018-04-02 The thirteenth century mystic Ibn Arabi was the foremost Sufi theorist of the premodern era For more than a century Western scholars and esotericists have heralded his universalism arguing that he saw all contemporaneous religions as equally valid In Rethinking Ibn Arabi Gregory Lipton calls this image into question and throws into relief how Ibn Arabi's discourse is inseparably intertwined with the absolutist vision of his own religious milieu that is the triumphant claim that Islam fulfilled superseded and therefore abrogated all previous revealed religions Lipton juxtaposes Ibn Arabi's absolutist conception with the later reception of his ideas exploring how they have been read appropriated and universalized within the reigning interpretive field of Perennial Philosophy in the study of Sufism The contours that surface through this comparative analysis trace the discursive practices that inform Ibn Arabi's Western reception back to the eighteenth and nineteenth century study of authentic religion where European ethno-racial superiority was wielded against the Semitic Other both Jewish and Muslim

Lipton argues that supersessionist models of exclusivism are buried under contemporary Western constructions of religious authenticity in ways that ironically mirror Ibn Arabi's medieval absolutism

Christian Lives Given to the Study of Islam Christian W. Troll, C.T.R. Hewer, 2012-09-12 A collection of 28 articles by Christian students of Islam each with several decades of experience They address motivation methodologies spiritual and intellectual nourishment achievements and personal reflections They come from many Christian churches and nationalities and bring a worldwide perspective to the subject A unique record of a unique generation

Ibn `Arabi's Mystical Poetics Denis E. McAuley, 2012-08-23 Muhyi D n Ibn Arab 1165 1240 was a hugely influential figure in the development of Sufism yet although interest in his work continues to grow his poetry has received very little attention This book is the first full length monograph devoted to his D w n collected poems It begins by attempting to define Ibn Arab's poetic style and his understanding of poetics which is closely intertwined with his metaphysics the rhythms of poetry echo those of creation and meaning combines with form just as the spirit descends on matter Drawing on a pre Islamic theme he insists that his poetry was revealed to him word for word by a spirit At the same time however his attitude to the function of poetry and its relation to scripture is closer to mainstream medieval Islamic Jewish and Christian theology than has usually been thought Denis E McAuley focuses on close readings of books in unusual verse forms including poetic responses to chapters of the Qur an imitations of earlier poets poems that use only one rhyme word and a cycle of poems modelled on the letters of the alphabet In so doing he makes frequent comparisons with other Islamic and European poets from the sixth century to the dawn of the twentieth many of them virtually unstudied Ibn Arab emerges as a highly original poet whose work casts a fresh light on the period and on classical Arabic literature as a whole

Representations of the Divine in Arabic Poetry, 2021-11-22 In Islam the fascination for the word is as vigorous as in Judaism and in Christianity but an extra dimension is that the revealed text the Koran is considered to be verbatim the word of the Almighty Himself thereby providing the Arabic language with just an extra quality No wonder that throughout Islamic history the study of the word the Koran the prophet's utterances and the interpretation of both has become the main axis of knowledge and education As a consequence the intellectuals and also the poets in Islamic culture were thoroughly familiar with religious terms and the phraseology of a language which was highly estimated because of the divine origin with which it was associated No wonder therefore that allusions to religious texts can be found throughout Arabic literature both classical and modern The subject of this volume is the representation of the divine in Arabic poetry be it the experience of the divine as expressed by poets or the use of imagery coined by religion

Multiculturalism and Minority Rights in the Arab World Will Kymlicka, Eva Pföstl, 2014-03-20 Since the Arab Spring Arab states have become the new front line in the struggle for democratization and for open societies As the experience of other regions has shown one of the most significant challenges facing democratization relates to minority rights This book explores how minority claims are framed and debated in the region and in particular how political actors draw upon re interpret or resist both the new global discourses of minority rights and more local traditions and practices of co existence The contributors examine a range of pre colonial colonial and post colonial factors that shape contemporary minority politics in the Arab world and that encumber the reception of international norms of multiculturalism These factors include the contested legacies of Islamic doctrines of the dhimmi and the Ottoman millet system colonial era divide and rule strategies and post colonial Arab nation building While these legacies complicate struggles for minority rights they do not entail an Arab exceptionalism to global trends to multiculturalism This volume explores a number of openings for new more pluralistic conceptions of nationhood and citizenship and suggests that minority politics at its best can serve as a vehicle for a more general transformative politics supporting a broader culture of democracy and human rights and challenging older authoritarian clientalistic or patriarchal political tendencies The chapters include both broad theoretical and historical perspectives as well as more focused case studies including Western Sahara Morocco Algeria Israel Palestine Sudan United Arab Emirates and Iraq

C. S. Peacock, 2017-03-08 The spread of Islam and the process of Islamisation meaning both conversion to Islam and the adoption of Muslim culture is explored in the twenty four chapters of this volume Taking a comparative perspective both the historical trajectory of Islamisation and the methodological problems in its study are addressed with coverage moving from Africa to China and from the seventh century to the start of the colonial period in 1800 Key questions are addressed What is meant by Islamisation How far was the spread of Islam as a religion bound up with the spread of Muslim culture To what extent are Islamisation and conversion parallel processes How is Islamisation connected to Arabisation What role do vernacular Muslim languages play in the promotion of Muslim culture The broad comparative perspective allows readers to develop a thorough understanding of the process of Islamisation over eleven centuries of its history The Divine Names ‘Afif al-Dīn al-Tilimsānī, 2023-12-01 A Sufi scholar s philosophical interpretation of the names of God The Divine Names is a philosophically sophisticated commentary on the names of God Penned by the seventh thirteenth century North African scholar and Sufi poet Af f al D n al Tilims n The Divine Names expounds upon the one hundred and forty six names of God that appear in the Qur an including The All Merciful The Powerful The First and The Last In his treatment of each divine name al Tilims n synthesizes and compares the views of three influential earlier authors al Bayhaq al Ghaz l and Ibn Barraj n Al Tilims n famously described his two teachers Ibn al Arab and al Q naw as a philosophizing mystic and a mysticizing philosopher respectively Picking up their mantle al Tilims n merges mysticism and philosophy combining the tenets of Akbar Sufism with the technical language of Aristotelian Neoplatonic and Avicennan philosophy as he explains his logic in a rigorous and concise way Unlike Ibn al Arab his overarching concern is not to examine the names as correspondences between God and creation but to demonstrate how the names overlap at every level of cosmic existence The Divine Names shows how a broad range of competing theological and philosophical interpretations can all contain elements of the truth A bilingual Arabic English edition Classical Arabic Literature, 2013 NYU Press and NYU Abu Dhabi NYUAD announce the establishment of the Library of Arabic Literature LAL a new publishing series offering Arabic editions and English
