Animal Dreams Barbara Kingsolver, 2009-10-13 An emotional masterpiece A novel in which humor passion and superb prose conspire to seize a reader by the heart and by the soul New York Daily News From Barbara Kingsolver the acclaimed author of Flight Behavior The Lacuna The Bean Trees and other modern classics Animal Dreams is a passionate and complex novel about love forgiveness and one woman's struggle to find her place in the world Animals dream about the things they do in the daytime just like people do If you want sweet dreams you've got to live a sweet life So says Loyd Peregrina a handsome Apache trainman and latter day philosopher But when Codi Noline returns to her hometown Loyd's advice is painfully out of her reach Dreamless and at the end of her rope Codi comes back to Grace Arizona to confront her past and face her ailing distant father What she finds is a town threatened by a silent environmental catastrophe some startling clues to her own identity and a man whose view of the world could change the course of her life Blending flashbacks dreams and Native American legends Animal Dreams is a suspenseful love story and a moving exploration of life's largest commitments This edition includes a P S section with additional insights from Barbara Kingsolver background material suggestions for further reading and more

The Bean Trees Barbara Kingsolver, 2009-03-17 The Bean Trees is the work of a visionary It leaves you open mouthed and smiling Los Angeles Times A bestseller that has come to be regarded as an American classic The Bean Trees is the novel that launched Barbara Kingsolver's remarkable literary career It is the charming engrossing tale of rural Kentucky native Taylor Greer who only wants to get away from her roots and avoid getting pregnant She succeeds but inherits a three year old Native American girl named Turtle along the way and together from Oklahoma to Arizona half Cherokee Taylor and her charge search for a new life in the West Hers is a story about love and friendship abandonment and belonging and the discovery of surprising resources in seemingly empty places This edition includes a P S section with additional insights from the author background material suggestions for further reading and more

The Lacuna Barbara Kingsolver, 2009-11-05 NOW INCLUDING THE FIRST CHAPTER OF DEMON COPPERHEAD TWICE WINNER OF THE WOMEN'S PRIZE FOR FICTION FROM THE WINNER OF THE PULITZER PRIZE FOR FICTION THE MULTI MILLION COPY BESTSELLING AUTHOR Lush Sunday Times Superb Daily Mail Elegantly written Sunday Telegraph From award winning and internationally bestselling author of Demon Copperhead and Flight Behaviour The Lacuna is the heartbreaking story of a man torn between the warm heart of Mexico and the cold embrace of 1950s America in the shadow of Senator McCarthy Born in America and raised in Mexico Harrison Shepherd is a liability to his social climbing flapper mother Salome When he starts work in the household of Mexican artists Diego Rivera and Frida Kahlo where the Bolshevik leader Lev Trotsky is also being harboured as a political exile he inadvertently casts his lot with art communism and revolution A compulsive diarist he records and relates his colourful experiences of life with Diego Rivera Frida Kahlo and Trotsky in the midst of the Mexican revolution A violent upheaval sends him back to America but political winds continue to throw him between north and south in a plot that turns many times on the unspeakable breach the lacuna between truth and public presumption

The Poisonwood Bible Barbara Kingsolver, 2009-10-13 New York Times Bestseller Finalist for the Pulitzer Prize An Oprah's Book Club Selection Powerful Kingsolver has with infinitely steady hands worked the prickly threads of religion politics race sin and redemption into a thing of terrible beauty Los Angeles Times Book Review The Poisonwood Bible now celebrating its 25th anniversary established Barbara Kingsolver as one of the most thoughtful and daring of modern writers Taking its place alongside the classic works of postcolonial literature it is a suspenseful epic of one family's tragic undoing and remarkable reconstruction over the course of three decades in Africa The story is told by the wife and four daughters of Nathan Price a fierce evangelical Baptist who takes his family and mission to the Belgian Congo in 1959 They carry with them everything they believe they will need from home but soon find that all of it from garden seeds to Scripture is calamitously transformed on African soil The novel is set against one of the most dramatic political chronicles of the twentieth century the Congo's fight for independence from Belgium the murder of its first elected prime minister the CIA coup to install his replacement and the insidious progress of a world economic order that robs the fledgling African nation of its autonomy Against this backdrop Orleana Price reconstructs the story of her evangelist husband's part in the Western assault on Africa a tale indelibly darkened by her own losses and unanswerable questions about her own culpability Also narrating the story by turns are her four daughters the teenaged Rachel adolescent twins Leah and Adah and Ruth May a prescient five year old These sharply observant girls who arrive in the Congo with racial preconceptions forged in 1950s Georgia will be marked in surprisingly different ways by their father's intractable mission and by Africa itself Ultimately each must strike her own separate path to salvation Their passionately intertwined stories become a compelling exploration of moral risk and personal responsibility

Unsheltered Barbara Kingsolver, 2018-10-16 New York Times Bestseller Named one of the Best Books of the Year by NPR O The Oprah Magazine San Francisco Chronicle Christian Science Monitor and Newsweek Kingsolver brilliantly captures both the price of profound change and how it can pave the way not only for future generations but also for a radiant unexpected expansion of the heart O The Oprah Magazine The acclaimed author of The Poisonwood Bible and The Bean Trees and recipient of numerous literary awards including the National Humanities Medal the Dayton Literary Peace Prize and the Orange Prize returns with a story about two families in two centuries navigating what seems to be the end of the world as they know it With history as their tantalizing canvas these characters paint a startlingly relevant portrait of life in precarious times when the foundations of the past have failed to prepare us for the future How could two hardworking people do everything right in life a woman asks and end up destitute Willa Knox and her husband followed all the rules as responsible parents and professionals and have nothing to show for it but debts and an inherited brick house that is falling apart The magazine where Willa worked has folded the college where her husband had tenure has closed Their dubious shelter is also the only option for a disabled father in law and an exasperating free spirited daughter When the family's one success story an Ivy educated son is uprooted by tragedy he seems likely to join them with dark complications of his own In another time a troubled husband and public servant asks How can a man tell the truth and be reviled for it A science teacher with a passion for honest investigation Thatcher Greenwood finds himself under siege his employer forbids him to speak of the exciting work just published by Charles Darwin His young bride and social climbing mother in law bristle at the risk of scandal and dismiss his worries that their elegant house is unsound In a village ostensibly founded as a benevolent Utopia Thatcher wants only to honor his duties but his friendships with a woman scientist and a renegade newspaper editor threaten to draw him into a vendetta with the town's powerful men A timely and utterly captivating novel San Francisco Chronicle Unsheltered interweaves past and present to explore the human capacity for resiliency and compassion in times of great upheaval
