Co-opetition Barry Nalebuff, Adam Brandenburger, 1996 Business is a game but unlike war or sport the game of business does not require other players to fail nor is it about how you play Even brilliant performance won't be enough if you are playing the wrong game The essence of business success lies in making sure you are in the right game

Right Game Adam Brandenburger, Barry J. Nalebuff, 2009-10-01 Business is like war The best combatant wins while the worst loses right Not necessarily Companies can succeed spectacularly without destroying others And they can lose miserably after competing well Exceptional businesses win by actively shaping the game they're playing not playing the game they find The Right Game shows you how to do this by altering who's competing what value each player brings to the table and which rules and tactics players use Since 1922 Harvard Business Review has been a leading source of breakthrough ideas in management practice The Harvard Business Review Classics series now offers you the opportunity to make these seminal pieces a part of your permanent management library Each highly readable volume contains a groundbreaking idea that continues to shape best practices and inspire countless managers around the world
