Good Strategy Bad Strategy Richard Rumelt, 2011-07-19 Good Strategy Bad Strategy clarifies the muddled thinking underlying too many strategies and provides a clear way to create and implement a powerful action oriented strategy for the real world Developing and implementing a strategy is the central task of a leader A good strategy is a specific and coherent response to and approach for overcoming the obstacles to progress A good strategy works by harnessing and applying power where it will have the greatest effect Yet Rumelt shows that there has been a growing and unfortunate tendency to equate Mom and apple pie values fluffy packages of buzzwords motivational slogans and financial goals with strategy In Good Strategy Bad Strategy he debunks these elements of bad strategy and awakens an understanding of the power of a good strategy He introduces nine sources of power ranging from using leverage to effectively focusing on growth that are eye opening yet pragmatic tools that can easily be put to work on Monday morning and uses fascinating examples from business nonprofit and military affairs to bring its original and pragmatic ideas to life The detailed examples range from Apple to General Motors from the two Iraq wars to Afghanistan from a small local market to Wal Mart from Nvidia to Silicon Graphics from the Getty Trust to the Los Angeles Unified School District from Cisco Systems to Paccar and from Global Crossing to the 2007 08 financial crisis Reflecting an astonishing grasp and integration of economics finance technology history and the brilliance and foibles of the human character Good Strategy Bad Strategy stems from Rumelt's decades of digging beyond the superficial to address hard questions with honesty and integrity

Future Directions for the Demography of Aging National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Committee on Population, 2018-07-21 Almost 25 years have passed since the Demography of Aging 1994 was published by the National Research Council Future Directions for the Demography of Aging is in many ways the successor to that original volume The Division of Behavioral and Social Research at the National Institute on Aging NIA asked the National Academies of Sciences Engineering and Medicine to produce an authoritative guide to new directions in demography of aging The papers published in this report were originally presented and discussed at a public workshop held in Washington D C August 17 18 2017 The workshop discussion made evident that major new advances had been made in the last two decades but also that new trends and research directions have emerged that call for innovative conceptual design and measurement approaches The report reviews these recent trends and also discusses future directions for research on a range of topics that are central to current research in the demography of aging Looking back over the past two decades of demography of aging research shows remarkable advances in our understanding of the health and well being of the older population Equally exciting is that this report sets the stage for the next two decades of innovative research a period of rapid growth in the older American population

U.S. Marines in Afghanistan, 2001-2009 U S Marine Corps History Division, 2017-02-05 This volume presents a collection of 38 articles interviews and speeches describing many aspects of the U S Marine Corps participation in Operation Enduring Freedom from 2001 to 2009 This work is intended to serve as a general overview and provisional reference to inform both Marines and the general public until the History Division completes monographs dealing with major Marine Corps operations during the campaign The accompanying annotated bibliography provides a detailed look at selected sources that currently exist until new scholarship and archival materials become available From the Preface From the outset some experts doubted that the U S Marines Corps would play a major role in Afghanistan given the landlocked nature of the battlefield Naval expeditionary Task Force 58 TF 58 commanded by then Brigadier General James N Mattis silenced naysayers with the farthest ranging amphibious assault in Marine Corps Navy history In late November 2001 Mattis force seized what became Forward Operating Base Rhino Afghanistan from naval shipping some 400 miles away The historic assault not only blazed a path for follow on forces it also cut off fleeing al Qaeda and Taliban elements and aided in the seizure of Kandahar While Corps doctrine and culture advocates Marine employment as a fully integrated Marine air ground task force MAGTF deployments to Afghanistan often reflected what former Commandant General Charles C Krulak coined as the three block war Following TF 58 s deployment during the initial take down of the Taliban regime the MAGTF made few appearances in Afghanistan until 2008 Before then subsequent Marine units often deployed as a single battalion under the command of the U S Army Combined Joint Task Force CJTF to provide security for provincial reconstruction teams The Marine Corps also provided embedded training teams to train and mentor the fledgling Afghan National Army and Police Aviation assets sporadically deployed to support the U S led coalition mostly to conduct a specific mission or to bridge a gap in capability such as close air support or electronic warfare to counter the improvised explosive device threat From 2003 to late 2007 the national preoccupation with stabilizing Iraq focused most Marine Corps assets on stemming the insurgency largely centered in the restive al Anbar Province As a result of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO taking over command of Afghan operations and Marine Corps commitments in Iraq relatively few Marine units operated in Afghanistan from late 2006 to 2007 Although Marines first advocated shifting resources from al Anbar to southern Afghanistan in early 2007 the George W Bush administration delayed the Marine proposal for fear of losing the gains made as a result of Army General David H Petraeus surge strategy in Iraq By late 2007 the situation in Afghanistan had deteriorated to the point that it inspired Rolling Stone to later publish the story How We Lost the War We Won In recognition of the shifting tides in both Iraq and Afghanistan the Bush administration began to transfer additional resources to Afghanistan in early 2008 The shift prompted senior Marines to again push for a more prominent role in the Afghan campaign even proposing to take over the Afghan mission from the Army Popular Photography ,1990-07

Earth First! Direct Action Manual The Dam Collective,2015 300 pages of diagrams descriptions of techniques and a comprehensive overview of the role direct action plays in resistance from planning an action doing a soft blockade putting up a treesit or executing a lockdown to legal and prisoner support direct action trainings fun political pranks and more The DAM has been compiled and updated by frontline activists from around the US to help spread the knowledge and get these skills farther out in the world Convoy Ambush Case Studies Richard E. Killblane,2014-08-15 When the enemy adopts a policy to attack convoys truck drivers become front line troops Convoy commanders must then become tacticians How to study war The student of tactics studies previous fights and mentally places himself in the position of the participants Knowing what they knew how would he have reacted In hind sight what was the best course of action remembering that there is no one perfect solution Any number of actions would have succeeded The tactician must learn what would have worked best for him For this reason I have pulled together all the examples of convoy ambushes The 20th century Vietnam War and current war in Iraq provide a wealth of examples of convoy ambushes from which to study Unfortunately the US Army did not record many good accounts of ambushes during the Vietnam War Much of what is presented in this text is based upon oral interviews of the participants sometimes backed by official record citations or reports For this reason some of the ambush case studies present only the perspective of a crew member of a gun truck or the convoy commander Since this academic study works best when one mentally takes the place of one of the participants this view of the ambush serves a useful purpose After my own review of the ambushes I have drawn my own conclusion as to what principles apply to convoy ambushes The Serpent King Jeff Zentner,2017-06-06 Named to ten BEST OF THE YEAR lists and selected as a William C Morris Award Winner The Serpent King is the critically acclaimed much beloved story of three teens who find themselves and each other while on the cusp of graduating from high school with hopes of leaving their small town behind Perfect for fans of John Green s Turtles All the Way Down Move over John Green Zentner is coming for you The New York Public Library Will fill the infinite space that was left in your chest after you finished The Perks of Being a Wallflower BookRiot com Dill isn t the most popular kid at his rural Tennessee high school After his father fell from grace in a public scandal that reverberated throughout their small town Dill became a target Fortunately his two fellow misfits and best friends Travis and Lydia have his back But as they begin their senior year Dill feels the coils of his future tightening around him His only escapes are music and his secret feelings for Lydia neither of which he is brave enough to share Graduation feels more like an ending to Dill than a beginning But even before then he must cope with another ending one that will rock his life to the core Debut novelist Jeff Zentner provides an unblinking and at times comic view of the hard realities of growing up in the Bible belt and an intimate look at the struggles to find one's true self in the wreckage of the past A story about friendship family and forgiveness it's as funny and witty as it is utterly heartbreaking PasteMagazine.com A brutally honest portrayal of teen life and a love letter to the South from a man who really understands it Mashable.com I adored all three of these characters and the way they talked to and loved one another New York Times

Paradoxes of Gender Judith Lorber, 1994-01-01 In this pathbreaking book a well known feminist and sociologist who is also the Founding Editor of Gender why transvestites transsexuals and hermaphrodites do not affect the conceptualization of two genders and two sexes in Western societies why most of our cultural images of women are the way men see them and not the way women see themselves why all women in modern society are expected to have children and be the primary caretaker why domestic work is almost always the sole responsibility of wives even when they earn more than half the family income why there are so few women in positions of authority when women can be found in substantial numbers in many occupations and professions why women have not benefited from major social revolutions Lorber argues that the whole point of the gender system today is to maintain structured gender inequality to produce a subordinate class women that can be exploited as workers sexual partners childbearers and emotional nurturers Calling into question the inevitability and necessity of gender she envisions a society structured for equality where no gender racial ethnic or social class group is allowed to monopolize economic educational and cultural resources or the positions of power

Transitions to Alternative Vehicles and Fuels National Research Council, Division on Engineering and Physical Sciences, Board on Energy and Environmental Systems, Committee on Transitions to Alternative Vehicles and Fuels, 2013-04-14 For a century almost all light duty vehicles LDVs have been powered by internal combustion engines operating on petroleum fuels Energy security concerns about petroleum imports and the effect of greenhouse gas GHG emissions on global climate are driving interest in alternatives Transitions to Alternative Vehicles and Fuels assesses the potential for reducing petroleum consumption and GHG emissions by 80 percent across the U S LDV fleet by 2050 relative to 2005 This report examines the current capability and estimated future performance and costs for each vehicle type and non petroleum based fuel technology as options that could significantly contribute to these goals By analyzing scenarios that combine various fuel and vehicle pathways the report also identifies barriers to implementation of these technologies and suggests policies to achieve the desired reductions Several scenarios are promising but strong and effective policies such as research and development subsidies energy taxes or regulations will be necessary to overcome barriers such as cost and consumer choice Walkable City Jeff Speck, 2013-11-12 Presents a plan for American cities that focuses on making downtowns walkable and less attractive to drivers through smart growth and sustainable design
