Arthur & D.W. learn you can't presume a house is haunted just because the outside looks run down Brown on Pointes: A Brown Ballerina's Adventure Around the World" by Jayde Brown Step into a world painted in vivid watercolors as young ballerina, Jayde Brown, twirls and leaps across continents. Since the age of 4, Jayde has danced with grace and passion, and from age 6, began her adventures exploring the world one country at a time. This enchanting book brings together her love for ballet and her passion for travel. Each page is adorned with beautiful watercolor images that bring Jayde's tales to life. Through her vibrant descriptions and heartfelt stories, young readers are transported from the historic vibes of her home city, Atlanta, to the distant shores of Belize, and onto the vibrant landscapes of Senegal, Africa. Jayde's narrative sparkles with the pure joy of both dance and discovery. This is a must-get for the young girl in your family, whether she's your daughter, niece, granddaughter, or even for you! Order early and receive an autographed copy, personally signed by Jayde Brown. This book promises to inspire the dancer and traveler in every young reader, igniting a passion for the vast, colorful world around them. Arthur's experience in babysitting for the terrible Tibble Twins is as challenging as he expected, but he finally gets control by telling them a spooky story. None of Arthur's friends wear glasses and his classmates tease him! But when he stops wearing them, he gets in all kinds of trouble. Maybe four eyes really are better than two. Arthur's family is expecting a baby and everyone is excited. But Arthur wonders, will the new baby change everything? Don Brown introduces us to yet another little-known heroine. On June 9, 1909, twenty-two-year-old Alice Ramsey hitched up her skirts and climbed behind the wheel of a Maxwell touring car. Fifty-nine days later she rolled into San Francisco, becoming the first woman to drive across America. What happened in between is quite a tale! Through words and pictures, the author shares this story of a brave and tenacious young woman who followed her vision to conquer the open road - even when the road was nothing more than a wagon trail. Alice Ramsey's adventure offers a unique perspective on turn-of-the-century America and pays tribute to the pioneering spirit that helped create it. This is the colourful story of Francis Birtles, a fascinating individual who led a life of incredible adventure and exploration in Australia and throughout the world. A narrative account of the life and times of one of Australia's most extraordinary adventurers - a man who crossed Australia more than 70 times in the early part of the 20th century - by bicycle and car. In 1927 he achieved the greatest motoring feat of the times, driving a car from London to Melbourne. This story follows his exploits across scorching Arabic deserts, through steamy Indian jungles and mountain snowstorms. In between these journeys he made a collection of documentaries and films of his encounters with the outback. He documented his exploration of Australia in his book, Battlefronts of Outback. He eventually travelled to the Northern Territory in search of gold and retired a wealthy man. Offers a collection of three tales featuring Arthur the Aardvark. When the first manned mission to Mars mysteriously disappears and its crew explorer vehicle crashes onto the Brown's wheat farm in Louisburg, Kansas, what Ben discovers changes his final high school year and the future course of mankind. This is the story of Ben - a young man who has lived his life in the shadows of poverty on a struggling wheat farm and is still reeling from his father's tragic death. What he discovers leads him to question everything he believes in and challenges him to take a major leap of faith and voyage beyond the end of the universe to a world all but destroyed. A world where he is forced to confront the tyranny of their rulers and make a stand to free its enslaved people in a destiny with time, which he knows could very well mean laying down his life. It is ultimately a story of a son seeking redemption, love, and his place in the world in the face of extreme adversity. After years of adventuring around the globe - running, kayaking, hitchhiking, exploring - Beau Miles came back to his block in country Victoria. Staying put for the first time in years, Beau developed a new kind of lifestyle as the Backyard Adventurer. Whether it was walking 90km to work with no provisions, building a canoe paddle out of scavenged scrap or running a disused railway line through properties, blackberry thickets and past inquiring police officers, Beau has been finding ways to satisfy his adventurous spirit close to home. This book is about conscious experimentation with adventure, making meaning and inspiration out of tins of beans, bits of rubbish and elbow grease. Beau's Backyard exploits are funny, authentic, insightful and being copied all over the world by everyday people. YouTuber, new dad, and self-described oddball who needs to shower more, Beau is what happens when you cross Bear Grylls with Bush Tucker Man. With a PhD in Outdoor Education, a string of successful short films under his belt and a boundless passion for discovery, Beau is the real deal. Jacks Big Adventure: Is This Your Brown Feather? is a story about a boy who found a brown feather. Jack wants to find the bird the brown feather belongs to. So he sets out on an adventure looking for a brown bird. On his adventure, Jack encounters eight different birds. Jack asks each bird if the brown feather belongs to them. Each bird he comes upon says no and tells Jack their feather color. Children will learn the primary colors while reading the story. Because the words are repetitive, they will also learn to recognize words in the story. Shelba Wetheral's Little Brown Turtle's Great Adventure demonstrates to young readers the concepts of hope, perseverance, bravery, caution, gratitude, and politeness—the same values that she exhibited to her own children and grandchildren. Good manners and courage are always keys to successful living. Schulz's beloved Peanuts gang is back in a brand-new series. In this title, Snoopy and the rest learn about America's great inventors, introducing a few lesser known inventors who don't often make it into the history books. Full color. Join Jillian and Maya to save princess Arianna from the Island of Bonaboo. R.K. Brown takes you on an epic journey in The Great Adventure of the Island of Bonaboo. Jillian and Maya are asked to go on an adventure to an Island that is ruled by an evil queen and her army. With help from their dog Jackie and friends that they encounter, they go to rescue princess Arianna and save the children from a curse that the evil queen has cast upon the island. Will Jillian and Maya save the island from the evil queen? Can even the littlest person make a difference? Only the courage of these children can tell. Embark upon The Great Adventure of the Island of Bonaboo. Arthur wants to play Deep, Dark Sea on the computer every chance he gets. He's hooked! When his mother leaves for work and asks him not to touch the computer, Arthur can't resist the temptation. Disobedience leads to disaster when Arthur and his friend Buster both reach for the mouse -- and the computer screen goes blank! Will Arthur be able to fix the computer before his mom gets home from work? Once again Arthur, D.W., and friends lead us on a hilarious adventure kids won't want to miss. With no room left on Earth and Mars hanging empty of life, somebody posited a colony on the Red Planet. It meant changing the habits of the immigrants. In fact, every possible factor was covered -- except one of the flaws of human nature. . . Arthur is plainly worried about the new baby expected at his house, but his plucky kid sister, D. W. is delighted. While D. W. learns how to diaper and helps her mother pack for the hospital, Arthur keeps his distance. But one day, when D.W. has to ask for Arthur's help to keep Baby Kate from crying, he steps in and learns that the new addition to his family isn't so bad after all. Kids will love reading along as Marc Brown reads this favorite Arthur Adventure. In this latest Flat Stanley I Can Read adventure, Stanley goes on a snorkeling adventure and makes a NATIONAL BESTSELLER "Destined to become an adventure classic." —Anchorage Daily News Hailed as "gripping" (New York Times) and "beautiful" (Washington Post), The Adventurer's Son is Roman Dial's extraordinary and widely acclaimed account of his two-year quest to unravel the mystery of his son's disappearance in the jungles of Costa Rica. In the predawn hours of July 10, 2014, the twenty-seven-year-old son of preeminent Alaskan scientist and National Geographic Explorer Roman Dial, walked alone into Corcovado National Park, an untracked rainforest along Costa Rica's remote Pacific Coast that shelters miners, poachers, and drug smugglers. He carried a light backpack and machete. Before he left, Cody Roman Dial emailed his father: "I am not sure how long it will take me, but I'm planning on doing 4 days in the jungle and a day to walk out. I'll be bounded by a trail to the west and the coast everywhere else, so it should be difficult to get lost forever." They were the last words Dial received from his son. As soon as he realized Cody Roman's return date had passed, Dial set off for Costa Rica. As he trekked through the dense jungle, interviewing locals and searching for clues—the authorities suspected murder—the desperate father was forced to confront the deepest questions about himself and his own role in the events. Roman had raised his son to be fearless, to be at home in earth's wildest places, travelling together through rugged Alaska to remote Borneo and Bhutan. Was he responsible for his son's fate? Or, as he hoped, was Cody Roman safe and using his wilderness skills on a solo adventure from which he would emerge at any moment? Part detective story set in the most beautiful yet dangerous reaches of the planet, The Adventurer's Son emerges as a far deeper tale of discovery—a journey to understand the truth about those we love the most. The Adventurer's Son includes fifty black-and-white photographs. AD12967 #20143868 From a New York Times bestselling author and Caldecott-honor winning artist comes an exuberant illustrated story about playing dress up, having fun, and feeling free. The boy loves to be naked. He romps around his house naked and wild and free. Until he romps into his parents' closet and is inspired to get dressed. First he tries on his dad's clothes, but they don't fit well. Then he tries on his mom's clothes, and wow! The boy looks great. He looks through his mom's jewelry and makeup and tries that on, too. When he's discovered by his mother and father, the whole family (including the dog!) get in on the fun, and they all get dressed together. This charming and humorous story was inspired by bestselling and award-winning author Peter Brown's own childhood, and highlights nontraditional gender roles and self-expression. When Arthur sees the advertisement for the amazing doggy Treat Timer, he knows it's the perfect gift for Pal. He sets out to earn the money to buy it, daydreaming of riches and of Pal's reaction when he sees the Treat Timer for the first time. Everything seems to be working out, too -- until a big gust of wind nearly blows Arthur's dreams of luxury away! Arthur's family vacation is all wet-it's pouring rain! Arthur has to take charge and finds new things for his family to do-like go to Gatorville. Maybe family vacation isn't so bad after all! Flat Stanley is taking over the world, one city at a time! In this thrilling fifteenth book in the renowned Flat Stanley's Worldwide Adventures chapter book series, the Lambchops visit the Big Apple, New York City! Stanley Lambchop has been invited to New York City to take part in an International Declaration of Friendship at the United Nations! But before anyone signs the declaration, the group goes on a whirlwind tour of New York City. What should be an adventure quickly turns scary when Stanley and his new friend Ian get separated from their group. But Stanley and Ian manage to find the fun in their situation, traveling around Manhattan: through the subway, across Times Square, and—finally—to the top of the Empire State Building. But at the end of the day, Stanley and Ian are still on the search to find their families and friends before it's time to sign the Declaration of Friendship. Will they meet up with their group before it's too late? This unforgettable adventure features fun, fascinating facts about New York City! And for parents and teachers, each Flat Stanley book is aligned to the Common Core State Standards, like multicultural adventure, plot and character development story elements, and compare and contrast! Don't miss any of Flat Stanley's worldwide adventures! Unhappy with his nose, Arthur visits the rhinologist to get a new one. The class homework assignment is to write a story, and everyone seems to be writing about something interesting...except Arthur. Will he find something he cares to write about or will his story be a big mess? In this chunky board book, Arthur tries to recover from chicken pox in time to go to the circus. Full color.
