Part B: 1 point

One point is earned for explaining, in the context of the scenario, how partisan divisions could prevent the action described in part A.

- Partisan divisions make it more difficult to pass a law because parties adhere to different ideological points of view.
- If Congress and the president are from different political parties, the president might threaten to veto the legislation.

Part C: 1 point

One point is earned for explaining why the Alliance Defending Freedom might argue that their constitutional rights are threatened by the Johnson Amendment.

- The Alliance Defending Freedom and other religious groups might argue that their First Amendment rights are being violated.
