CONSTITUTION STUDY GUIDE

We the People

Article 1

Section 1. All legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

Section 2. The House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every second Year by the People of the several States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature.

No Person shall be a Representative who shall not have attained to the Age of twenty five Years, and seven Years a Citizen of the United States, and who, when elected, shall not have been seven Years a Citizen of that State in which he shall be chosen.

Representatives and electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature.

The actual Enumeration of all the Persons who shall be bound to serve as Representatives in the House of Representatives shall be done in the Year 1790, and in every subsequent Year in which an Enumeration or Census shall be taken within three Years after the first Enumeration or Census: but in every Enumeration or Census there shall be added to the whole Number of free Persons, who in each State shall have attained to the Age of sixteen Years, three fifths of all other Persons who in each State shall be held as Servants, or in Debt, or in any Capacity under the Authority of the Law, making three fifths of the whole Number of Persons in each State shall be taken as the Basis for the apportionment of Representatives among the several States.

Representatives and direct Taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union, according to their respective Numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole Number of free Persons, who in each State shall have attained to the Age of sixteen Years, three fifths of all other Persons who in each State shall be held as Servants, or in Debt, or in any Capacity under the Authority of the Law, making three fifths of the whole Number of Persons in each State shall be taken as the Basis for the apportionment of Representatives among the several States.
