Under penalty of perjury, I certify that:

General instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form 450-B only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien) to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Obtain exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt decedent. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your reportable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on "foreign partners' share of effectively connected income."

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form 450-B to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form 450-B.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A trust or estate that is defined in Regulations section 301.7704-2.

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any "foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form 450-B has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign partner, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form 450-B to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.
