God At Work Your Christian Vocation In All Of Life Focal Point Gene Edward Veith Jr

God at Work Gene Edward Veith Jr.,2011-08-02 When you understand it properly the doctrine of vocation doing everything for God s glory is not a platitude or an outdated notion This principle that we vaguely apply to our lives and our work is actually the key to Christian ethics to influencing our culture for Christ and to infusing our ordinary everyday lives with the presence of God For when we realize that the mundane activities that consume most of our time are God s hiding places our perspective changes Culture expert Gene Veith unpacks the biblical Reformation teaching about the doctrine of vocation emphasizing not what we should specifically do with our time or what careers we are called to but what God does in and through our callings even within the home In each task He has given us in our workplaces and families our churches and society God Himself is at work Veith guides you to discover God s purpose and calling in those seemingly ordinary areas by providing you with a spiritual framework for thinking about such issues and for acting upon them with a changed perspective

Family Vocation Gene Edward Veith Jr.,Mary J. Moerbe,2012-02-29 What does it mean to be called as a husband a wife a parent a child How does the grace of the gospel impact how we carry out our particular calling How does God s presence influence the struggles that families face Gene Veith joins forces with his daughter Mary Moerbe to explore these kinds of questions as well as the roles of calling and vocation in family life Though we have little control over who is in our family other than choosing a spouse and deciding to have children God has placed us with specific people for specific reasons Veith and Moerbe show how our roles are distinct and important to God s plan for our lives and that when we have a biblical understanding of those roles in our families we can move away from common dysfunctions and toward forgiveness and healing Writing with sensitivity and wisdom Veith and Moerbe address the common problems facing contemporary families the crosses the weaknesses and the uncertainties They articulate a compelling biblical paradigm for creating and sustaining loving and forgiving families who maintain hope in the face of cultural pressure This book is an important resource for all Christians including pastors counselors and those working in family ministry

The Kingdom of God Austin R. Dayal, 2018-11-20 After proclaiming that God's Kingdom had come near Jesus died on the cross This is hard to reconcile with what Jesus announced at the start of his ministry It can only be understood when we realize the relationship between the Kingdom of God and his death Jesus said flesh and blood can't inherit the Kingdom of God but only those who are born of the Spirit and for this reason Jesus had to die on the cross Jesus explained this to Nicodemus that only those who are born of the Holy Spirit can enter into the Kingdom of God He came into the world to make it happen because without the cross of Jesus there is no fulfillment of the Kingdom The proclamation of Jesus his works and his life have strong bearing on his mission Jesus proclaimed that the Kingdom of God had come near He healed the sick fed the hungry and gave hope to the poor He lived a very basic life with his disciples and had no earthly possessions This was the Kingdom that Jesus proclaimed It gave the power back to the people it gave them dignity and a life of joy and contentment It was about the wellbeing of the whole community and where the leaders served others Jesus explained the mysteries of his Kingdom through many parables which turned the whole concept of the kingdom on its head and only a few were able to understand it then as it is now It was a new and unique concept for the disciples to grasp but after his resurrection when he was with them for forty days Jesus explained everything to them as recorded in the book of Acts He instructed them to remain in Jerusalem till they were baptized by the Holy Spirit Their empowerment which is usually understood in terms of Peter's bold preaching of the gospel was in fact more than that It was to give them the courage to leave their earthly possessions and relationships and accept the other believers as their new family where God lived with them and looked after their daily needs spiritual as well as material This was a very bold step for them to take It was more daring than standing up to preach before a large crowd on the day of the Pentecost The first church in Jerusalem became a place where God's Kingdom had come They rejoiced together as they shared everything and God did mighty works among them This would not have been possible if they hadn't left their own families and possession to join the new community of God's people The church lost the initial impetus that the early Christians had in the way they lived and preached the good news of the Kingdom especially during the post Constantine period when the church leaders were seduced by the wealth that came from the state treasury The way Jesus the apostles and the early Christians had lived was completely forgotten or overlooked The sixteenth century reformation tried to recover some of the important aspect the Christianity but it did not go far enough At present the church has become its own worst enemy Some churches are trying to destroy the very foundation of our salvation by denying the existence of historical Jesus In others the faith in Jesus has failed to translate into a living reality It judges the world harshly and does not reflect the values of God's Kingdom in its daily life We need to reaffirm the apostolic faith and the community life of the early church And become a community of God's redeemed people who follow the principles of his Kingdom This is the true life and witness of the church

Luther on Vocation Gustaf Wingren, 2004-02-19 Concern about the inherited doctrine of vocation and its relevance for modern life was generated out of the complexities and frustrations especially of industrial life and it has produced a voluminous literature of a popular and semi popular kind which has served to drive home the problem of daily work upon the conscience of contemporary Christians and also to provide certain resources for handling it In addition to this varied literature the last years have also seen a very general discussion of the question at every level of church life in ecumenical conferences in the curricular material of the major denominations and in conferences and study groups of all kinds About the urgency and importance of the problem of vocation there is now no doubt But now we find that the rather simple formulae in which we have been dealing with it do justice neither to the Biblical and Reformation inheritance nor to the profound dilemmas that appear not only in industry but in every area of professional and commercial life The problem now is not only to equip our lay people with fuller theological resources for the understanding of the meaning of discipleship but to utilize their practical experience of day to day dilemmas and day to day decisions Gustaf Wingren's conscientious analysis of Luther's teaching on the matter remains our prime resource for the understanding of the relation of faith and works Nothing could exceed the patience and thoroughness with which Wingren has combed through the Luther corpus It will serve to put the full range of Luther's insight at the disposal of those who care for theology as part of their care of all the Churches Alexander Miller Stanford University

Vocation Raleigh Sadler,2021-04-13 How shall we live What is the good life What is the value of a person What is my place in this world Is God active in this world These are questions that have been asked in every culture and in every era From the Hebrew concept of Shalom wholeness well being to the Greek concept of Eudaimonia happiness and even to the American notion that all people have the right to life liberty and the pursuit of happiness great thinkers have pondered what it means for humans to flourish The doctrine of vocation uniquely answers these questions A certain level of security prosperity and freedom are essential components of human flourishing God provides these components by working through humans in their stations in life such as parents and police security farmers and bankers prosperity and soldiers and governments freedom And yet there is more for which we humans strive We are the types of beings whose wonderment drives us to the pursuit of knowledge justice and achievement In short we desire to be justified We want to be valued We want to be right or just We strive for epic ness But no mere human adulation will satisfy Nor can we justify ourselves before God with our broken lives God justifies Christians through Christ and then uses them God adds another component to human flourishing purpose He uses Christians in his economy of love to take care of the world He lifts us from the ordinary to accomplish the extraordinary even as we carry ordinary tasks For the Christian these stations become callings or vocations This can only fully be appreciated if the Christian knows that he or she is free from pleasing God through works Once the Christian is freed from this burden the whole of the Christian life is reoriented to the free exercise of love towards neighbor It is the highest calling the truly good flourishing and happy life

Loving God with All Your Mind Gene Edward Veith Jr.,2003-10-07 Our world is alive with fascinating new ideas discoveries and technologies But for Christians this can also present problems especially when the values of postmodernism and secular university life conflict with basic Christian principles What should Christians do when their beliefs come under attack in the classroom or the public square Loving God with All Your Mind shows us that the answer is neither wholesale rejection of intellectual life and culture nor blind acceptance of it The answer lies in understanding that Jesus is Lord of all of life and that everything in life must be carefully viewed in the light of what Christ s lordship means Gene Edward Veith unfolds a dazzling critique of the postmodern intellectual world and culture He affirms the part that is good and true but he also shows crucial weaknesses that have such a hold over contemporary thought This book shows Christians how to survive and flourish in a postmodern world while affirming the truth of the Christian faith

Authentic Christianity Gene Edward Veith (Jr.),A. Trevor Sutton,2017 Burnt out believers and spiritual secularists have given up any hope that an engaging and meaningful spirituality can be found in a single Christian denomination So rather than attending worship at a local church they attend to their spiritual needs elsewhere Instead of being fed by a single denomination they feast upon a smorgasbord of spiritual beliefs And while these disaffected believers have not rejected the existence of God or the need for meaningful spirituality they have strongly rejected whatever it is they think the church today has to offer
