You Had Me at Pet-Nat Rachel Signer,2021-10-19 From the publisher of Pipette Magazine discover a natural wine soaked memoir about finding your passion and falling in love It was Rachel Signer s dream to be that girl the one smoking hand rolled cigarettes out the windows of her 19th century Parisian studio apartment wearing second hand Isabel Marant jeans and sipping a glass of

Beaujolais redolent of crushed roses with a touch of horse mane Instead she was an under appreciated freelance journalist and waitress in New York City frustrated at always being broke and completely miserable in love When she tastes her first brilliant natural Pinot Noir for short a type of natural wine made with no additives or chemicals it sets her on a journey of self discovery both deeply personal and professional that leads her to Paris Italy Spain Georgia and finally deep into the wilds of South Australia and which forces her in the face of her Wildman to ask herself the hard question can she really handle the unconventional life she claims she wants Have you ever been sidetracked by something that turned into a career path Did you ever think you were looking for a certain kind of romantic partner but fell in love with someone wild passionate and with a completely different life For Signer the discovery of natural wine became an introduction to a larger ethos and philosophy that she had long craved one rooted in egalitarianism diversity organics environmental concerns and ancient traditions In You Had Me at Pinot Noir as Signer begins to truly understand these revolutionary wine producers upending the industry their deep commitment to making their wine with integrity and with as little intervention as possible she is smacked with the realization that unless she faces head on her own issues with commitment she will not be able to live a life that is as freewheeling unpredictable and singular as the wine she loves
