

English Paper One Tips

Use (TITLE) and (PUBLISHER) and (AUDIENCE) and (CONTEXT) and (TONE) and (FORM) and (STRUCTURE) at the top of the question paper and use it to help you structure your response to the poem.

If you find the poem difficult and don't really understand it, here are a few things you can do which will help to gain you marks. (Having coloured highlighters would be helpful)

- Underline all the verbs - then choose an interesting one and explain why the poet has used it.
- Underline all the crucial nouns and give one which you find is particularly useful to comment on.
- Underline all the words employed in the poem. These might be obvious if they are uncommon, but look for examples of personification or onomatopoeia or alliteration or allusion or unusual diction. Then you can pick one or two and explain the effect the poet was trying to achieve.
- Underline all the adjectives and choose one which you think is used in an interesting/successful way.
- Underline any similes and metaphors in the poem. Pick out one or two and explain what they mean. Say why they are effective.
- Look at the places where the poet has chosen to break the lines. Find one line break that you can comment on which shows rhythm and emphasis in a most particular way (perhaps use for contrast).
- Address one to the poet for his comment in your answer.

Before writing your answer, read the poem line by line slowly. Then try to group its meaning - what is the theme, what is the tone, what is the poet trying to say about the subject, the character and language of the poem, you will gain an insight into the poem's meaning. The more lines you read the poem, the more you will understand the meaning of the poem.

Having read that contemporary poetry is sometimes difficult to interpret, it can often have several meanings, or its meaning can be ambiguous. Sometimes, the poet doesn't want it to have one particular meaning, preferring instead the reader takes his/her own interpretation. You are allowed to be as open and even judgemental as possible when assessing the chosen poetic operation.

The poet communicates thoughts, emotions and ideas to the reader through a particular choice of words and structure. The subject of the poem can differ. Sometimes the poem might challenge readers' perceptions of how they view things, and help them see things in a different light. For some people, poetry is highly personal, and they engage with poems on a subjective level. In this case, you can learn a lot about life and understanding life through poems.

To help you gain a deeper understanding of what the meaning or content of a poem, try examining the following:

Notes

- Note what you believe to be the main idea or ideas of the poem, approaching it from the source.
- Note the key words or phrases repeated throughout the poem.
- Think about why the stanzas/lines are structured in a particular way.
- Explore the relationships throughout the poem.
- Use if there are any recurring themes in the poem, and reflect what the poet is trying to say by writing about them.

Professionalism in the Information and Communication Technology Industry John Weckert, Richard Lucas, 2013-10-15 Professionalism is arguably more important in some occupations than in others It is vital in some because of the life and death decisions that must be made for example in medicine In others the rapidly changing nature of the occupation makes efficient regulation difficult and so the professional behaviour of the practitioners is central to the good functioning of that occupation The core idea behind this book is that Information and Communication Technology ICT is changing so quickly that professional behaviour of its practitioners is vital because regulation will always lag behind
