Record of legends and parables of Central Asia and Tibet Street Smarts and Critical Theory Thomas McLaughlin,1996-11-01 Everybody s got a theory or do they Thomas McLaughlin argues that critical theory raising serious sustained questions about cultural practice and ideology is practiced not only by an academic elite but also by savvy viewers of sitcoms and TV news by Elvis fans and Trekkies by labor organizers and school teachers by the average person in the street Like academic theorists who are trained in a tradition of philosophical and political skepticism that challenges all orthodoxies the vernacular theorists McLaughlin identifies display a lively and healthy alertness to contradiction and propaganda They are not passive victims of ideology but active questioners of the belief systems that have power over their lives Their theoretical work arises from the circumstances they confront on the job in the family in popular culture And their questioning of established institutions McLaughlin contends is essential and healthy for it energizes other theorists who clarify the purpose and strategies of institutions and justify the existence of cultural practices Street Smarts and Critical Theory leads us through eye opening explorations of social activism in the Southern Christian anti pornography movement fan critiques in the zine scene New Age narratives of healing and transformation the methodical manipulations of the advertising profession and vernacular theory in the whole language movement Emphasizing that theory is itself a pervasive cultural practice McLaughlin calls on academic institutions to recognize and develop the theoretical strategies that students bring into the classroom This book demystifies the idea of theory taking it out of the hands of a priestly caste and showing it as the democratic endowment of the people Daniel T O Hara Temple University author of Radical Parody American Culture and Critical Agency after Foucault and Lionel Trilling The Work of Liberation McLaughlin takes seriously the critical and theoretical activity of everyday people and does so in a way that will empower these very populations to take seriously their own activities as theorists A manifesto that is sure to be heard by the younger generation of thinkers in American cultural studies Henry Jenkins MIT author of Textual Poachers Television Fans and Participatory Culture Agartha Mariana
