Canadian Citizenship Practice Tests Musitature, CANADIAN CITIZENSHIP TEST According to the CIC website applicants who are 18 54 years of age are required to demonstrate adequate knowledge of Canada and of the responsibilities and privileges of citizenship through a citizenship knowledge test in either English or French The citizenship test is usually a written test but it could be an interview You will be tested on two basic requirements for citizenship 1 knowledge of Canada and of the rights and responsibilities of citizenship and 2 adequate knowledge of English or French The actual test lasts for 30 minutes and contains 20 multiple choice questions Applicants for citizenship must answer at least 15 75% questions correctly to pass the test All practice questionnaires have been made in English from CIC s Discover Canada booklet While no efforts have been spared to ensure the accuracy of the information in the questionnaire free citizenship test musitature com its authors and associates cannot be held responsible for any damages occurring due to errors or omissions Although the tests we provide on our website are not the actual Canadian Citizenship test the questions are specifically designed to help you prepare for the actual test

Gendered Militarism in Canada Nancy Taber,2016-01-29 Despite Canada s claim to be a gender equitable nation militarism continues to function in ways that protect inequality from the Introduction Little has been done to examine critique and challenge the ways ingrained societal ideas of militarism and gender influence lifelong learning patterns and practices of Canadians Editor Nancy Taber and ten other contributors explore reasons why Canadian educators should be concerned with how learning militarism and gender intersect Readers may be surprised to discover how this reaches beyond the classroom into the everyday lessons attitudes and habits that all Canadians are taught often without question Pushing the boundaries of education theory research and practice this book will be of particular interest to feminist adult and teacher educators and to scholars and students of education the military and women s and gender studies Contributors Mark Anthony Castrodale Gillian L Fournier Andrew Haddow Cindy L Hanson Laura Lane Jamie Magnusson Robert C Mizzi Shahrzad Mojab Sne ana Ratkovi Roger Saul Nancy Taber

Global Citizenship, Common Wealth and Uncommon Citizenships ,2018-08-16 This set of essays critically analyze global citizenship by bringing together leading ideas about citizenship and the commons in this time that both needs and resists a global perspective on issues and relations Education plays a significant role in how we come to address these issues and this volume will contribute to ensuring that equity global citizenship and the common wealth provide platforms from which we might engage in transformational collective work The authors address the global significance of debates and struggles about belonging and abjection solidarity and rejection identification and othering as well as love and hate Global citizenship as a concept and a practice is now being met with a dangerous call for insularism and a protracted ethno nationalism based on global economic imperialism movements for white supremacy and miscegenation various forms of religious extremism and identity politics but which antithetically also comes from the anti globalization movement focused on building strong sustainable communities We see a taming of citizens that contributes to the taming of what we understand as the public sphere and the commons the places of cultural natural and intellectual resources that are shared and not privately owned The work of global citizenship education is distinguishable from the processes of a deadly globalization or destruction of the world that responds to the interlocking issues that make life on the planet precarious for human and non humans everywhere albeit an unequal precarity This book is an invitation into a conversation that explores and makes visible some of the hidden chasms of oppression and inequity in the world It is meant to provoke both argument and activism as we work to secure common spaces that are broadly life sustaining Contributors are Ali A Abdi Sung Kyung Ahn Chouaib El Bouhali Xochilt Hernandez Carrie Karsgaard Marlene McKay Michael O Sullivan Christina Palech Karen Pashby Karen J Pheasant Neganigwane Thashika Pillay Ashley Rerrie Grace J Rwiza Toni Samek Lynette Shultz Harry Smaller Crain Soudien Derek Tannis and Irene Friesen Wolfstone

Citizenship and Gender in Britain, 1688-1928 Matthew McCormack,2019-05-31 Citizenship and Gender in Britain 1688 1928 explores the history of citizenship in Britain during a period when admission to the political community was commonly thought about in terms of gender Between the Glorious Revolution of 1688 and the Equal Franchise Act of 1928 the key question in British politics was what sorts of men and subsequently women should be admitted to citizenship particularly in terms of parliamentary suffrage This book makes new links between the histories of gender and politics and surveys exciting recent work in these areas By examining central topics such as political masculinity electoral culture party politics and women s suffrage through this lens it expands not only the remit of gender history but encourages the reader to rethink how we approach the history of politics It explores the close connections between gender nation and class in Britain and advocates a new cultural history of politics for the period between the seventeenth and twentieth centuries Citizenship and Gender in Britain 1688 1928 is essential reading for students of early modern and modern British history gender history and political history

Canadian Citizenship Workbook Drew Smith,2018-08-12 The Canadian Citizenship Workbook is a study aid for the Canadian Citizenship Exam and is to be used alongside the official government guide This workbook contains over 400 questions in various question formats that will help the applicant successfully pass the Canadian Citizenship Exam

Applying Public Opinion in Governance Scott Edward Bennett,2017-06-01 This book explores how public opinion is used to design monitor and evaluate government programmes in Australia Canada New Zealand and the United Kingdom Using information collected from the media and from international practitioners in the public opinion field as well as interviews in each of the 4 countries the author describes how views of public opinion and governance differ significantly between elites and the general public Bennett argues that elites generally risk more by allowing the creation of new data fearing that its analysis may become public and create communications and political problems of various kinds The book finds evidence that recent conservative governments in several countries are changing their perspective on the use of public opinion and that conventional public opinion studies are facing challenges from the availability of other kinds of information and new technologies This book is a hugely valuable contribution to a hitherto little explored field and will appeal to academics and practitioners alike Routledge Handbook of Global Citizenship Studies Engin Isin, Peter Nyers, 2014-06-27 Citizenship studies is at a crucial moment of globalizing as a field What used to be mainly a European North American and Australian field has now expanded to major contributions featuring scholarship from Latin America Asia Africa and the Middle East The Routledge Handbook of Global Citizenship Studies takes into account this globalizing moment At the same time it considers how the global perspective exposes the strains and discords in the concept of citizenship as it is understood today With over fifty contributions from international interdisciplinary experts the Handbook features state of the art analyses of the practices and enactments of citizenship across broad continental regions Africas Americas Asias and Europes as well as deterritorialized forms of citizenship Diasporicity and Indigeneity Through these analyses the Handbook provides a deeper understanding of citizenship in both empirical and theoretical terms This volume sets a new agenda for scholarly investigations of citizenship Its wide ranging contributions and clear accessible style make it essential reading for students and scholars working on citizenship issues across the humanities and social sciences Mohawk Interruptus Audra Simpson, 2014-05-27 Mohawk Interruptus is a bold challenge to dominant thinking in the fields of Native studies and anthropology Combining political theory with ethnographic research among the Mohawks of Kahnaw ke a reserve community in what is now southwestern Quebec Audra Simpson examines their struggles to articulate and maintain political sovereignty through centuries of settler colonialism The Kahnaw ke Mohawks are part of the Haudenosaunee or Iroquois Confederacy Like many Iroquois peoples they insist on the integrity of Haudenosaunee governance and refuse American or Canadian citizenship Audra Simpson thinks through this politics of refusal which stands in stark contrast to the politics of cultural recognition Tracing the implications of refusal Simpson argues that one sovereign political order can exist nested within a sovereign state albeit with enormous tension around issues of jurisdiction and legitimacy Finally Simpson critiques anthropologists and political scientists whom she argues have too readily accepted the assumption that the colonial project is complete Belying that notion Mohawk Interruptus calls for and demonstrates more robust and evenhanded forms of inquiry into indigenous politics in the teeth of settler governance It's Complicated Danah Boyd, 2014-02-25 Surveys the online social habits of American teens and analyzes the role technology and social media plays in their lives examining common misconceptions about such topics as identity privacy danger and bullying Immigration in the Global Era: Migrants and the People and Laws at Origin and Destination Guillermina Jasso, Moshe Semyonov, 2021-09-27 An Ethics of Political Communication Alexander Brown, 2021-09-27 Working in the tradition of analytic philosophy Alexander Brown argues that many different forms of political communication or anti communication that often infuriate the public can also be ethically or morally objectionable These forms include question dodging offering scripted answers stonewalling not listening disseminating propaganda pandering being insincere giving false denials issuing revisionist interpretations refusing to take responsibility never apologising boasting and gaslighting Brown invokes a host of normative reasons including those having to do with epistemic arrogance interference in autonomy and violating the right to be heard This is not to say that all things considered politicians should never engage in dubious political communication Sometimes these are necessary evils Brown argues however that further moral inquiry is needed to show why they are evils and to determine when the use of these rhetorical tactics can be excessive unreasonable or out of place

Key Features Identifies and conceptualises forms of dubious political communication Develops an ethical evaluation of political communication Considers possible justifications for the use of dubious political communication Makes practical recommendations on how to regulate unethical political communication

Tele-tax United States. Internal Revenue Service,1988

Rules for Radicals Saul Alinsky,2010-06-30 This country's leading hell raiser The Nation shares his impassioned counsel to young radicals on how to effect constructive social change and know the difference between being a realistic radical and being a rhetorical one First published in 1971 and written in the midst of radical political developments whose direction Alinsky was one of the first to question this volume exhibits his style at its best Like Thomas Paine before him Alinsky was able to combine both in his person and his writing the intensity of political engagement with an absolute insistence on rational political discourse and adherence to the American democratic tradition
