

Question Set 2: California Bar Exam

The State Bar of California is considering changing its exam structure such that instead of 200 multiple-choice questions, there will be 180. Before making any changes permanent, they first want to collect data to compare the outcomes of the two structures. They have obtained a representative sample of 85 Law students and randomly assigned each to take either the new or old exam. The summarized sample data is given in the table below.

Curriculum	N	Mean	SD
New	42	65.9	5.9
