The Night Watch Sarah Waters, 2016-07-28 I thought everything would change after the war And now no one even mentions it It is as if we all got together in private and said whatever you do don't mention that like it never happened It's the late 1940s Calm has returned to London and five people are recovering from the chaos of war In scenes set in a quiet dating agency a bombed out church and a prison cell the stories of these five lives begin to intertwine and we uncover the desire and regret that has bound them together Sarah Waters's story of illicit love and everyday heroism takes us from a dazed and shattered post war Britain back into the heart of the Blitz towards the secrets that are hidden there Olivier nominated playwright Hattie Naylor has created a thrilling and theatrically inventive adaptation of a great modern novel The stage adaptation of The Night Watch was premiered at the Royal Exchange Theatre Manchester on 16 May 2016

The Little Stranger Sarah Waters, 2009-05-05 From the multi award winning and bestselling author of The Night Watch and Fingersmith comes an astonishing novel about love loss and the sometimes unbearable weight of the past In a dusty post war summer in rural Warwickshire a doctor is called to see a patient at lonely Hundreds Hall Home to the Ayres family for over two centuries the once grand house is now in decline its masonry crumbling its garden choked with weeds All around the world is changing and the family is struggling to adjust to a society with new values and rules Roddie Ayres who returned from World War II physically and emotionally wounded is desperate to keep the house and what remains of the estate together for the sake of his mother and his sister Caroline Mrs Ayres is doing her best to hold on to the gracious habits of a gentler era and Caroline seems cheerfully prepared to continue doing the work a team of servants once handled even if it means having little chance for a life of her own beyond Hundreds But as Dr Faraday becomes increasingly entwined in the Ayreses lives signs of a more disturbing nature start to emerge both within the family and in Hundreds Hall itself And Faraday begins to wonder if they are all threatened by something more sinister than a dying way of life something that could subsume them completely Both a nuanced evocation of 1940s England and the most chill inducing novel of psychological suspense in years The Little Stranger confirms Sarah Waters as one of the finest and most exciting novelists writing today

The Heat of the Day Elizabeth Bowen,2019-06-05 In The Heat of the Day Elizabeth Bowen brilliantly recreates the tense and dangerous atmosphere of London during the bombing raids of World War II Many people have fled the city and those who
