Faith Religion Theology

Professing the Faith Douglas John Hall,1996-11-22 What does it mean to profess the faith as North American Christians at the end of the second millennium What is Christian theology as consciously crafted in light of the distinctive history culture and experience of North America Hall marshalls doctrinal resources for a critical creative response that stresses God s necessary involvement in an unfinished dynamic suffering world

Faith Among Faiths James Lee Fredericks,1999 In the twenty first century the meaning of non Christian religions for Christian faith will become a central question Are all religions including Christianity responding to the same transcendent truth or are religions fundamentally different In Faith among Faiths James Fredericks moves beyond the popular pluralist model of religions and explores the meaning of Christianity in light of non Christian religions By doing theology comparatively Fredericks shows how Christians can look upon religious diversity as an opportunity for enriching their own spiritual quest BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Faith, Religion & Theology Brennan Hill,Paul F. Knitter,William Madges,1990-01-01

Faith, Reason and Theology Saint Thomas (Aquinas),Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies,1987 The topics of Questions i iv of St Thomas Aquinas Commentary on the De Trinitate of Boethius are of vital interest to the Christian philosopher and theologian Written while Aquinas was a youthful Master of Theology the Questions show his solidarity with Christian tradition his wide acquaintance with Scripture and the Fathers of the Church and his creative use of philosophy in addressing theological issues Question i treats of the possibility of our knowing God and the human limitations of this knowledge Question ii concerns theology as a science which reaches out to God by faith in his revealed word and uses philosophical reasoning to throw light on the contents of revelation In Question iii Aquinas takes up the nature of faith showing its relation to religion and its necessity for the welfare of the human race He argues for the catholicity or universality of the Christian faith and defends the orthodox teaching of the trinity of Persons in the one God Question iv turns to a set of philosophical problems occasioned by Boethius treatise on the Trinity the factors that cause a plurality in genera species and individuals In this connection Aquinas makes one of his most controversial statements of the principle of individuation

Faith and Logic Basil Mitchell,2013-07-18 When this book was originally published in 1957 there had been lively debates on the air and in the press about the bearing of modern philosophy upon Christianity but there had been relatively little sustained discussion of the subject This book of essays was the product of a small group of Oxford philosophers and theologians who had met and talked informally for some years before writing it It is an attempt to discuss with care and candour some of the problems raised for Christian belief by contemporary analytical philosophy In asking the questions raised this book makes articulate the perplexities of many intelligent people both believers and unbelievers The contributors concentrate on the way such concepts as God Revelation the Soul Grace are actually used rather than asserting or denying some very general theory of meaning

Theological Foundations John J. Mueller, 2007 Here a team of award winning teaching scholars has come together to create an introductory text that offers a truly unique and innovative contribution to the discipline of theological studies This first book provides students of any religious tradition with the foundational skills vocabulary conceptual understanding and research abilities that they need to succeed in theology and religious studies Theological Foundations provides the following Ten chapters that introduce the major sub disciplines of theology creating a well rounded source for understanding the discipline as a whole Contributions that are clear accessible and steeped in content A strong basis for vigorous intellectual and personal exploration of life and our relation to God Flexibility that allows the instructor to assign readings in any order that fits his or her syllabus A one of a kind integrated library research component From the Reference Librarian which teaches students the foundational skills needed for successful study in theology and in any academic discipline

Religion, Christian Faith, and Secular World LIT Verlag, 2019-01-07 What has been the role and understanding of religion in the last hundred years and what can be the meaning of religion today There is a well known ongoing process of secularization in the Western world Is there also a return of religion And what does the fate of religion mean for an understanding of the Christian faith These are topics of this book The articles originate from the actual fields of research of an interdisciplinary group of scholars who took part in a symposium held in Bergen Nov 2019 The contributions relate to specific contexts in the modern history of religion from the perspective of religious studies theology philosophy and sociology The editors are Hans Bringeland Assoc Prof and Arve Brunvoll Prof emer both teachers of theology and philosophy at NLA University College Bergen Norway

Tracing the Contours of Faith Fehr, Wayne L. Fehr, 2013-09 This book is a collection of brief essays written in response to specific questions about the Christian faith vision of reality The questions addressed here have arisen out of the experience of ordinary Christians trying to make sense of their faith Some are asking about particular Church words Some are expressing difficulties in believing Some are probing the paradoxes of Christian existence The author responds as a professional theologian writing in a non technical way for fellow believers His purpose is to make the best insights of sound theology available to ordinary Church members in order to minister to their faith life Although many of these brief essays are limited in scope there is a coherent understanding of Christian faith that underlies all of them Each essay is simply articulating part of that understanding in response to a specific question Wayne Fehr has been a priest for many years first in the Roman Communion where he was ordained in 1969 as a member of the Jesuit Order and then later in the Anglican Communion where he was received as a priest by the Bishop of Milwaukee in 1988 He is also an academic theologian with a doctoral degree in religious studies systematic theology from Yale University and a number of years of teaching experience on the graduate level as well as with undergraduates These two vocational commitments as priest and as theologian have come together for him in a life long involvement with the interpretation of Christian faith for the benefit of his fellow believers At present he is a member of Trinity Episcopal Church in Wauwatosa Wisconsin where he serves as Priest Associate Previous books are his doctoral dissertation The Birth of the Catholic Tübingen School and with Donald Hands Spiritual Wholeness for Clergy

Faith and Reason Steve Wilkens, 2014-06-10 Steve Wilkens edits a debate between three different understandings of the relationship between faith and reason between theology and philosophy The three views include Faith and Philosophy in Tension Faith Seeking Understanding and the Thomistic Synthesis This introduction to a timeless quandary is an essential resource for students

Faith Seeking Understanding, Fourth ed. Daniel L. Migliore, 2023-05-31 An authoritative and beloved textbook updated for the current generation of theology students Daniel L Migliore s classic theology textbook returns in a new edition revised and supplemented with fresh material Faith Seeking Understanding covers fundamental topics for budding theologians from biblical hermeneutics to the incarnation to the life of faith As in previous editions the material culminates in four imaginative dialogues between prominent thinkers to illustrate major theological debates In addition to updates throughout the text the fourth edition also includes a new introduction and an additional chapter on Christology Students will appreciate the textbook s accessible style comprehensive reading recommendations and glossary of theological terms

Theology: A Very Short Introduction David Ford, 2013-10-24 This Very Short Introduction provides both the believer and non believer with a balanced survey of the central questions of theology David Ford s approach draws us in to considering the principles underlying religious belief including the centrality of salvation to most major religions the concept of God in ancient modern and postmodern contexts the challenge posed to theology by prayer and worship and the issue of sin and evil He also probes the nature of experience knowledge and wisdom in theology and discusses what is involved in interpreting theological texts In this new edition Ford considers the contemporary relevance of theology including the effect of globalization and digitized communication examines the theological responses to change and development in science considers the impact of increased engagement between Islam and the West and looks at the development and importance of theology between the different faiths ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable

Thomas Aquinas Frederick Christian Bauerschmidt, 2013-08-29 Thomas Aquinas is widely recognized as one of history s most significant Christian theologians and one of the most powerful philosophical minds of the western tradition But what has often not been sufficiently attended to is the fact that he carried out his theological and philosophical labours as a part of his vocation as a Dominican friar dedicated to a life of preaching and the care of souls Fererick Christian Bauerschmidt places Aquinas s thought within the context of that vocation and argues that his views on issues of God creation Christology soteriology and the Christian life are both shaped by and in service to the distinctive goals of the Dominicans What Aquinas says concerning both matters of faith and matters of reason as well as his understanding of the relationship between the two are illuminated by the particular Dominican call to serve God through handing on to others through preaching and teaching the fruits of one s own theological reflection

Theism and the Christian Faith Charles Carroll Everett, 1909

Principles of Christian Theology John Macquarrie, 1977 First published in 1966 Principles of Christian Theology is recognized as a classic in its presentation of the major themes of Christian thought in contemporary terms This edition now includes new or additional material on topics such as the individual and society truth demons atonement the Holy Spirit the papacy and collegiality As noted theologian Robert McAfee Brown has said of Professor Macquarrie possibly no one has a greater ability to summarize and describe varying points of view with such scrupulous fairness and clarity and yet maintain a distinctive position of his own

Foundations of the Christian Faith James Montgomery Boice, 2019-01-29 In one systematic volume James Montgomery Boice provides a readable overview of Christian theology With scholarly rigor and a pastor's heart Boice carefully opens the topics of the nature of God the person and work of Christ the work of the Holy Spirit in justification and sanctification and ecclesiology and eschatology This updated edition includes a foreword by Philip Ryken and a section by section study guide

Postmodern Theology Frederic B. Burnham, 2006-10-01 The dominant position of science in our culture has ended In our postmodern world belief that science will provide the answer to our problems and that progress is inevitable has been shaken if not toppled Optimism has been replaced by realism creating a milieu for the development of intelligent Christian belief Participating in the Trinity Institute's conference on The Church in a Postmodern Age these six prominent scholars explore the breakdown of the basic tenets of the Enlightenment the sorry state of biblical literacy in our culture Christian faith in a pluralistic world the relevance of the Bible today and the role of the church in our age Contributors Robert N Bellah Diogenes Allen George A Lindbeck James B Miller Sandra M Schneiders and Rowan D Williams

Faith, Form, and Fashion Paul Helm, 2014-12-25 This is a detailed examination of the theological innovations of Kevin Vanhoozer and John Franke Each proposes that doctrinal and systematic theology should be re-cast in the light of postmodernity No longer can Christian theology be foundational or have a stable metaphysical and epistemological framework Vanhoozer advocates a theo-dramatic reconstruction of Christian doctrine replacing the timeless propositions of the purely cerebral theology of the Reformed tradition in favor of a theology that does justice to the polyphony of multiple biblical genres Franke holds that theology is part of a three-way conversation between Scripture tradition and culture with an uncertain outcome This study shows that each of these proposals is based on misunderstanding and exaggeration and that the case against foundationalism is unclear and unpersuasive It is argued that Vanhoozer's appeal to revelation as divine speech acts is not as radical as he thinks and his epistemology is weak In the hands of postmodernity Christian theology abandons its exactness and the standards of care that are a notable feature of doctrinal constrictions The book will be of importance to those with interest in Reformed theology or Christian theology more generally It provides a clear assessment of the impact of the postmodern mindset on theology

Professing the Faith Douglas John Hall, 1996 What does it mean to profess the faith as North American Christians at the end of the second millennium Douglas Hall looks to the heart of Christian faith its teaching about God Creatures and Christ to articulate a critical and creative response to contemporary culture The core of Hall's trilogy Professing the Faith is a fresh and frank engagement of the North American context by one of the continent's finest religious thinkers

Intellect and Action Colin E. Gunton, 2000 This volume is an important collection which will be invaluable for all scholars and students of systematic theology and Christian doctrine It includes discussions on salvation according to Calvin and the doctrine of election
