Learning to Look Alva Noë, 2021 Works of art sometimes leave us speechless But they almost never shut us up They can't There's just too much to say Talking about art doesn't leave things as they are it changes everything To look to think to say what you see or why you respond as you do this changes what you see and it changes your response The effort and the caring remake us They remake us in real time as we listen to the song or examine the painting or watch the movie This is not unique to art of course What I have just outlined goes for all experience and is really life's first principle life is a process of growth and reorganization a process that commences right then when we first act for we reorganize ourselves and develop in response to the ways what we do changes what we undergo as Dewey might have said But art aims at this there is art so that we may remake ourselves and also so that we may catch ourselves in the act of this remaking Art requires creation even from its beholder Yogi Berra was right you can see a lot by observing But observation the effort and the caring this requires thought attention focus It can be play but it is also work like Art always proposes a task and the task is neither easy nor quite well enough defined The task though is only this try to perceive try to bring what is there into focus If you do this you will find yourself unveiled and to whatever little extent put together anew The crucial thing to accept is that we don't get all this the wow the pleasure the unveiling and the reorganization just for the price of admission We have to join in turn on throw thoughts and reactions at the works themselves position ourselves to catch them on the rebound and allow room for emotions not always positive This is something we typically do with other people and in the field cast by their responses and their words and argument Works of art are always strange provocations sometimes they offend us more often they leave us untouched unaffected even bored And this is where their value lies Each of the short writings collected here is an exercise in giving art and myself the time to let something happen I try to do this work so that art may do its work Some of them were written while I was working on my 2015 book Strange Tools Art and Human Nature and they flow from the same well of curiosity that nourished that project The title is borrowed from Joshua C Taylor's famous Learning To Look which was the first book about art that I ever read
