Salt Fish Girl Larissa Lai

Salt Fish Girl Larissa Lai, 2002-08-04 a sci fi fantasy critical social commentary poetry and product of the postmodern Calling this an Asian book or a woman s book limits its scope and depth a book that delves into memory both personal and historical It is also a creative challenge to conventional discussions on immigration and geographic cultural displacement by exposing the power dynamics in the process At the same time however the circular setup of the novel the watery motifs and gendered violence situates the book within women s experiences Salt fish girl is also laden with loss denial forgetting and abandonment that is a common thread in an asian diasporic experience Larissa Lai s poetic and lucid writing style fits so well with the fantastical yet tactile tone of the book It is dream like and yet feels intensely real A delightful find story about two Asian women one a shapeshifter and the other obsessed with scent and her dead mother who lived in very different times but are somehow related And as a former Vancouverite I also appreciated the book s run down Pacific edge of the future setting Amazon com reviews The Tiger Flu Larissa Lai, 2018-09 A stunning novel about a community of parthenogenic women under siege after the end of the world When Fox is a Thousand Larissa Lai, 2004 An evocative novel that links the lives of a ninth century poet nun and a contemporary Asian American woman sybil unrest Larissa Lai, Rita Wong, 2013-09-26 Originally published by LINEBooks in 2008 sybil unrest by Larissa Lai and Rita Wong draws out the interconnections between feminism environmentalism and personal political responsibility highlighting and questioning notions of human and female evident in contemporary North American culture It does so by referencing Popular cultural icons political figures business slogans transnational corporations and other presences in our media saturated world which populate the lines in the words of a reviewer from Asian Am Lit Fans online journal Yet sybil unrest is more than a glorious odyssey through contemporary culture Reviewer Sophie Mayer writing on her blog on Chroma compares sybil unrest to works by Anne Carson and Mary Shelley And Lauren Fournier writing in the Fall 2011 issue of West Coast Line draws attention to the way sybil unrest unlike the traditional avant garde poetics focused only on the cultural and aesthetic expands outward into the cultural and political social worlds This book marks its space in 21st century poetics in indelible ink The focus away from an I and onto an interactive and malleable subjective takes this foray into the avant garde and makes it into a critique of human as a species as Sonnet L Abbe remarks in the Autumn 2011 issue of Canadian Literature sybil unrest is clever filled with delirious wordplay deprecation and a subtle humour that will catch you unawares and make you laugh out loud Iron Goddess of Mercy Larissa Lai, 2021-04-13 Iron Goddess of Mercy by Lambda Literary Award winner Larissa Lai for the novel The Tiger Flu is a long poem that captures the vengeful yet hopeful movement of the Furies mid whirl and dance with them through the horror of the long now Inspired by the tumultuous history of Hong Kong from the Japanese and British occupations to the ongoing pro democracy protests the poem interrogates the complicated notion of identity offering a prism through which the term Asian can be understood to make sense of a complex set of relations The self crystallizes in moments of solidity only to dissolve and whirl away again The poet is a windsock catching all the affect that blows at her and ballooning to fullness only to empty again when the wind changes direction Iron Goddess of Mercy is a game of mah jong played deep into the night an endless gamble Presented in sixty four fragments to honor the sixty four hexagrams of the I Ching Iron Goddess of Mercy also borrows from haibun a traditional Japanese form of travel writing in which each diary entry closes with a haiku The poem dizzies turns on itself It rants it curses it writes love letters but as the Iron Goddess is ever changing so is the object of her address a maenad Kool Aid Chiang Kai shek the economy a clown freedom of speech a brother a bother a typist a monster a machine Iris Chang Hannah Arendt the Greek warrior Achilles or a deer caught in the headlights Finally a balm to the poem s devastating passion and fury Iron Goddess of Mercy is also a type of oolong tea a most fragrant infusion said to have been a gift from the compassionate bodhisattva Guan Yin Summoning the ghosts of history and politics Iron Goddess of Mercy explores the complexities of identity through the lens of rage and empowerment This publication meets the EPUB Accessibility requirements and it also meets the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines WCAG AA It is screen reader friendly and is accessible to persons with disabilities A Simple book with few images which is defined with accessible structural markup This book contains various accessibility features such as alternative text for images table of contents page list landmark reading order and semantic structure

Emerson College Ecofeminist Science Fiction Douglas A. Vakoch, 2021-04-29 Ecofeminist Science Fiction International Perspectives on Gender Ecology and Literature provides guidance in navigating some of the most pressing dangers we face today Science fiction helps us face problems that threaten the very existence of humankind by giving us the emotional distance to see our current situation from afar separated in our imaginations through time space or circumstance Extrapolating from contemporary science science fiction allows a critique of modern society imagining more life affirming alternatives In this collection ecocritics from five continents scrutinize science fiction for insights into the fundamental changes we need to make to survive and thrive as a species Contributors examine ecofeminist themes in films such as Avatar Star Wars and The Stepford Wives as well as television series including Doctor Who and Westworld Other scholars explore an internationally diverse group of both canonical and lesser known science fiction writers including Oreet Ashery Iraj Fazel Bakhsheshi Liu Cixin Louise Erdrich Hanns Heinz Ewers Larissa Lai Ursula K Le Guin Chen Qiufan Mary Doria Russell Larissa Sansour Karen Traviss and Jeanette Winterson Ecofeminist Science Fiction explores the origins of human caused environmental change in the twin oppressions of women and of nature driven by patriarchal power and ideologies Female embodiment is examined through diverse natural and artificial forms and queer ecologies challenge heteronormativity The links between war and environmental destruction are analyzed and the capitalist motivations and means for exploiting nature are critiqued through postcolonial perspectives Daphne du Maurier A. Horner, S. Zlosnik, 1998-04-08 Daphne du Maurier Writing Identity and the Gothic Imagination is the first full length evaluation of du Maurier s fiction and the first critical study of du Maurier as a Gothic writer Horner and Zlosnik argue that the fears at the heart of du Maurier s Gothic fictions reflect both personal and broader cultural anxieties concerning sexual and social identity Using the most recent work in Gothic and gender studies they enter the current debate on the nature of Female Gothic and raise questions about du Maurier s relationship to such a tradition Reproductive Acts Heather Latimer, 2013-06-01 Forty years after Roe v Wade it is evident that the ideologies of choices and rights which have publicly framed reproductive politics in North America since the landmark legal decision have been inadequate in making sense of the topic s complexities In Reproductive Acts Heather Latimer investigates what contemporary fiction and film can tell us about the divisive nature of these politics and demonstrates how fictional representations of reproduction allow for readings of reproductive politics that are critical of the terms of the debate itself In an innovative argument about the power of fiction to engage and shape politics Latimer analyzes works by authors such as Margaret Atwood Kathy Acker Toni Morrison Larissa Lai and director Alfonso Cuar n among others to claim that the unease surrounding reproduction particularly the abortion debate has increased both inside and outside the US over the last forty years Fictional representation Latimer argues reveals reproductive politics to be deeply connected to cultural anxieties about gender race citizenship and sexuality anxieties that cannot be contained under the rules of individual rights or choices Striking a balance between fictional historical and political analysis Reproductive Acts makes a compelling argument for the vital role narrative plays in how we make sense of North American reproductive politics

Critical Collaborations Smaro Kamboureli, Christl Verduyn, 2014-05-28 Critical Collaborations Indigeneity Diaspora and Ecology in Canadian Literary Studies is the third volume of essays produced as part of the TransCanada conferences project The essays gathered in Critical Collaborations constitute a call for collaboration and kinship across disciplinary political institutional and community borders They are tied together through a simultaneous call for resistance to Eurocentrism corporatization rationalism and the fantasy of total systems of knowledge and a call for critical collaborations These collaborations seek to forge connections without perceived identity linking concepts and communities without violating the differences that constitute them seeking epistemic kinships while maintaining a willingness to not know In this way they form a critical conversation between seemingly distinct areas and demonstrate fundamental allegiances between diasporic and indigenous scholarship transnational and local knowledges legal and eco critical methodologies Links are forged between Indigenous knowledge and ecological and social justice creative critical reading and ambidextrous epistemologies unmaking the nation through translocalism and unsettling histories of colonial complicity through a poetics of relation Together these essays reveal how the critical methodologies brought to bear on literary studies can both challenge and exceed disciplinary structures presenting new forms of strategic transdisciplinarity that expand the possibilities of Canadian literary studies while also emphasizing humility complicity and the limits of knowledge not war As an accurate account of Vancouver's exploration of our coastline Burning Water conveys the exact length 99 feet of the explorer's ship and contains citations from his journals As a work of fanciful fiction things usually thought to be impossible transpire without compromising the realism of the text Bowering recalls that his free hand with history particularly incensed the founder of the National Archives who had written a biography of George Vancouver and complained in print that Burning Water differed too much from other similar books in its field

Slanting I, Imagining We Larissa Lai, 2014-07-31 The 1980s and 1990s are a historically crucial period in the development of Asian Canadian literature Slanting I Imagining We Asian Canadian Literary Production in the 1980s and 1990s contextualizes and reanimates the urgency of that period illustrates its historical specificities and shows how the concerns of that moment from cultural appropriation to race essentialism to shifting models of the state continue to resonate for contemporary discussions of race and literature in Canada Larissa Lai takes up the term Asian Canadian as a term of emergence in the sense that it is constantly produced differently and always in relation to other terms often whiteness but also Indigeneity queerness feminism African Canadian and Asian American In the 1980s and 1990s Asian Canadian erupted in conjunction with the post structural recognition of the instability of the subject But paradoxically it also came into being through activist work and so depended on an imagined stability that never fully materialized Slanting I Imagining We interrogates this fraught tension and the relational nature of the term through a range of texts and events including the Gold Mountain Blues scandal the conference Writing Thru Race and the self writings of Evelyn Lau and Wayson Choy
