

The book cover features a dramatic, low-key photograph. In the foreground, a bird of prey, possibly a hawk or eagle, is perched on a dark, craggy rock. The bird's feathers are dark and detailed, with its head turned slightly. In the background, a muscular, shirtless man is shown from the chest up, his body partially obscured by mist or smoke. He has a serious expression and is looking towards the viewer. The overall color palette is cool, dominated by blues, greys, and the dark tones of the bird and rock.
